Jackson, 2021-11-15 Owned by his father Isaac Harold Anderson 1835 1906 was born a slave but went on to become a wealthy businessman grocer politician publisher and religious leader in the African American community in the state of Georgia Elected to the state senate Anderson replaced his white father there and later shepherded his people as a founding member and leader of the Colored Methodist Episcopal church He helped support the establishment of Lane College in Jackson Tennessee where he subsequently served as vice president Anderson was instrumental in helping freed people leave Georgia for the security of progressive safe havens with significantly large Black communities in northern Mississippi and Arkansas Eventually under threat to his life Anderson made his own exodus to Arkansas and then later still to Holly Springs Mississippi where a vibrant Black community thrived Much of Anderson s unique story has been lost to history until now In The Recovered Life of Isaac Anderson author Alicia K Jackson presents a biography of Anderson and in it a microhistory of Black religious life and politics after emancipation A work of recovery the volume captures the life of a shepherd to his journeying people and of a college pioneer a CME minister a politician and a former slave Gathering together threads from salvaged details of his life Jackson sheds light on the varied perspectives and strategies adopted by Black leaders dealing with a society that was antithetical to them and to their success

Revisiting the Elegy in the Black Lives Matter Era Tiffany Austin, Sequoia Maner, Emily Rutter, Darlene Scott, 2019-12-09 Revisiting the Elegy in the Black Lives Matter Era is an edited collection of critical essays and poetry that investigates contemporary elegy within the black diaspora Scores of contemporary writers have turned to elegiac poetry and prose in order to militate against the white supremacist logic that has led to recent deaths of unarmed black men women and children This volume combines scholarly and creative understandings of the elegy in order to discern how mourning feeds our political awareness in this dystopian time as writers attempt to see hear and say something in relation to the bodies of the dead as well as to living readers Moreover this book provides a model for how to productively interweave theoretical and deeply personal accounts to encourage discussions about art and activism that transgress disciplinary boundaries as well as lines of race gender class and nation

A Contested Terrain AnneMarie Brosnan, 2025-03-04 A testament to the resilience and determination of Black North Carolinians to achieve educational equality This book examines the educational experiences of Black North Carolinians during the American Civil War and Reconstruction period 1861 1877 By highlighting the collaborative efforts that led to the growing network of schools for the formerly enslaved people it argues that schooling the Freedpeople was a contested terrain fraught with conflicting visions of Black freedom and the role education should play Although Black men and women emerged as the driving force behind the educational endeavors of this period their work was facilitated by Northern aid and missionary societies the federally mandated Freedmen s Bureau and over 1 400 teachers from various regional and racial backgrounds Yet the educational landscape was far from uniform and the individuals and organizations involved had their distinct visions regarding the nature and purpose of Freedpeople s education Through the use of qualitative and quantitative research methods this book offers new insights into the reasons why Black and white Northerners and Southerners elected to become teachers By examining their diverse motivations and experiences it argues that attitudes toward Freedpeople s education were complex and fluid defying neat characterization Despite mounting obstacles and opposition to their work Black North Carolinians unrelenting quest for education ultimately gave rise to free public schooling for both races the professionalization of Black teachers and an extensive network of Historically Black Colleges and Universities Normalcy Never Again A. Christian van Gorder, Lewis T. Tait, 2025-03-31 Stock worn exhausted and generalized diatribes against racism litter the American horizon Instead of reiterating these arguments the authors of Normalcy Never Again share fresh constructive and proactive perspectives in hopes of reinvigorating our nation s ongoing conversation about racist oppression This book is at times personal and painfully honest but it is always passionate about telling the truth and forging pathways forward through specific challenges met with Afrocentric solutions Readers will gain not only a renewed challenge rooted in heuristic insights but also a greater degree of historical insight intercultural understanding and sturdy non artificial hope Brief

Wonders in the Deep Mensun Bound, Mark Frary, 2024-09-26 A shipwreck is a time capsule When a maritime archaeologist picks up an item from the seabed it is a direct connection with history The last time the object was touched was sometimes centuries before now it s starting a new life The millions of vessels that lie under the sea tell the human history of the world Mensun

Bound is the renowned marine archaeologist who was the Director of Exploration on the team that discovered Ernest Shackleton's Endurance. With journalist Mark Frary here Bound uses the many treasures he has discovered from Nazi eagles to cannonballs to write a maritime history of the world from 3000 BCE. Interwoven throughout with beautiful photographs Wonders in the Deep is a riveting story of human ambition, defeat, and ingenuity.

