A Thematic Commentary On The Quran:

A Thematic Commentary on the Qur'an Muḥammad Ghazālī, 2001 A Thematic Commentary on the Qur'an Shaykh Muhammad al-Ghazali, 2000-01-01 In a multi faith world Islam is widely regarded as dogmatic and exclusivist Yet in the Qur'an we have a great and worthy example of how to live in diversity of powerful scriptural tenets that lend themselves precisely to engagement with those of other faiths As such Islam has much to add to the debate on Religious Pluralism For Muslims the issue is a delicate one Aside from being tolerant and respectful of other faiths advocating freedom of faith and peaceful coexistence for all humanity Muslims have to intellectually engage on matters of religious truth whilst defending the validity of their own Islamic tenets This study is focused on the Qur'anic text It explores the Qur'anic conception of normative religious pluralism with a view to providing answers to questions such as whether the Qur'an itself regards normative religious pluralism as a value system or simply a method through which the Qur'anic world view can be actualized In doing so the author corrects some highly controversial misquoted mistranslated and or quoted out of context verses of the Qur'an including the so called verse of the sword and the perception of not taking non Muslims as friends In reality the Qur'an calls for freedom of faith and peaceful coexistence but condemns oppression religious persecution and those who initiate hostilities In this way it not only invokes human dignity but restores it when it is violated

A Thematic Commentary on the Quran Shaykh Muhammad al-Ghazali, 2014-08-06 Muslims are enjoined along with the rest of humanity to read the two great Books of Revelation and Creation i.e. the Qur'an and the natural world Reading one without the other will result in an imbalance detrimental to the existence and prosperity of humankind on earth indeed to the divine purpose in the cosmos A Thematic Commentary by the late Shaykh al Ghazali is a significant contribution to the first reading i.e. that of the Qur'an the repository of divine truth and enlightenment Already of course there is a wealth an abundance of exegetical work on the Qur'an But while early scholars endeavored to elucidate many linguistic historical and miraculous aspects of the sacred and challenging text al Ghazali's contribution is somewhat unique and modern in the sense that it focuses on the organic unity of each surah chapter highlighting the logic or inherent reasoning that courses through the surah and unifies its various components and images No exegesis is by itself sufficient for a full understanding of the Qur'an But this work is an indispensable companion in the quest for a better comprehension of and a closer affinity with the sacred text

Roots Of Religious Extremism, The: Understanding The Salafi Doctrine Of Al-wala' Wal Bara' Mohamed Bin Ali, 2015-09-14 One of the issues in contemporary Islamic thought which has attracted considerable attention amongst Muslim scholars and within the Muslim community is the valid and appropriate attitude of Muslims to relationships with non Muslims A major source of confusion and controversy with regards to this relationship comes from the allegation that Muslims must reserve their love and loyalty for fellow Muslims and reject and declare war on the rest of humanity most acutely seen through the Islamic concept of Al Wala wal Bara WB translated as

Loyalty and Disavowal which appears to be central in the ideology of modern Salafism This book investigates the dynamics and complexities of the concept of WB within modern Salafism and aims to understand the diverse interpretation of this concept and how modern Salafis understand and apply the concept in contemporary religious social and political settings The book discovers that the complexities diversities and disputes surrounding the concept in modern Salafism often revolve around issues of social political and current realities The significance of this book lies in the fact that comprehending modern Salafis conception of WB its realities and complexities has become an urgent priority in the lives of Muslims today

Contemporary Approaches to the Qur'an and Sunnah Mahmoud Ayoub,2012-01-01 The Qur'an and Sunnah are the two primary sources of Muslim faith life law and morality The Qur'an is for Muslims the foundation of their faith and the Sunnah is the framework of their morality Together they constitute the two sources of the law Shari'ah of God a guide to prosperity and happiness in this life and to the bliss of the hereafter Although the Qur'an and Sunnah are materially and formally two independent sources they are inextricably bound in a dynamic relationship The rulings and precepts ahkam of the Qur'an constitute the law shar' of God They are supplemented by the precepts of the authentic Sunnah which possess authority second only to the precepts of the Qur'an The Qur'an commands Muslims Whatever the Messenger gives you that you must take and whatever he forbids you you must desist therefrom 59:7 A Thematic Commentary on the Qur'an:

