The Illustrator and the Book in England from 1790 to 1914 Gordon Norton Ray, 1991-01-01 Combines essays bibliographical descriptions and 295 illustrations to chronicle a golden era in the art of the illustrated book Artists range from Blake Turner Rowlandson and Morris to Caldecott Greenaway Beardsley and Rackham The Illustrated London News, 1888 Victorian Biography Reconsidered Juliette Atkinson, 2010-08-26 In 1939 Virginia Woolf called for a more inclusive form of biography which would include the failures as well as the successes the humble as well as the illustrious She did so in part as a reaction against Victorian biography deemed to have been overly preoccupied with Great Men Yet a significant number of Victorians had already broken ranks to write the lives of humble unsuccessful or neglected men and women Victorian Biography Reconsidered seeks to uncover and assess this trend The book begins with an overview of Victorian biography followed by a reflection on how the bagginess of nineteenth century hero worship enabled new subjects to emerge Biographies of hidden lives are then scrutinized through chapters on the lives of humble naturalists failed destinies minor women writers neglected Romantic poets rescued by Victorian biographers and finally the Dictionary of National Biography In its conclusion the book briefly discusses how Virginia Woolf absorbed earlier biographical trends before redirecting the representation of hidden lives Victorian Biography Reconsidered argues that often paradoxically nineteenth century biographers regarded the public sphere with intense wariness At a time of instability for men of letters biographers embraced the role of mediators in a manner that asserted their own cultural authority Frequently they showed little interest in vouchsafing immortality for their unknown or forgotten subjects but strove instead to provoke amongst their readers a feeling of gratitude for the hidden labour that sustained the nation and an appreciation for the writers who had brought it to their attention Sketch, 1897 The Builder, 1897 Lives of the Sonnet, 1787-1895 Marianne Van Remoortel, 2016-05-06 In a series of representative case studies Marianne Van Remoortel traces the development of the sonnet during intense moments of change and stability continuity and conflict from the early Romantic period to the end of the nineteenth century Paying particular attention to the role of the popular press which served as a venue of innovation and as a site of recruitment for aspiring authors Van Remoortel redefines the scope of the genre including the ways in which its development is intricately related to issues of gender Among her subjects are the Della Cruscans and their primary critic

William Gifford the young Samuel Taylor Coleridge and his circle Elizabeth Barrett Browning's Sonnets from the Portuguese George Meredith's Modern Love Dante Gabriel Rossetti's House of Life and Augusta Webster's Mother and Daughter As women became a force to be reckoned with among the reading public and the writing community the term sonnet often operated as a satirical label that was not restricted to poetry adhering to the strict formalities of the genre Van Remoortel's study in its attentiveness to the sonnet's feminization during the late eighteenth century offers important insights into the ways in which changing attitudes about gender and genre shaped critics' interpretations of the reception histories of nineteenth century sonnet sequences The Times Index, 2013-02 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Time educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement The Royal Academy (1837-1901) Revisited Christopher Forbes, 1975 Books and Bookmen, 1971
