Ankle High and Knee Deep Gail L. Jenner, 2014-06-03 Colicky horses trucks high centered in pastures late nights spent in barns birthing calves the trials and tribulations of farm and ranch life are as central to its experience as amber waves of grain and Sunday dinners at the ranch house Ankle High and Knee Deep collects together essays about lessons learned by ranch women cowgirls and farmers about what they ve learned while standing in or stepping out of mud manure and other offal in their day to day lives on the land This collection of entertaining and inspirational voices offers unique perspectives on relationships loss love marriage and parenting and other universal issues These are contemporary accounts of women struggling to keep a lifestyle intact recollections of childhoods spent in open spaces and tales of overcoming obstacles inspirational reading for city dwellers and country folk alike

A Slow Trot Home Lisa G. Sharp, 2014 1958 was the year life came into focus for Lisa Sharp Her mother newly divorced began the move from California to the San Rafael Cattle Company a 22 000 acre cattle ranch south of Patagonia Arizona Leaving the city life behind Lisa and her family traded paved roads dependable electricity and telephones for wide open spaces prairie grass horses and cattle Most eight year olds would have been homesick When she first walked into the ranch corrals I became a part of that world as easily as that first shoot of spring grass I was home A Slow Trot Home stitches together vignettes about the author s mother ranching cowboys and a love of the land that is passed down through generations With poignant reflections on ranch living along the US Mexico border Lisa resurrects an era that for so many of us endures only as a memory

National Cowboy Poetry Gathering Western Folklife Center, 2014-04-01 The National Cowboy Poetry Gathering is the granddaddy of all cowboy poetry events proclaimed by the US Senate in 2000 in recognition of its pioneering role in the preservation and revitalization of this important American tradition In conjunction with the 30th anniversary of the event this commemorative volume collects 100 poems by various cowboy poets who have appeared at the gathering over the last three decades from Baxter Black and Wallace McRae to Georgie Sicking and Paul Zarzyski Representing the best contemporary cowboy poetry from the first gathering to the present the poets and poems are culled for their importance and quality with consideration for a wide range of topics that represent the richness and depth of this broad genre In addition to poems that will make you smile sigh or sit up straight in your saddle the anthology features expressive photos of the contributors biographical and explanatory headnotes relevant artwork from the Western Folklife Center s extensive archives and illuminating sidebars on various topics such as working cattle life on the land the relationship between cowboy poetry and song gear horses or cattle mentioned in poems and profiles and photos of important cowboy poets from earlier times Cowboy poet extraordinaire Baxter Black will provide a foreword and Charlie Seemann executive director of the Western Folklife Center will write an introduction that gives context both to the event itself and to cowboy poetry in general from the days of the trail drives in the nineteenth century to the lives of the hardworking men and women who still ranch and live on the land in the West today Female Improvisational Poets Xabier Irujo Ametzaga, Iñaki Arrieta Baro, 2018 The present book addresses the struggle for the rights of women in the context of bertsolaritza improvised oral poetry in the Basque Country Ordinary Skin Amy Hale Auker, 2017 A collection of nonfiction essays exploring the transition in mid life through prose poems and essays through the examination of nature and belonging The Story Is the Thing Amy Hale Auker, 2014-12-14 Uncle Bill Morgan knew about love and loss He had watched over the land and the people at the Benson Ranch for decades Julia was a free spirit quirky and fun trapped in a marriage with hospital corners and traditional expectations Charlie was trapped as well but by something more sinister than tradition and in the end realized that it is okay to love more Cody Jack needed more more of everything that soothed and comforted and numbed but he stood to lose the only good thing he d ever known and he would hurt anyone to keep it The old cowboy is gone but he left his story behind It is a story of love loss and life lessons of confession and absolution a story of poetry and rescue a story of loneliness and a story of coming together And after all the story is the thing
