Altizer,2012-12-06 Alienation ecstasy death rebirth in the poetry of Michelangelo Donne and d Aubigne these archetypal themes make possible the ultimate formulation of new poetic symbolizations of self and world As their poetry evolves from a primarily rhetorical towards a fully symbolic mode images of loss of self in ecstasy or in alienation of death and rebirth recur with increasing frequency and intensity Whether the context is love poetry or religious poetry the basic problem remains the same love is the link between the two kinds of poetry And love is indeed a problem for these three poets since it involves the self in relation to the other the other being either God or another human being Increasingly the work of each poet centers on a need to analyze or abolish the gulf separating subject and object self and other The dominant mode of most of the three poets work is neither rhetorical nor symbolic but expressive This transitional mode reveals the individual poet s most urgent concerns and conflicts his sense of self in Its most isolated or burdensome affirmative or struggling state Under lying most of their poems is a profound self consciousness a heightened awareness of self as a powerful separate entity with a corresponding objectification of all reality outside of self The Renaissance in general is a time of increasing individualism and 1 self consciousness

Poems of John Donne John Donne,1896 John Donne Helen Gardner,1965 John Donne, Coterie Poet Arthur F. Marotti,2008-08-01 Arthur F Marotti has produced the first systematic study of John Donne s poetry as coterie literature offering fresh interpretations of the poems in their biographical and sociohistorical contexts It will be of interest and value to students and scholars of English Renaissance literature to critics interested in the application of revisionist history to literary study and to those concerned with the processes by which literature became institutionalized in the early modern period Donne treated poetry as an avocation restricting his verse to carefully chosed readers friends acquaintances patrons and the woman he later married This study employs socio historical and psychoanalytic methods to examine this poetry as work designed for readers to respond in knowledgeable ways to a complex interplay of literary text and social context Marotti argues that it is necessary to relate literary language to the languages of social economic and political transactions and to define the social and ideological affiliations of literary genres and modes After setting Donne s practice in the framework of the sixteenth century systems of manuscript literary transmission Marotti treats the verse chronologically and according to audience paying particular attention to the rhetorical enactment of the author s relationships to peers and superiors through the conflicting styles of egalitarian assertion social iconoclasm and deferential politeness Marotti relates the poetry to Donne s contemporary prose discussing the author s choice of various literary forms in the context of his sociopolitical life as well in terms of the shift from Elizabethan to Jacobean rule the latter change resulting in a realignment of genres within the culture s literary system He reads Donne s formal satires humanist verse letters erotic elegies and commentary epistles aware of the social coordinates of those particular genres and defines the markedly different circumstances to which Donne s libertine courtly satiric sentimental complimentary and religious lyrics individually belonged Marotti deals also with Donne s inventive mixing of genres in both shorter and longer poems Marotti s groundbreaking work offers new models of historical interpretation of Donne s poetry complementing previous formalist intellectual historical and literary historical readings It particularly highlights the importance of attending to the socioliterary conditions of literature designed for manuscript transmission rather than for publication work that includes for example much of the lyric poetry of Renaissance England

Selected Poems: Donne John Donne, 2006-05-25 Regarded by many as the greatest of the Metaphysical poets John Donne 1572 1631 was also among the most intriguing figures of the Elizabethan age A sensualist who composed erotic and playful love poetry in his youth he was raised a Catholic but later became one of the most admired Protestant preachers of his time The Selected Poems reflects this wide diversity and includes his youthful Songs and Sonnets epigrams elegies letters satires and the profoundly moving Divine Poems composed towards the end of his life From joyful poems such as The Flea which transforms the image of a louse into something marvellous to the intimate and intense Holy Sonnets Donne breathed new vigour into poetry by drawing lucid and often startling metaphors from the world in which he lived His poems remain among the most passionate profound and spiritual in the English language Songs and Sonnets John Donne, 2015-06-02 Songs and Sonnets from John Donne English poet satirist lawyer and a cleric in the Church of England 1572 1631 The Poems of John Donne: Miscellaneous poems (songs and sonnets) Elegies. both a reaction against the smoothness of conventional Elizabethan poetry and an adaptation into English of European baroque and mannerist techniques His early career was marked by poetry that bore immense knowledge of English society and he met that knowledge with sharp criticism Another important theme in Donne s poetry is the idea of true religion something that he spent much time considering and about which he often theorized He wrote secular poems as well as erotic and love poems He is particularly famous for his mastery of metaphysical conceits John Donne John Donne,2000 This authoritative edition was formerly published in the acclaimed Oxford Authors series under the general editorship of Frank Kermode It brings together a unique combination of Donne s poetry and prose all the major poems complemented by rarely published letters and extracts from Donne s sermons to give the essence of his work and thinking John Donne 1572 1631 is today celebrated as one of the greatest of the metaphysical poets whose verse was daringly original and whose use of imagery and conceits marked a new intellectual approach to poetry His Satires Elegies and Songs and Sonnets which contain his most famous love poems were complemented by his religious writing both verse and prose He was one of the most renowned preachers of his day and this volume does equal justice to the full range of his work In addition to nearly all his English poetry this volume includes over 130 extracts from Donne s sermons as well as the full text of his last sermon Death s Duel A distinguishing feature of the selection is that the works are arranged in the chronological order of their composition
