A Time For Confessing Lutheran Quarterly Books:

A Time for Confessing Robert W. Bertram, 2017-01-01 This book is about faithful witnesses from the Reformation to South African apartheid to Bonhoeffer to the promise of Jesus Christ Even in the midst of trials these faithful followers have testified that the gospel is authority enough for the church's life and unity Significantly this is the first book in print by the late Robert Bertram described by Edward Schroeder as perhaps the most unpublished major Lutheran theologian of the twentieth century

The Lutheran Quarterly, 1882 Life Amid the Principalities Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2016-09-15 We are not contending against flesh and blood but against the principalities against the powers against the world rulers of this present darkness Eph 6 12 So Paul warns his Ephesian readers And yet Paul also says that these principalities and powers were created in and for Christ Col 1 16 and cannot separate us from the love of God Rom 8 38 What are the principalities and powers of our time How do we understand them as created fallen and disarmed How does the Christian today engage these powers These are the questions speakers and participants addressed at the 2014 Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology

Before Auschwitz Paul R. Hinlicky, 2013-06-27 What can Christian theology in North America learn from the rise of Nazism in Germany in the 1920s and 1930s This book explores an explosion of scholarship in recent decades that has reopened questions once thought to be settled about the relationships between Nazism Liberalism and Christianity In the process of criticizing the retrospective fallacy and urging a properly hermeneutical historiography its method in historical theology causes us to reflect back upon our tacit commitments suggesting that we are closer to fascism than we are aware and that although the devil never shows its face twice in exactly the same way the particular hubris of grasping after final solutions along biopolitical lines that is the racially scientific version of fascism that was Nazism is and remains near at hand today within our horizon of possibilities unrecognized in just the ways that it was unrecognized by Germans before Auschwitz The book takes a fresh look at the theology of Adolf Hitler and finds themes that are disturbingly familiar It summons to the renewal of Christian theology after Christendom in the form of critical dogmatics where the motif of the Beloved Community replaces the fallen idol descended from Charlemagne

Beloved Community Hinlicky, Paul R., 2015-05-04 An original comprehensive system of theology especially apropos to the post Christendom North American context In this scholarly work Paul Hinlicky transcends the impasse between dogmatic and systematic theology by articulating and arguing a single cognitive claim God is the One who has determined to redeem the creation by the missions of his Son and Spirit Deploying an unusual Spirit Son Father trinitarian scheme Hinlicky treats the problem of the knowledge of God and the nature of the theological discipline and he proceeds to carefully develop his system of theology through expansive wideranging argumentation Each main part of his work includes discussion of the ecumenical convergences in doctrine gained over the last generation and exploration of interreligious dialogues especially with Judaism and Islam Throughout the book Hinlicky engages with other theologians particularly with Robert Jenson's Systematic Theology and concludes each major section with a discussion of an alternate perspective on the subject Lutheran Quarterly Conrad Bergendoff,1963 Gift and Promise Ed Schroeder,2016-08-01 Gift and Promise shows that the theology of the Augsburg Confession is as much a gift to the world today as it was when first presented in 1530 Building on a book started by Ed Schroeder three chapters are presented in the first part nine of his students present the theology of the Augsburg Confession in language that makes it accessible to those without a scholarly background including pastors students and lay people interested in Lutheran history and theology Gift and Promise establishes the theological hub of the Augsburg Confession what the Confession itself calls the central teaching of the Christian faith in the doctrine of justification by faith alone That hub is traced to its source in Luther s theology of the cross Each chapter presents how that central hub is articulated in the articles of faith that comprise the Augsburg Confession Lucid powerful and insightful the expositions in this volume are written by expert theologians historians and scholars who aim to present the crucial and practical message of the Christian life in the Augsburg Confession for all Hand-book of Lutheranism John David Roth,1892 50 Christian Books - Scripture, Theology, Philosophy and Spirituality (Including Christian Novels) Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,Martin Luther,Henryk Sienkiewicz,Henry Van Dyke,David Hume,James Allen,Ralph Waldo Emerson,Andrew Murray,John Bunyan,Grace Livingston Hill,Thomas Paine,Voltaire,Lew Wallace,John Milton,Charles M. Piety, Politics, and Power David D. Grafton, 2009-03-16 From the time of Martin Luther s writing of On War Against the Turk in 1529 to American Lutheran military chaplains serving in the U S led invasion of Iraq in 2003 Lutheranism has had a symbiotic relationship with Islam in the Middle East framed across cultural and religious borders There have been those who have crossed these borders to engage in mission and dialogue In Piety Politics and Power David Grafton examines the origins of the American Lutheran missionary movement in the Middle East with a focus on its encounter with Muslims and the varied Lutheran theological responses toward Islam The narrative is placed within historical contexts to provide an overarching background of Middle Eastern history and Christian Muslim Relations The survey covers Lutheran missionary communities in Persia Iraq Egypt Lebanon and Jerusalem and the West Bank including the work of the Lutherans working for the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missionaries the Anglican Church Missionary Society the Lutheran Orient Mission the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Whether enthusiastic Pietists seeking the conversion of Muslims and Jews cautious theologians in dialogue with Islam Judaism or Oriental Orthodoxy or social activists working on behalf of refugees in Egypt and the West Bank Grafton argues that these Christian missionaries were all enmeshed in the politics of the communities in which they lived and either contributed to or suffered from the realities of Middle Eastern and international politics Given the current reality of Pax Americana in the Middle East the author asks the driving question about the role of American Lutheran missions and Lutheran Middle Eastern Muslim dialogue in the age of American power in the Middle East

