American Sniper Theme:

The Films of Clint Eastwood Matt Wanat, Leonard Engel, 2018-05-15 The indefatigable Clint Eastwood the great old man of American film is still controversial after all these years Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood's 2014 American Sniper a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work As a collection these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision which is multifaceted and often contradictory dramatizing complex issues in powerful character driven narratives

American War Stories Brenda M. Boyle, 2020-11-13 American War Stories breaks down the American perception of wars and focuses on how and why we conceptualize the war story It is one of the first studies to ask readers to contemplate what constitutes a war story and how that constitution obscures the normalizing of militarism in American culture

Conflict and Its Discursive Representations: Sustaining Support for War Ryan O'Connor, 2025-02-08 This project seeks to demonstrate how multiple sites of discursive production political elite media and popular culture interact to construct truths about a conflict that condition political possibility Through breaking down the interaction between multiple sites of production within moments of discursive stability and by tracing major themes across multiple sites of discursive production this work will illuminate the processes by which the truth for a conflict is produced sustained and challenged Specifically this project will be contesting two historical moments of naturalness wherein a dominant discourse established a representational stability within American foreign policy in order to display how multiple sites of production work to produce sustain and challenge the political realities of military interventions In doing so the processes which impact the production of policy and public acceptance condemnation for military interventions will be demonstrated

Hymns for the Fallen Todd Decker, 2017-02-28 This book describes in detail how music and sound function as a constituent part of the prestige combat film's larger work of memorialization in the cultural realm of commercial cinema As Rikke Schubart and Anne Gjelsvik note historians must deal with the complexity of history war heroism patriotism memory and the process of their representation Hymns for the Fallen traces an expressive sonic continuity in this process of representation for serious war films The three elements of the soundtrack dialogue sound effects music are treated in detail in the chapters which follow although music proves to be of particular interest Site de l'éditeur

Understanding and Teaching the Modern Middle East Omnia El Shakry, 2020-10-20 Many students learn about the Middle East through a sprinkling of information and generalizations deriving largely from media treatments of current events This scattershot approach can propagate bias and misconceptions that inhibit students' abilities to examine this vitally important part of the world Understanding and Teaching the Modern Middle East moves away from the Orientalist frameworks that have dominated the West's understanding of the region offering a range of fresh interpretations and approaches for teachers The volume brings together experts on the rich intellectual cultural social and political history of the Middle East providing necessary historical context to familiarize teachers with the latest scholarship Each chapter includes easy to explore sources to supplement any curriculum focusing on valuable and controversial themes that may prove pedagogically challenging including colonization and decolonization the 1979 Iranian revolution and the US led war on terror By presenting multiple viewpoints the book will function as a springboard for instructors hoping to encourage students to negotiate the various contradictions in historical study

Frames of Minds Eelco F. M. Wijdicks, 2024 As a medium that aims to connect people through the communication and interpretation of experiences cinema is uniquely positioned to showcase cultural misunderstandings around issues of mental health Frames of Minds traces a history of psychiatry in film concentrating on the major paradigm shifts in neuropsychiatry over the last century Oftentimes representations of psychiatry mental illness and psychotic breakdown are reduced to tropes and used by filmmakers as a tool for plot progression Conversely films can be used as an avenue to voice common concerns about the missteps of psychiatry including overdiagnosis and mistreatment Dr Eelco Wijdicks provides fresh insights into the minds of filmmakers and how they creatively tackle this complex topic How do filmmakers use psychiatry and what do they want us to see What is their frame of mind psychoanalytically biologically sociologically anthropologically Were they influenced by their own prejudices about the origins of mental illness How does this influence the direction of their films Examining the history of film alongside developments in neuropsychiatry Frames of Minds uncovers a cinematic language of psychiatry By taking chances to portray mental illness filmmakers aim to achieve a sense of reality and provide catharsis for viewers through the act of dramatization Ultimately the history of psychiatry in film is a history of the public perception of medicine and the ways psychiatry is understood by directors writers actors and audiences Routledge Handbook of Chinese Media Ming-Yeh T. Rawnsley,Yiben Ma,Gary D. Rawnsley,2025-08-19 The new second edition of this successful Handbook explores the growing and evolving field of Chinese media offering a window through which to observe multi directional flows of information culture and communications within the contexts of globalisation and regionalisation Bringing together the research of an international and interdisciplinary team providing expert analysis of the media in China Hong Kong Taiwan and Macau as well as among other Chinese communities this new edition Highlights how new social economic and political forces have emerged to challenge the production and consumption of media outputs Reveals how the growing prevalence of social media such as WeChat and TikTok continues to blur the boundary between online and offline allowing state institutions to interfere in the lives of their users and civil societies to mobilise and articulate their interests and grievances Outlines how the development of new communications technologies and their use by political and economic actors journalists civil societies and diaspora communities contribute to the complex multi directional flow of information culture and communications in the twenty first century Contributing to the growing and evolving field of Chinese media studies this Handbook is an essential and comprehensive reference work for students of all levels and scholars in the fields of Chinese Studies and Media Studies

