Transnational Landscapes and Postmodern Poetics Asma Hichri, Samira Mechri, 2017-11-06 This book moves beyond conventional conceptions of space and place to explore how the spatial imagination has informed our postmodern mapping of literature culture history geography and politics In this volume scholars from different academic fields contest new territories for critical expression venturing into a geocritical discussion of notions of identity borders territory cognitive geographies glocal cultural mobility gendered spaces post colonial cartographies and spaces of resistance These brilliant discussions of the postmodern dialectics of space and place invite a reappraisal of the value of space in our social political and historical realities thus extending the geographical imagination beyond its physical and territorial manifestations and investigating its hitherto uncharted spiritual psychic emotional literary and symbolic terrains Bringing together theoretical and critical contributions in the fields of culture history politics and literature this engaging work invites readers to think geocritically about the significance of space and place in the postmodern age It represents essential reading for students critics and scholars from various academic fields and disciplines including history geography cultural studies anthropology political science literature and critical theory

Race, Decolonization, and Global Citizenship in South Africa Chielozona Eze, 2018 Examines the importance of South Africa's peaceful transition to democracy especially in light of Nelson Mandela's belief that cosmopolitan dreams are not only desirable but a binding duty

Divergences Et Convergences, 2007 The Concept of Literary Application Anders Pettersson, 2012-09-18 Application is the process in which readers of literature focus on elements in a text and compare them with the outside world as they know it an operation with cognitive and emotional consequences This book demonstrates how and why this simple yet neglected mechanism is of profound importance for the understanding of literary art and experience

Impending Inquisitions in Humanities and Sciences Mohan Varkolu, MP Mallesh, Kranthi Priya Oruganti, 2024-07-22 In an era of increasing specialization the need for cross disciplinary dialogue demands an integrated approach that transcends the artificial boundaries between disciplines Impending Inquisitions in Humanities and Sciences presents a groundbreaking tapestry of cutting edge research across the spectrum of humanities and sciences This volume presents a meticulously curated selection of research papers presented at the conference a forum where scholars from diverse fields English Mathematics Physics and Chemistry converged to engage in rigorous dialogue and push the boundaries of knowledge From the nuanced interpretations of literary texts to the elegant formulations of mathematical models from the awe inspiring revelations of physics to the meticulous experiments of chemistry each contribution challenges assumptions and provokes fresh perspectives This collection serves as a valuable resource for scholars students and academic fraternity with an insatiable curiosity about the world around us

The Politics of Traumatic Literature Önder Çakırtaş, Şahin Kızıldaş, Antolin C. Trinidad, 2018-10-29 This book is a collection of essays offering an inside view into the inner analysis of traumatic literary studies wherein language is used as a medium of expression so as to interpret man psyche and memory By making literature the partner of a dialogue with psychology in order to better comprehend the psyche it serves to alter the way of understanding the literary phenomenon Featuring relevant coverage on topics such as literary production psychology in literature identity and traumatic studies this book provides in depth analysis that is suitable for academicians students professionals and researchers interested in discovering more about the relationship between psychology and literature and their effects on thinking GED®Test, REA's Total Solution for the GED® Test, 2nd Edition Laurie Callihan,Lisa Mullins,Stacey A. Kiggins ,Stephen Reiss,2017-02-13 Comprehensive GED study guide that includes online diagnostic tests for each subject comprehensive review and two full length practice tests Adapted from back cover Post-Conflict Literature Chris Andrews,Matt McGuire,2016-04-20 This book brings together a variety of perspectives to explore the role of literature in the aftermath of political conflict studying the ways in which writers approach violent conflict and the equally important subject of peace Essays put insights from Peace and Conflict Studies into dialog with the unique ways in which literature attempts to understand the past and to reimagine both the present and the future exploring concepts like truth and reconciliation post traumatic memory historical reckoning therapeutic storytelling transitional justice archival memory and questions about victimhood and reparation Drawing on a range of literary texts and addressing a variety of post conflict societies this volume charts and explores the ways in which literature attempts to depict and make sense of this new philosophical terrain As such it aims to offer a self conscious examination of literature and the discipline of literary studies considering the ability of both to interrogate and explore the legacies of political and civil conflict around the world The book focuses on the experience of post Apartheid South Africa post Troubles Northern Ireland and post dictatorship Latin America The recent history of these regions and in particular their acute experience of ethno religious and civil conflict make them highly productive contexts in which to begin examining the role of literature in the aftermath of social trauma Rather than a definitive account of the subject the collection defines a new field for literary studies and opens it up to scholars working in other regional and national contexts To this end the book includes essays on post 1989 Germany post 9 11 United States the Israeli Palestinian conflict Sierra Leone and narratives of asylum seeker refugee communities This volume s comparative frame draws on well established precedents for thinking about the cultural politics of these regions making it a valuable resource for scholars of Comparative Literature Peace and Conflicts Studies Human Rights Transitional Justice and the Politics of Literature Postcolonialism Michael Chapman,2009-03-26 This collection poses two overarching questions Is there a role for the literary imagination in postcolonial studies And where might one locate South Africa or more generally South African perspectives in a field delineated primarily by northern institutional purposes and practices While engaging with contemporary debates the essays seek to turn current postcolonial emphases on theoretical formulations and issue driven interpretation towards the subjective experience of literary texts in specific contexts The Introduction Postcolonialism A Literary Turn suggests a template of late postcolonialism beyond empires writing back to the centre Instead ongoing challenges include settler identity past and present independent or compromised African diasporic voices the character of the postcolony in which the pre modern modern and postmodern contest a single though heterogeneous place or space and the voicing of the silent subaltern