The Genius of Luther's Theology Robert Kolb, Charles P. Arand, 2008-02 Leading Luther scholars offer students and other non specialists an accessible way to engage the big ideas of Luther s thinking

Book of Harmony Martin J. Lohrmann, 2016-09-07 The Reformation era writings that make up the Lutheran Confessions remain lively resources for Christian ministry and mission today Because each of the documents within the Book of Concord was written with a specific context and rhetorical purpose in mind each has its own compelling story and objectives Luther s catechisms present the faith for daily life at the grass roots level with teaching elements that we might now view as typical of social media and multimedia The Augsburg Confession and its Apology provide an adaptable foundation for preaching teaching church organization and dialogue that is rooted in the promise of Christ received through faith Fifteen years after the Diet of Worms the Smalcald Articles reveal yet another Here I stand moment for Luther Finally the Formula of Concord shows how the next generations of Lutherans used collaboration and consensus as they wrestled with important themes of faith and life In summary as these texts engage us with their stories they invite us to consider what is most important about our journeys of faith and Christian witness in today s twenty first century contexts

Teaching Reformation Luka

Ilić, Martin J. Lohrmann, 2021 Presented on the occasion of his seventieth birthday this collection of essays honors the life and work of Dr Timothy J Wengert a pastor and noted Reformation historian who brings to scholarship a deep sense of its practical dimensions in the life of the church In these essays Wengert s students colleagues and peers follow in their honoree s footsteps by highlighting the implications of a rich tapestry of Reformation topics Experiencing Gospel Gordon A. Jensen, 2023-12-05 Gordon Jensen s careful analysis of the 1534 Luther Bible uncovers the central truth of Martin Luther s prodigious translation efforts Luther s commitment to producing this physical object was founded in his desire that receiving the Gospel might become a lived experience Contrary to popular perception Luther s works were not the first the freshest or even the most user friendly German biblical translations of the time Rather their power came in Luther s utter commitment to creatively sharing the Word so that people would encounter Christ within the pages of scripture and through scripture thus driving Christ into their hearts and lives Jensen locates proof of Luther s commitment in his deliberate decision to highlight seven specific words and phrases in the text of his 1534 translation Combined these terms provide a concise summary of Luther s Reformation theology the source voice content and command of the gospel Skillfully tracing the theological implications of Luther s editorial decisions Jensen provides readers with a crystalline view into the very heart of Luther s theological message The written Bible is important not for its literary qualities or its inerrancy an irrelevant premise for Luther as Jensen explains Rather the Bible s essential value is as the conduit through which Christ is proclaimed Luther s hope was that once someone encountered the Bible they would experience the gospel and having experienced it want to share this gospel so that others might experience Christ and the Word of life as well Cross Narratives Neal J. Anthony, 2010-06-01 Luther s radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ and specifically its expression through the ubiquitous presence of the humanity of Christ is a fundamental integral expression of that same theology This expression of Luther s theology of the cross Anthony asserts provides both a fuller elaboration and an important and creative corrective with reference to recent signal expressions of the theology of the cross As contemporary theologians of the cross have articulated most notably Douglas John Hall and the late Alan E Lewis the theology of the cross through a transformation of the divine attributes that honors the integrity of created beings is preeminently a theology of redemption from within within redemption In the process of outlining and analyzing these theologies of within redemption Anthony exposes an impasse created by these theologies regarding the relationship of within redemption to individual human narratives It is through Luther s radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ Anthony contends that complete within redemption can be expressed Anthony also evaluates the Christology of Karl Barth from the perspective of his findings Not only is Anthony s work an innovative and fresh application of Luther s Christology for contemporary discussions of the theology of the cross but it places Luther s Christology at the cutting edge of contemporary discussions regarding the theology of the cross and its within redemption The Lutheran Confessions Charles P. Arand, James Arne Nestingen, 2012-04 In this important new volume Arand Kolb and Nestingen bring the fruit of an entire generation of scholarship to bear on these documents making it an essential and up to date class text The Lutheran Confessions places the documents solidly within their political social ecclesiastical and theological contexts relating them to the world in which they took place Though the book is not a theology of the Confessions readers will clearly understand the issues at stake in the narratives both in their own time and in ours
