Salman Rushdie Catherine Cundy, 1996 Literary criticism of Rushdie's work outside of special journals and periodicals Rushdie's Cross-Pollinations Dana Bădulescu, 2022-01-12 This book is a literary journey through Salman Rushdie's cross-pollinated gardens showing that the metaphor of reading as a quest is essential to Rushdie's writing. It invites scholars and students interested in postcolonialism, postmodernism, transculturalism, and the global novel to explore the many facets of Rushdie's novels and collections of essays. The journey starts from Rushdie's sorcery with language and it continues with his appraisal of Joyce's legacy. The reader will also find an analysis of the dark season of the fatwa as well as the lush sensuality of the body and aestheticized Eros in The Moor's Last Sigh, The Ground Beneath Her Feet, Fury, Shalimar the Clown, and The Enchantress of Florence. The book further explores the liquid bridges, the postmodernist twist, and postcolonial satire in Rushdie's fiction. After providing a sense of Rushdie's novel of disorientation and New York, the book finishes by exploring Rushdie's Quichotte published in 2019, an epitome of the global novel that revisits and translates Cervantes's Don Quijote de la Mancha for readers addicted to TV and the Internet. Exoticisms Isabel Santaolalla, 2000 All civilisations have both feared and been fascinated by what lies beyond their limits and have to a greater or lesser extent construed their others as exotics. Given that even in its most consumerist fashion the adoption of the exotic goes back a long way, what then if anything is new in contemporary versions of exoticism? This volume attempts to offer some answers to this question. The first of its three sections serves as an extended introduction to the concept and practice of exoticism, considering the phenomenon from a number of theoretical and critical positions, explicitly examining sometimes via significant examples the particular attributes of exoticism. The second and third sections are more strictly text-based, relying on the analysis of specific instances of film in the former and literature in the latter, in order to tease out some specific uses of the exotic, whether ethnic, gendered, sexual, or other. This volume will be of interest to scholars and students working in the fields of representation, cultural theory, postcolonialism, gender, ethnicity, sexuality, cinema, and literature.

Salman Rushdie and Postcolonial Authorship Trajanka Kortova Jovanovska, 2023-12-07 The main focus of interest in this book are the figures of writers and writing subjects in Rushdie's oeuvre who contemplate and reflect on the nature and purpose of their craft, their authorial identity, and their positioning in society and intellectual history through their writing. It discusses the aesthetics of the texts they produce and their subsequent agency in the world through the various ways they are interpreted and appropriated. Authorship is a special category of storytelling, a specific craft and vocation giving expression to a conscious and purposeful project. The book focuses on what postcolonial literature specialist Dr Jane Poyner calls the ethics of intellectual practice as the major theme pervading Rushdie
