A Taste of Persia: An Introduction to Persian Cooking Najmieh Batmanglij, 2012-02-23 A Taste of Persia is a collection of authentic recipes from one of the world's oldest cuisines chosen and adapted for today's lifestyle and kitchen. Here are light appetizers and kababs, hearty stews and rich golden crusted rice, among many other dishes, all fragrant with the distinctive herbs, spices or fruits of Iran. Each recipe offers clear, easy-to-follow step-by-step instructions. Most take less than an hour to prepare; many require only a few moments; many others can be made in advance. Besides its 100 recipes and 60 photographs, the book includes a useful dictionary of Persian cooking techniques and ingredients, a list of specialty stores around the nation that sell hard-to-find items, and a brief history of Persian cookery. Together, these make a complete introduction to this wonderful cuisine.

An Encounter with Dylan Thomas Ebrahim Golestan, 2022-09-27 Abadan 1951. Iran and Britain are bracing for battle over the continued British monopoly of Iran's oil. Twenty-nine-year-old Ebrahim Golestan, who was to become a towering figure in Iranian cinema and literature, encounters Dylan Thomas, the famous Welsh poet who died two years later at the age of thirty-nine from bronchial disease and pneumonia. More for his celebrity than an intimate knowledge of the subject, Thomas had been sent to Iran by the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company to write a script for a propaganda film about the company's supposedly salutary role in the country. But for a few hours, Golestan and Thomas pause amidst the escalating standoff between their two countries and speak candidly about poetry, history, philosophy, and the perils of translation. Published here for the first time is the English translation, with facing pages in the original Persian, of Golestan's unflinching portrayal of that encounter, revealing all too clearly how unsuited Thomas was for the task in hand. Accompanying the translation is an account of Thomas's time in Iran, written by Abbas Milani, Director of the Iranian Studies Program at Stanford University, together with Alina Utrata, a Ph.D. candidate and Gates Cambridge scholar. Based on the poet's letters, journals, and archival material in England and Wales, it helps to shed further light on an episode long shrouded in mystery and plagued by controversy. Publication of this book coincides with the hundredth birthday in October 2022 of Ebrahim Golestan. To mark the occasion, Professor Milani has included a personal and erudite introductory essay on Golestan's life and work, examining his pioneering approach to film and his important contribution to Iranian literature, despite living in exile for most of his adult life. With a filmography and selected bibliography of the works by or about Golestan, this multifaceted volume offers not only a striking commentary on Iranian arts, politics, and history, set against the tense backdrop of the impending geopolitical clash between Britain and Iran, but also a commemoration of the work of one of the most eminent and influential representatives of Iranian culture in modern times.

At the Table Ken Albala, 2016-04-04 What's for dinner? Not just in America, but around the world. And how is it cooked? What's the historical significance of that food? How is it served and consumed, and who gets to clean up? This book provides fascinating insight into how dinner is defined in countries around the world. Almost universally, dinner is a key meal in most countries around the world, whether it be a simple dish of rice and beans a slice of pizza on the go or a multi course formal meal What do the specifics of how a meal is eaten by hand instead of with utensils for example say about a specific culture This fascinating one volume reference guide examines all aspects of dinner in international settings enabling insightful cross cultural comparisons and an understanding of the effects of modernization and globalization on food habits Some 50 countries are covered in chapters focusing on present day meal habits in Europe Asia the Middle East Africa and North and South America The commentary covers everything about the meal such as the time the cooking and preparation shopping for ingredients the clean up process gender based participation roles conversation or other social interactions and etiquette just about everything that happens at the table The book is ideal for classroom teaching and learning as the entries and photos are conducive to teaching students about other cultures directly supporting the National Geography Standards Students will be able to make informed comparisons between their own lives and the various cultural experiences described in the book

History of Paper in Iran, 1501-1925 Willem Floor, Amélie Courvat Desvergnés, 2022-10-04 The Chinese invented papermaking which by the 8th century had reached the Muslim world in Samarkand and Baghdad and Spain by the 11th century Much later at the end of the 18th century onwards modern industrial papermaking was developed by the Europeans The History of Paper in Iran 1501 to 1925 sets out for the reader the types of paper made in Iran during the Safavid and Qajar periods and the crucial role imported paper played in the country The Iranian government attempted to introduce modern European paper production technology first by sending students abroad to learn about this technology and then by purchasing equipment to set up a paper industry However during the 19th century domestic Iranian paper production came under increasing pressure from paper imports and the government abandoned its efforts to modernize the domestic paper industry The authors renowned scholar Willem Floor in collaboration with Amélie Courvat Desvergnés a museum conservator of artworks on paper and books identify and illustrate the watermarks and or countermarks of the various paper producers and provide examples of the diversity of quality composition and nature of the different types of paper used by various strata of the Iranian society Also provided are detailed import data showing which country exported paper to Iran via which routes as well as their changing market position over time Finally the various end uses of paper from books and farmans to paintings and diverse packing and utilitarian paper are examined and where possible quantified data are presented This book will reward scholars and general readers alike
