Some are identified as gifted and brought to a special institute where they develop their own unique talent and understanding of this world within our world. It is here Kassia finds out her talent is both dangerous and difficult to control. She has the ability to inflict pain on an individual within her sight. It is only after a friend is being attacked that she realizes her talent is much more powerful when she brings death to the attackers. Little did she know that use of such a powerful talent alerted demons to her existence. Suddenly she is on the run with her best friend who ironically is immune to her power and a new kid at school she was falling for. Realizing she can't outrun the demons she seeks the guidance of a local shaman. The shaman explains the only escape is through her own death.