Surahs 1-9 Muḥammad Ghazālī,1997 Contemporary Qur'ānic Hermeneutics Georges Tamer,2025-04-21 This project presents the hermeneutical approaches to the Qur'an of the most prominent Qur'anic scholars in Islamic intellectual history Not only scholars who wrote commentaries on the Qur'an in the narrow sense of the word taf'sir are to be presented but also those who dealt hermeneutically with the Qur'an in various ways The Handbook of Qur'anic Hermeneutics is the first book that discusses all the hermeneutical fields of the Qur'an It will be published in seven volumes Qur'ānic Hermeneutics in the 19th and 20th Century Georges Tamer,2023-12-18 The fourth volume of the groundbreaking Handbook of Qur'anic Hermeneutics comprises 29 chapters dealing with the hermeneutical approach to the Qur'an by Muslim authors of the 19th and 20th centuries These authors had to deal with the changes and influences of modernity on Muslim society Scientific progress and related developments in the natural sciences and humanities posed new questions and challenges to the traditional interpretation of the Qur'an The confrontation with the colonial period also shaped the way of thinking of some of these authors and their hermeneutical work This led them to a search for identity and a reassessment of their own traditions and beliefs Authors in this volume reflect on these historical experiences in their interpretation of the Qur'an The hermeneutical approaches to the Qur'an in this volume are thus closely linked to the social political and intellectual conditions in which the authors have done their work They represent a response to the challenges and changes of their time By critically engaging with modernity scientific progress and the colonial legacy these authors contributed to understanding and interpreting Islam in a new context How the Qur'ān Works Leyla Ozgur Alhassen,2023 The Qur'an is a text of Quran 5 Joseph C. Codsi, 2010-04-29. The Forbidden Rumi and I Rumi is a great Muslim mystic and poet. His faith in God does not deter him from riding the winds of dangerous thinking and free expression. His most audacious poems were published in a collection called The Forbidden Rumi. I have chosen one of them and interspersed its verses between the chapters of my book. I wanted to let some fresh air in my dry discussion of the Quranic text. You see the fifth chapter of the Quran was the last one to have been composed. It discusses theological questions and lacks the poetic rhythm of the much shorter chapters of the early days. I am neither a poet nor a mystic. I am not even a Muslim. And yet I feel I have something in common with a Rumi. I do not let the requirements of Islamic tradition the strict rules of modern scholarship and the taboos of our time constrict my freedom to say what I think and to explain my forbidden views. I do so however in a friendly manner and without any animosity. My study of the Quran is based on knowledge not on faith. My purpose is not to provide spiritual ammunition to the faith. It is much more prosaic. I propose a new way of reading the Quranic text. Instead of seeing in it a divine revelation I see in it the work of a man called Muhammad. I do what is forbidden for a believer. But I recognize the believer's right to see in the Book the very words of God.

The Women's Mosque of America Tazeen M. Ali, 2022-11-01. Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2023. Analyzes how American Muslim women assert themselves as religious actors in the US and beyond using the Qur'an as a tool for social justice and community building. The Women's Mosque of America (WMA) a multiracial women only mosque in Los Angeles is the first of its kind in the United States. Since 2015 the WMA has provided a space for Muslim women to build inclusive communities committed to gender and social justice challenging the dominant mosque culture that has historically marginalized them through inadequate prayer spaces exclusion from leadership and limited access to religious learning Tazeen M Ali explores this congregation focusing on how members contest established patriarchal norms while simultaneously contending with domestic and global Islamophobia that renders their communities vulnerable to violence Drawing on textual analysis of WMA sermons and ethnographic interviews with community members and utilizing Black feminist and womanist frameworks Ali investigates how American Muslim women create and authorize new conceptions of Islamic authority Whereas the established model of Islamic authority is rooted in formal religious training and Arabic language expertise the WMA is predicated on women s embodied experiences commitments to social and racial justice English interpretations of the Qur an and community building across Islamic sects and in an interfaith context Situating the US at the center rather than at the margins of debates over Islamic authority and showing how American Muslim women assert themselves as meaningful religious actors in the US and beyond Ali s work offers new insights on Islamic authority as it relates to the intersections of gender religious space and national belonging
