A Textbook Of Hadith Studies Authenticity Compilation Classification And Criticism Of Hadith:

A Textbook of Hadith Studies Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2014-02-15 A Textbook of Hadith Studies provides an academic introduction to the Hadith or the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad which are second only to the Qur'an in their authoritativeness within Islamic tradition. Suitable for university courses and all serious students of Islam, the topics surveyed include Hadith methodology, Hadith literature, the history of Hadith compilation and documentation and the methods of Hadith criticism: al-jarh wa al-ta'dil and classification. Mohammad Hashim Kamali, born in Afghanistan in 1944, was a professor of Islamic Law and Jurisprudence at the International Islamic University in Malaysia and dean of the International Institute of Islamic Thought and Civilization (ISTAC) from 1985-2007. He is currently chairman and CEO of the International Institute of Advanced Islamic Studies, Malaysia. He is also on the international advisory boards of eleven academic journals published in Malaysia, the United States, Canada, Kuwait, India, Australia, and Pakistan. Professor Kamali has addressed over 120 national and international conferences and has published sixteen books and over 110 academic articles. His books include The Principles of Islamic Jurisprudence, Freedom of Expression in Islam and Islamic Commercial Law: An Analysis of Futures and Options. A Textbook of Hadith Studies Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2009 Commentary on the Forty Hadith of Imam Al-Nawawi - Timeless Prophetic Gems of Guidance and Wisdom Dr. Jamal Ahmed Badi, 2016-07-29 The collection of Forty Hadith by Imam Nawawi has been recognized, accepted and appreciated by Muslim scholars for the last seven centuries. Its significance lay in the fact that these selected forty Hadith comprise the main essential and fundamental concepts of Islam. And these are the unique Hadith which are the minimum level of knowledge required for every Muslim. Various principles are contained therein such as belief, Muslim ethics and Fiqh etc. Thus it is very important to have a good understanding of these Hadith based on scholarly interpretations. This book provides a simple and practical commentary on the Hadith of Imam Nawawi's collection. It is hoped that this commentary will lead the Muslim to better understand and practice the Hadith in his or her life. Hadith: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Jonathan A. C. Brown, 2010-05 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of Islamic studies find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear: from books, chapters and journal articles to online archives, electronic data sets and blogs. Written by a leading international authority on the subject, the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated. A reader will discover, for instance, the most reliable introductions and overviews to the topic and the most important publications on various areas of scholarly interest within this topic. In Islamic studies, as in other disciplines, researchers at all levels are drowning in potentially useful scholarly information and this guide has been created as a tool for cutting through that material to find the exact source you need. This ebook is a static version of an article from Oxford Bibliographies Online: Islamic Studies, a dynamic continuously updated online resource designed to provide authoritative guidance through scholarship and other materials relevant to the study of the Islamic religion and Muslim cultures Oxford Bibliographies Online covers most subject disciplines within the social science and humanities for more information visit www aboutobo com Islam and the Modern Age ,2008

Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken,2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al H rith al Muh sib who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abb sids Although al Muh sib was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur n Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al Muh sib s teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism Modern Debates on Prophecy and Prophethood in Islam Mahsheed Ansari,2023-07-17 While prophethood is the backbone of the Islamic tradition and an uncompromised tenet of faith the impact of modernity with its ambivalent status afforded to the prophet and institution of prophethood shook many Muslim scholars Through analysis of these modern debates on prophethood in Islam this book situates Muhammad Iqbal s 1877 1938 and Said Nursi s 1877 1960 discourses within it and assesses their implications on the modern period This book introduces the what who and how of the prophets in the Islamic tradition It unveils the rich Islamic literature of both the classical and modern periods and analyses the construction of their philosophies and theologies Concise in both historical and textual analyses this book makes an important contribution to our understanding of contemporary debates on prophecy and prophethood in Islam and will be of great interest to postgraduate students and researchers of Islam religious studies medieval studies and contemporary studies of Islam and religion Islam and Good Governance M. A. Muqtedar Khan,2019-04-08 This book advances an Islamic political philosophy based on the concept of Ihsan which means to do beautiful things The author moves beyond the dominant model of Islamic governance advanced by modern day Islamists The political philosophy of Ihsan privileges process over structure deeds over identity love over law and mercy and forgiveness over retribution The work invites Muslims to move away from thinking about the form of Islamic government and to strive to create a self critical society that defends national virtue and generates institutions and practices that provide good governance Islam and AIDS Farid Esack,Sarah Chiddy,2009-01-19 Islam and AIDS is the first book to comprehensively address the HIV AIDS pandemic from an Islamic perspective with contributions from a number of internationally known activists and scholars of Islam including Kecia Ali and Abdulaziz Sachedina With an introduction by Peter Piot Director of the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV AIDS this landmark work provides an insight into new possibilities of critical and progressive Islamic approaches in both law and ethics to one of the most urgent crises facing humankind today Covering emotive issues such as gender justice poverty health disease addiction and sexuality Islam and AIDS provides the religious analysis so essential for the communities at the forefront of the epidemic Islam as Education Aaron J.