Unexpected Movie Inspirations Ethan Parker,AI,2025-03-29 Unexpected Movie Inspirations explores the fascinating origins of cinematic ideas revealing how films often draw from unexpected sources like historical events forgotten literature and personal experiences The book argues that movies aren t born in a vacuum filmmakers frequently adapt real world elements enriching their narratives with layers of meaning For example seemingly obscure historical conflicts can inspire compelling screenplays offering fresh perspectives on the past The book is divided into three sections each dedicated to a core area of inspiration Initially it introduces intertextuality and adaptation in filmmaking The first section examines historical events the second dives into literature and the third explores personal experience By tracing these connections readers gain a deeper appreciation for the creative process and the myriad influences that shape storytelling The book adopts an analytical yet accessible approach balancing scholarly rigor with engaging storytelling This exploration provides film enthusiasts students and anyone interested in the creative process with valuable insights into the hidden connections between film and the real world

American Cinema in the Shadow of 9/11 Terence McSweeney, 2016-12-05 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9 11 is a ground breaking collection of essays by some of the foremost scholars writing in the field of contemporary American film Through a dynamic critical analysis of the defining films of the turbulent post 9 11 decade the volume explores and interrogates the impact of 9 11 and the War on Terror on American cinema and culture In a vibrant discussion of films like American Sniper 2014 Zero Dark Thirty 2012 Spectre 2015 The Hateful Eight 2015 Lincoln 2012 The Mist 2007 Children of Men 2006 Edge of Tomorrow 2014 and Avengers Age of Ultron 2015 noted authors Geoff King Guy Westwell John Shelton Lawrence Ian Scott Andrew Schopp James Kendrick Sean Redmond Steffen Hantke and many others consider the power of popular film to function as a potent cultural artefact able to both reflect the defining fears and anxieties of the tumultuous era but also shape them in compelling and resonant ways Screenplay Jule Selbo, 2015-07-24 Screenplay Building Story Through Character is designed to help screenwriters turn simple or intricate ideas into exciting multidimensional film narratives with fully realized characters Based on Jule Selbo s unique 11 step structure for building story through characters the book teaches budding screenwriters the skills to focus and shape their ideas turning them into stories filled with character development strong plot elements based on obstacles and conflicts and multifaceted emotional arcs Using examples and analysis from classic and contemporary films across a range of genres from The Godfather to Guardians of the Galaxy Selbo s Screenplay takes students inside the scriptwriting process providing a broad overview for both beginners and seasoned writers alike The book is rounded out with discussion questions writing exercises a guide to the business of screenwriting in depth film breakdowns and a glossary of screenwriting terms Mission Unaccomplished Alan Nadel, 2025 Throughout his career prominent film scholar Alan Nadel has explored the idea of cultural narratives and how every social unit sees and explains the world through the stories we tell In this book he identifies how the war film genre has changed in the 21st century after 9 11 and more specifically Bush s announcement of Mission Accomplished He explains how the traditional war film narrative in which soldiers have a specific mission or objective to achieve in battle changed to one in which war is treated as a daily occupation with no larger mission that will lead even in the long run to peace He examines how films such as Saving Private Ryan at the end of the 20th century have morphed into films such as Jarhead The Hurt Locker and The Green Zone With the indefinite and ill planned occupation of Afghanistan and Iraq including the privatization of many military services through contractors this new situation has led to films in which we follow soldiers day to day lives as they go through their duties or even after they ve come home as in American Sniper Another change in war films during the Global War on Terror puts the emphasis on just surviving and getting out such as in Hacksaw Ridge which even carries over to films about for example WWII such as Dunkirk Again combatants have no specific goal other than escaping or helping others to escape or just surviving long enough to go home Nadel shows how this change has also affected non war films such as Sully Captain Phillips Deepwater Horizon and Get Out and even the television series Lost Nadel deftly moves between political history and film analysis with this wide ranging lucid examination of the changing nature and role of war films

