The past two decades have witnessed tremendous change and growth in the financial sector in countries across the globe At the heart of this sector is the banking industry which wears a variety of hats in different countries Leading issues within the purview of this book include regulation economic growth offshore banking risk exposure bank mergers lending policies and practices liquidity bank failures This new book presents important analysis of global banking Comparative International Characteristics of Banking James R. Barth,2004 Data Governance in AI, FinTech and LegalTech Lee, Joseph,Darbellay, Aline,2022-05-19 A comprehensive overview of the governance of urban infrastructures this Companion combines illustrative cases with conceptual approaches to offer an innovative perspective on the governance of large urban infrastructure systems Chapters examine the challenges facing urban infrastructure systems including financial economic technological social ecological jurisdictional and demand Internet Banking and the Law in Europe Apostolos Ath. Gkoutzinis,2006-11-02 The European Union has long sought to create a single financial area across Europe where consumers in one country benefit from financial markets and activities in other countries With the emergence of the Internet as a platform for the provision of online banking services the creation of a pan European market for banking services appeared a realistic proposition In practice however this has not happened This book asks why and argues that the creation of banking markets via the Internet relies on both available technologies and appropriate laws and regulations The institutional and legal framework for online banking services in the single European market are examined as is the level of legal harmonization achieved in the UK France and Germany under the influence of the EU Directives pertaining to online banking activities The Future of Global Financial Services Robert E. Grosse,2009-02-09 This book explores the future of the financial services industry giving readers an idea of the kinds of institutions and services that will survive in the early twenty first century An informative and provocative exploration of the future of the financial services industry Focuses on likely changes in the near future such as greater use of the Internet for banking transactions and the increasing globalization of financial services Points to the probable disappearance of the insurance sector as a separate industry Describes changing conditions in key financial centres especially the US the UK Germany Japan and Switzerland Electronic Security Thomas C. Glaessner,Tom Kellermann,Valerie McNevin,2002 Domestic Regulation and Service Trade Liberalization Pierre Sauve,Aaditya Mattoo,2003-08-29 Trade in services far more than trade in goods is affected by a variety of domestic regulations ranging from qualification and licensing requirements in professional services to pro competitive regulation in telecommunications services Experience shows that the quality of regulation strongly influences the consequences of trade liberalization WTO members have agreed that a central task in the ongoing services negotiations will be to develop a set of rules to ensure that domestic regulations support rather than impede trade liberalization Since these rules are bound to have a profound impact on the evolution of policy particularly in developing countries it is important that they be conducive to economically rational policy making This book addresses two central questions What impact can international trade rules on services have on the exercise of domestic regulatory sovereignty And how can services negotiations be harnessed to promote and consolidate domestic policy reform across highly diverse sectors The book with contributions from several of the world s leading experts in the field explores a range of rule making challenges arising at this policy interface in areas such as transparency standards and the adoption of a necessity test for services trade Contributions also provide an in depth look at these issues in the key areas of accountancy energy finance health telecommunications and transportation services