Ghiloni,2019-08-01 Motivated by the intellectual historian Shahab Ahmed s observation that the history of Islamic paideia has yet to be written Islam as Education explores multiple forms that the search for knowledge and the transmission of wisdom have taken in Islam focusing on the classical period 800 1500 CE Ghiloni draws on a wide range of Islamic primary source material ranging from sacred texts and parables to neglected pedagogical literature and paintings He depicts three Islamic religious practices pilgrimage prophecy and jihad as modes of pedagogy embodied ways of defining defusing and defending sacred knowledge Islam as Education s educational heuristic not only aids in understanding Islam but also provides guidance for intercultural and interreligious relations Ghiloni argues that Islam s grand knowledge tradition serves as a bridge between Muslims and non Muslims and compares it with the educational theory of John Dewey the celebrated American pragmatist Based on this discussion a final chapter develops practical tools for learning from cultural and religious difference

The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities Paul Morris,William Shepard,Paul Trebilco,Toni Tidswell,2013-11-26 Public interest in the religion of Islam and in Muslim communities in recent years has generated an impetus for Western Universities to establish an array of Institutes and programs dedicated to the study of Islam Despite the growth in number of programs dedicated to this study very little attention has been paid to the appropriate shape of such programs and the assumptions that ought to underlie such a study The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities attempts to address two central questions that arise through the teaching of Islam Firstly what relation is there between the study of the religion of Islam and the study of those cultures that have been shaped by that religion Secondly what is the appropriate public role of a scholar of Islam After extensive discussion of these questions the authors then continue to address the wider issues raised for the academic community having to negotiate between competing cultural and philosophical demands This edited collection provides new perspectives on the study of Islam in Western Institutions and will be an invaluable resource for students of Education and Religion in particular Islamic Studies Gender Justice in Islamic Law Musa Usman Abubakar,2018-06-14 This book seeks to interrogate the classical fiqh formulation on gender and homicide with a view to exploring further the debate on whether the so called gender injustice in Islamic law is a human creation or attributable to the divine sources of the Qur an and Sunnah The study is in response to the increasing criticism of the Islamic criminal law regime and the accusation that it discriminates on the basis of gender It argues that any attempt to critique a religious question through the lens of traditional Western human rights ideals would be resisted by the vast majority of Muslims. An examination of the question and any suggested solutions offered would be much more effective if situated within the system they identify with that is to address the question of gender justice deficit from within the Islamic legal tradition. Focusing on Nigeria and Pakistan the book achieves this by drawing on classical fiqh literature contemporary literature legislative sources and relevant case law

The Islamic Law of War A. Al-Dawoody, 2011-03-28 Al Dawoody examines the justifications and regulations for going to war in both international and domestic armed conflicts under Islamic law. He studies the various kinds of use of force by both state and non state actors in order to determine the nature of the Islamic law of war

