Death Rituals among the Karanga of Zimbabwe John Chitakure, 2021-10-04 One of the inescapable truths that humanity has to grapple with is the reality of death The manner in which we die or the cause of our death may differ but death remains inevitable We may be afraid of it or not we may try to evade it or not but death still comes Although most religions promise the possibility of another life in the hereafter there is no scientifically verifiable evidence about the reality of that life Despite that lack of evidence every culture performs death rituals meticulously to prepare the spirits of its deceased for whatever form of life that may be available Death Rituals among the Karanga of Zimbabwe Praxis Significance and Changes explores the causes of sickness and death and the praxis of pre burial burial and post burial rituals of the Karanga of Zimbabwe in an attempt to unearth their original form and significance to identify the changes that have taken place It also provides a brief manual for the performance of some selected Karanga death rituals

African Pentecostal Theology Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, 2023-12-11 African Pentecostal Theology Modality, Disciplinary and Decoloniality explores research methodology, theological disciplines and contextualization as important aspects in the process of studying Pentecostal theology in an African context. Mookgo Solomon Kgatle outlines different data collection and data analysis methods including the skills of interpreting and presenting research findings in a responsible manner. This book illustrates that Pentecostal theology, given its pneumatological approach, goes beyond conventional theological disciplines in transdisciplinary research. The development of knowledge in African Pentecostal Theology should recognize African Indigenous Knowledge Systems (AIKS), African oral and traditional cultures and African indigenous languages to be relevant to Africans. Pentecostal theologians from different theological disciplines in Africa and globally will find this book a worthwhile read.

The New Evangelization, 2015-02-26 The Second Vatican Council endorsed an engagement with the modern and secularized world through a renewed proclamation of the Gospel John Paul II described this as the New Evangelization and in 2010 Benedict XVI confirmed this priority by creating the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization to re-propose the perennial truth of the Gospel. The New Evangelization was the subject of the Synod of Bishops in 2012 and in 2014 Pope Francis gave his reflections on the topic in Evangelii Gaudium. The New Evangelization draws on material presented and discussed at the conference Vatican II 50 Years On: The New Evangelization organised by Leeds Trinity University on 26-29th June 2012. Part I traces the historical and theological links between the Council and the New Evangelization. Part II examines the renewed understanding of the Church as a result of the Council and the extent to which it is shaped by civilization. Part III analyzes the nature of the New Evangelization and its outworking in today's multifarious context of cultures, religions and societies. Part IV deals with the implementation of the New Evangelization by different communities and organizations and the issues this raises. In the Introduction and Conclusion the editors reflect on the New Evangelization in the light of significant developments since 2012.