The Hidden Rules of Race Andrea Flynn, Dorian T. Warren, Felicia J. Wong, Susan R. Holmberg, 2017-09-08 Why do black families own less than white families? Why does school segregation persist decades after Brown v Board of Education? Why is it harder for black adults to vote than for white adults? Will addressing economic inequality solve racial and gender inequality as well? This book answers all of these questions and more by revealing the hidden rules of race that create barriers to inclusion today. While many Americans are familiar with the histories of slavery and Jim Crow, we often don't understand how the rules of those eras undergird today's economy, reproducing the same racial inequities 150 years after the end of slavery and 50 years after the banning of Jim Crow segregation laws. This book shows how the fight for racial equity has been one of progress and retrenchment, a constant push and pull for inclusion over exclusion. By understanding how our economic and racial rules work together, we can write better rules to finally address inequality in America.

Women Dressing Women Mellissa Huber, Karen Van Godtsenhoven, 2023-12-04 This beautifully illustrated book explores the considerable impact of fashions created by and for women by tracing a historical and conceptual lineage of female designers from unidentified dressmakers in eighteenth-century France to contemporary makers who are leading the direction of fashion today. Stunning new photographs of exceptional garments from the unparalleled collection of The Metropolitan Museum of Art's Costume Institute complement insightful essays that consider notions of anonymity, visibility, agency, and absence, omission, highlighting celebrated designers and forgotten histories alike to reveal women's impact on the field of fashion. The publication includes garments from French houses such as Vionnet, Schiaparelli, and Mad Carpentier to American makers like Ann Lowe, Claire McCardell, and Isabel Toledo, along with contemporary designers such as Rei Kawakubo, Iris van Herpen, Simone Rocha, and Anifa Mvuemba. Situating the works within a larger social context, this overdue look at female-led design is essential reading for anyone interested in the history of fashion.

Australian Universities Gwilym Croucher, 2020-11-01 Few of our institutions are as significant or as complex as Australia's universities. This first comprehensive history of Australia's university sector explores how universities work and for whom and how their relationship with each other, their academics, and students, and the public has evolved over a century. The book explores how Australia's universities have sought to resolve tensions between their separate identities and common interests and how they have engaged collectively with government and the public. It also tells the story of how they have expanded to usher in an era of much wider participation in higher education and how they have shaped and been shaped by internationalisation, including their creation of the country's third

American Watercolor in the Age of Homer and Sargent Kathleen A. Foster, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2017-01-01 The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium Artists of all ages styles and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists By the 1920s many would claim it as the American medium This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor's central place in American art and culture The Western Classical Music Industry in Twenty-First Century China Weida Wang, 2025-03-04 Weida Wang explores how Western classical music WCM has become increasingly popular in China framing the industry as a complex entity intricately embedded within China's political landscape cultural economy and cultural industries Wang highlights how authorities and organisers strive to build powerful brands to support the industry's growth aiming to tap into the vast domestic market and showcase China's achievements in WCM on the global stage as part of broader cultural diplomacy efforts The study delves into the mechanisms and underlying logics driving the rapid expansion of the WCM market in contemporary China With the rise of China's economy since its government's late 1970s economic and political reform WCM has become a useful tool for showcasing changes to the image of modern and contemporary China At the same time a new Chinese middle class following the rapid economic and cultural development in China's coastal cities has also emerged becoming a substantial demographic involved in the learning appreciation and consumption of WCM Especially in the past 20 years a new WCM scene has developed quickly and established as an industry in China one critically enmeshed in both the business and political worlds Many ground breaking cultural events have taken place in the last decades These have shown themselves to be huge forces behind the development of China's domestic and fledgling international classical music aspirations The book will be valuable for those interested in arts music management music industry studies China studies cultural and creative industry studies and ethnomusicology
