Germany Screen Series:

German Film & Literature Eric Rentschler, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1986 This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological theoretical and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder Herzog and Sanders Brahms have engaged and been engaged by literary history

Destination London Tim Bergfelder, Christian Cargnelli, 2008-08-01 The legacy of emigrés in the British film industry from the silent film era until after the Second World War has been largely neglected in the scholarly literature Destination London is the first book to redress this imbalance Focusing on areas such as exile genre technological transfer professional training and education cross cultural exchange and representation it begins by mapping the reasons for this neglect before examining the contributions made to British cinema by emigré directors actors screenwriters cinematographers set designers and composers It goes on to assess the cultural and economic contexts of transnational industry collaborations in the 1920s artistic cosmopolitanism in the 1930s and anti Nazi propaganda in the 1940s

Entertaining German Culture Stephan Ehrig, Benjamin Schaper, Elizabeth Ward, 2023 Audiences for contemporary German film and television are becoming increasingly transnational and depictions of German cultural history are moving beyond the typical post war focus on Germany's problematic past Entertaining German Culture explores this radical shift building on recent research into transnational culture to argue that a new process of internal and external cultural reabsorption is taking place through areas of mutually assimilating cultural exchange such as streaming services an increasingly international film market and the import and export of Anglo American media formats

Light Motives Randall Halle, Margaret McCarthy, 2003 Light Motives undertakes a long overdue critical reassessment of German popular cinema challenging the traditional view of German film history and offering new ways to think about popular cinema in general

German Dictionary of Microelectronics Werner Bindmann, Heiner Ryssel, 1999 Covers semiconductor electronics microlithographic process components microelectronic circuit technology microprocessor technology and software technology Includes some 29 000 terms and 40 000 translations in the field

Between the Forest and the Road Stephan Ehrig, Benjamin Schaper, Elizabeth Ward, 2023-08-11 Audiences for contemporary German film and television are becoming increasingly transnational and depictions of German cultural history are moving beyond the typical post war focus on Germany's problematic past Entertaining German Culture explores this radical shift building on recent research into transnational culture to argue that a new process of internal and external cultural reabsorption is taking place through areas of mutually assimilating cultural exchange such as streaming services an increasingly international film market and the import and export of Anglo American media formats German National Cinema Sabine Hake, 2013-01-11 German National Cinema is the first comprehensive history of German film from its origins to the present In this new edition Sabine Hake discusses film making in economic political social and cultural terms and considers the contribution of Germany's most popular films to changing definitions of genre authorship and film form The book traces the central role of cinema in the nation's turbulent history from the Wilhelmine Empire to the Berlin Republic with special attention paid to the competing demands of film as art entertainment and propaganda Hake also explores the centrality of genre films and the star system to the development of a filmic imaginary This fully revised and updated new edition will be required reading for everyone interested in German film and the history of modern Germany Charting Asian German Film History Qinna Shen, Zach Ramon Fitzpatrick, Qingyang Freya Zhou, 2025 Provides a diachronic view of Asian German film history from early Orientalism to increasing collaboration as well as exploration of difference and alternate forms of national and cultural belonging From re-creating seedy opium dens and Hindu temples on set to capturing dazzling on location sights of Tokyo's neon lit streets and Berlin's bustling Dong Xuan Center cinema has provided German speaking audiences a window into the exotic cultures of Asia since the early 1900s Over time unilateral German imaginings of Asian cultures and people increasingly gave way to collaboration with Asian countries on location shooting and more variegated portrayals of the diasporic experiences of Asians in Europe though Orientalist tropes have not been fully mitigated The present volume embraces several understudied regions of Asia and on the other side of the equation it considers Austria and Switzerland in addition to Germany It incorporates archival research close scene analyses and genre overviews that elucidate the production and reception histories of individual films drawing on the knowledge of film historians cultural studies scholars and Germanists based in North America Europe and Asia The volume approaches film history by observing three distinct phenomena early German cinematic imaginings of Asia co-productions shot on location and representations of the Asian German diaspora The book aims to chart unwritten chapters of film history by pitching new readings of old masterpieces exploring lesser known works of prolific directors and uncovering the roles of Asian collaborators from the early twentieth century to the new millennium Edited by Qinna Shen Zach Ramon Fitzpatrick and Qingyang Freya Zhou Contributors Mita Banerjee Janelle Blankenship Anjeana K Hans Iris Haukamp Tobias Nagl Isabella Schwaderer Oliver C Speck Philipp Stiasny Evan Torner and Sabine von Dirke Coal Preparation Practice in Western Germany Thomas Fraser, M.