The Last Punisher Kevin Lacz,Ethan E. Rocke,Lindsey Lacz,2016-07-12 A first person account of the Iraq War from a Navy SEAL who was part of SEAL Team 3 with American Sniper Chris Kyle describes their legendary unit The Punishers and provides gripping details of their missions in Ramadi NoveList Hollywood Remembrance and American War Andrew Rayment,Paul Nadasdy,2020-08-31 Hollywood Remembrance and American War addresses the synergy between Hollywood war films and American forms of war remembrance Subjecting the notion that war films ought to be considered the war memorials of today to critical scrutiny the book develops a theoretical understanding of how Hollywood war films as rhetorical sites of remembering and memory reflect replicate and resist American modes of remembrance The authors first develop the framework for and elaborate on the co evolution of Hollywood war cinema and American war memorialization in the historical political and ideological terms of remembrance and the parallel synergic relationship between the aesthetic and industrial status of Hollywood war cinema and the remembering of American war on film The chapters then move to analysis of Hollywood war films covering The Great War World War II The Korean War The Vietnam War The Cold War and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and critically scrutinize the terms upon which a film could be considered a memorial to the war it represents Bringing together the fields of film studies and memory studies this book will be of interest to scholars and students in not just these areas but those in the fields of history media and cultural studies more broadly too

Storytelling for Film and Television Ken Dancyger,2019-04-30 Storytelling for Film and Television is a theory and practice book which offers a definitive introduction to the art of storytelling through writing directing and editing Author Ken Dancyger provides a comprehensive explanation of the tools that underpin successful narrative filmmaking and television production The book takes a unique approach by connecting the different phases of the creative process of film and television production It shows how writing directing and editing all contribute to the process of storytelling and function together to advance the narrative goals of a screenplay to tell the best story A case study approach provides numerous examples of effectiveness and brings together the core areas of aesthetics and production to make these concepts more accessible Case studies include classic and modern films foreign films limited and series television with examples including Breaking Bad Game of Thrones The Revenant and Son of Saul This is the ideal text for film and television production students at all levels It is written in a style which makes it accessible to anybody interested in learning more about the storytelling process and is written for a global audience addressing a global industry Monstrous Fantasies Leila K. Norako,2024-08-15 Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer's Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper The Enemy in Contemporary Film Martin Löschnigg, Marzena Sokołowska-Paryż, 2018-08-21 Culture and conflict inevitably go hand in hand The very idea of culture is marked by the notion of difference and by the creative fraught interaction between conflicting concepts and values The same can be said of all key ideas in the study of culture such as identity and diversity memory and trauma the translation of cultures and globalization dislocation and emplacement mediation and exclusion This series publishes theoretically informed original scholarship from the fields of literary and cultural studies as well as media visual and film studies It fosters an interdisciplinary dialogue on the multiple ways in which conflict supports and constrains the production of meaning on how conflict is represented how it relates to the past and projects the present and how it frames scholarship within the humanities Editors Isabel Capeloa Gil Catholic University of Portugal Lisbon Portugal Paulo de Medeiros University of Warwick UK Catherine Nesci University of California Santa Barbara USA Editorial Board Arjun Appadurai New York University Claudia Benthien Universität Hamburg Elisabeth Bronfen Universität Zürich Bishnupriya Ghosh University of California Santa Barbara Joyce Goggin Universiteit van Amsterdam Lawrence Grossberg University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Andreas Huyssen Columbia University Ansgar Ninning Universität Gießen Naomi Segal University of London Birkbeck College Marcio Seligmann Silva Universidade Estadual de Campinas Antônio Sousa Ribeiro Universidade de Coimbra Roberto Vecchi Università di Bologna Samuel Weber Northwestern University Liliane Weissberg University of Pennsylvania Christoph Wulf FU Berlin Longxi Zhang City University of Hong Kong Hot Planet, Cool Media Stephen Harper, 2023-04-21 From the Arab Spring and London riots through the era of Brexit and Trump the Covid 19 pandemic and war in Europe this volume collects eleven years of lively informative and entertaining essays and polemics focusing on media treatment of major world events political entanglements and culture war squabbles Taking aim at the distortions and omissions of news reports and cultural narratives in the Western world Stephen Harper highlights the dislocation between humanity's existential crisis and the failure of the corporate media to register its underlying causes or even to entertain any real discussion of its solution. Instead, he argues, the media blithely serve the narrow interests of a global elite that is subjecting the planet to a reign of fire in the form of endless wars and ecological destruction. Harper reviews contemporary journalistic, cinematic, and televisual coverage engaging with broad cultural topics such as cancel culture, the incel phenomenon, and Covid conspiracy theories, as well as key events like the debate between Jordan Peterson and Slavoj Žižek. For all its eclecticism, Hot Planet Cool Media has an ideological cohesiveness, rejecting popular left and right political positions and advocating the cause of socialism or communism in the Marxian sense of a classless, leaderless, moneyless society.
