Wandering through Guilt Paola Di Gennaro,2015-06-18 The first comprehensive study on the pattern of guilt and wandering in literature this book examines the relationship between the two complex concepts as they appear in twentieth century novels positing its methodological premises on archetypal criticism and both close and distant reading but also drawing on psychology anthropology mythology and religion This research deciphers a common paradigm and literary representation whose archetype within Western literature is found in the biblical figure of Cain while presenting a critical framework valid for boundary crossing comparative approaches From Graham Greene s The Power and the Glory and Malcolm Lowry s Under the Volcano to Wolfgang Koeppen s Death in Rome and oka Sh hei s Fires on the Plain this book is not merely a thematic study but an analysis of the literary phenomena that appear in those novels where the sense of guilt is controversially subjective or so collective as to be perceived as universal as is often the case with war and postwar literature Di Gennaro goes beyond the analysis of explicit rewritings of the story of Cain in order to uncover the monomyth through its rhetorical structures and mythical methods The wasteland with no religion the lost abandoned garden the classical and religiously corrupted city and the tropical cannibalistic island at war are the respective settings of these narratives where the issue is neither homelessness nor journeying but rather the desperate and futile movement toward self consciousness or self destruction After the Second World War much was silenced rather than left unsaid This study retraces those silent cries over history through the powerful literary marks of myths

Old Tales and New Truths James Roy King, 1992-02-06 This guidebook to the Bright Shadow World develops three closely related issues The first is the position that fairytales and folktales are of value today because they encourage the growth of capabilities important in our postmodern world Each of us like the fairytale hero sets out on his/her own quests seeks his/her own identity faces his/her own dilemmas with few resources but wit imagination and a certain power of improvisation King develops the implications of this situation for such common fairytale problems as learning to read the world productively navigating various kinds of edges exploiting power sources developing highly personal moral commitments problem solving and data collecting The second concern of this book is with the development of a system for analyzing narrative structure The formula offered here involves an examination of interactions among actors physical settings lines of force and power sources as a narrative moves toward its denouement This system facilitates the classifying and contrasting of narratives and illuminates the structure of both narrative and lived experience Finally this book is concerned with myth making or world making processes It is shown that traditional narrative actually points to and delineates another dimension of existence here called the Bright Shadow World that operates by rules of its own and may be penetrated by individuals from our ordinary world Inferences about the Bright Shadow World drawn from traditional narrative are described and evaluated

Delights and Disquiets of Leisure in Premodern India, 2023-12-30 Leisure is a corollary to pleasure Essays in this historical exploration trace how leisure and recreation were often imagined and celebrated during premodern times from the ancient to the precolonial period This book takes into account the differential access to leisure and pleasure based on class and gender where masculinity is projected through manly sports and femininity through beauty and indulgence in the projection of recreation entertainment and luxury The counter discourse representing labour for those who cater for this leisure is invisibilized as is their transactional nature The volume dwells on the attitudes prescribed and proscribed and brings to the fore the differences across religious ideologies such as Brahmanism Buddhism Jaina and Muslim in various periods Further it looks at leisure in the various classes and cultural spaces such as the elite women the king in the bed chamber the court with dancing girls public areas such as orchards and gardens and performance spaces