At Home in the World Maria DiBattista,Deborah Epstein Nord,2019-06-18 In a bold and sweeping reevaluation of the past two centuries of women s writing At Home in the World argues that this body of work has been defined less by domestic concerns than by an active engagement with the most pressing issues of public life from class and religious divisions slavery warfare and labor unrest to democracy tyranny globalism and the clash of cultures In this new literary history Maria DiBattista and Deborah Epstein Nord contend that even the most seemingly traditional works by British American and other English language women writers redefine the domestic sphere in ways that incorporate the concerns of public life allowing characters and authors alike to forge new emancipatory narratives The book explores works by a wide range of writers including canonical figures such as Jane Austen Charlotte Brontë George Eliot Harriet Jacobs Edith Wharton Virginia Woolf Willa Cather Gertrude Stein and Toni Morrison neglected or marginalized writers like Mary Antin Tess Slesinger and Martha Gellhorn and recent and contemporary figures including Nadine Gordimer Anita Desai Edwidge Danticat and Jhumpa Lahiri DiBattista and Nord show how these writers dramatize tensions between home and the wider world through recurrent themes of sailing forth escape exploration dissent and emigration Throughout the book uncovers the undervalued public concerns of women writers who ventured into ever wider geographical cultural and political territories forging new definitions of what it means to create a home in the world The result is an enlightening reinterpretation of women s writing from the early nineteenth century to the present day Toxic Belonging? Identity and Ecology in Southern Africa Dan Wylie,2009-03-26 Southern Africa s literatures brim with references to the natural world its landscapes and its animals Both fictional and non fictional works express ongoing debates often highly politicised concerning its various groups senses of identity and belonging in relation to the land and its denizens This often involves a pervasive tension between Western settler societies conceptions of modernity and indigenous world views each complicating the often simplistic binarisms drawn between them In this selection of papers from the 2006 Literature and Ecology Colloquium held in Grahamstown South Africa the complexities of forging imaginative and pragmatic senses of belonging in Southern Africa are explored from a variety of disciplinary perspectives philosophical historical botanical and anthropological as well as literary Their subject matter ranges widely from Bushmen testimonies to Berlin missionaries from prehistoric cave dwellers to Schopenhauer from white Batswana to lion tamers but find themselves echoing one another in intriguing and illuminating ways These are highly localised meditations on age old questions What does it mean to be human within a natural environment Why do we appear to be so damaging to the ecology that sustains us Is our presence inevitably toxic to our planetary fellow travellers How do we forge an ecologically sound sense of belonging in this post colonial post apartheid post modern era If this collection has a single most prominent question binding it together it is this What are the limits and potentialities of human compassion towards the natural world