Islam Cenap Çakmak, 2017-05-18 This expansive four volume encyclopedia presents a broad introduction to Islam that enables learning about the fundamental role of Islam in world history and promotes greater respect for cultural diversity. One of the most popular and widespread religions in the world Islam has attracted a great deal of attention in recent times particularly in the Western world. With the ongoing tensions in the Middle East and a pervasive sense of hostility toward Arab Americans there is ever increasing need to examine and understand Islam as a religion and historical force. Islam A Worldwide Encyclopedia provides some 700 entries on Islam written by expert contributors that cover the religion from the birth of Islam to the present time. The set also includes 16 pages of color images per volume that serve to illustrate the diverse expressions of this important religious tradition. Each entry begins with a basic introduction followed by a general discussion of the subject and a conclusion. Each entry also features a further readings list for readers. In addition to supplying a comprehensive authoritative overview of Islam this work also specifically addresses many controversial related issues including jihad violence in Islam polygamy and apostasy

Advancing the Legal Status of Women in Islamic Law Mona Samadi, 2021-05-25 Mona Samadi examines the sources of gender differences within the Islamic legal tradition and describes how Islamic law entitles individuals to justice according to their status abilities and potential. In the case of men and women s capabilities the underlying principle is that they are entitled to the same rights as long as their capabilities are the same. In the legal construction of women s status women have been prescribed lacking the same abilities and capabilities as men. As such their status and rights differ justifying men to be the maintainers of women. By presenting the historical development of women s status and how women s legal status is debated in contemporary Muslim societies Mona Samadi convincingly provides various methods for facilitating change within the Islamic legal theory framework

The Making of Islamic Science Muzaffar Iqbal, 2009

Great Events in Religion Florin Curta, Andrew Holt, 2016-11-28 This three volume set presents fundamental information about the most important events in world religious history as well as substantive discussions of their significance and impact. This work offers readers a broad and thorough look at the greatest events in world religious history covering a wide range of religions time periods and areas around the globe. The entries present authoritative information and informed viewpoints written by expert contributors that enable readers to easily learn about the chief events in religious history help them to better understand the course of world history and promote a greater respect for culturally diverse religious traditions The first of the three volumes covers religion from the preliterate world through around AD 600 the second the post classical era from 600 to 1450 and the third the modern era from 1450 to the present Each volume begins with a substantive introduction that discusses the history of world religions during the period covered by the volume The chronologically ordered entries overview each event place it in historical context and identify the reasons for its enduring significance

Truth and Transitional Justice Alice Panepinto, 2022-02-24 The Arab uprisings and new and old conflicts in the Middle East and North Africa have sparked an interest in transitional justice in Muslim majority legal systems and its potential to uncover the truth about past abuse and ensure accountability for widespread human rights violations This raises the pressing question of how to implement and adapt the international paradigm of transitional justice and in particular its truth seeking aims to local settings characterised by Muslim majority populations This book offers a critical analysis of the relocation of transitional justice from the international paradigm to the legal systems of Muslim majority societies in light of the inherently pluralistic realities of these contexts it also investigates synergies between international law and Islamic law in furthering the transitional aims of accountability justice and reconciliation through truth seeking In particular this project explores truth seeking the formation of collective memories and the victims right to know the truth as key aims of the international paradigm of transitional justice in relation to Islamic jurisprudence and practices This monograph will provide a useful reference for scholars practitioners and policymakers seeking to analyse and design transitional truth seeking processes in the legal systems of Muslim majority societies

Shari'a Politics Robert W. Hefner, 2011-04-04 One of the most important developments in Muslim politics in recent years has been the spread of movements calling for the implementation of sharia or Islamic law Sharia Politics maps the ideals and organization of these movements and examines their implications for the future of democracy citizen rights and gender relations in the Muslim world These studies of eight Muslim majority societies and state of the field reflections by leading experts provide the first comparative investigation of movements for and against implementation of sharia These essays reveal that the Muslim public's interest in sharia does not spring from an unchanging devotion to received religious tradition but from an effort to respond to the central political and ethical questions of the day

Challenging Islamic Traditions: Bernie Power, 2016-05-06 The Hadith are Islam's most influential texts after the Qur'an They outline in detail what the Qur'an often leaves unsaid The Hadith are a foundation for Islamic law and theology and a key to understanding the worldview of Islam and why many Muslims do the things they do This book subjects the Hadith to a critical analysis from a biblical perspective In a scholarly and respectful way it exposes significant inconsistencies within these ancient documents and highlights potential problems with the Muslim Christian interface
