The Transgender Studies Reader Susan Stryker, Stephen Whittle, 2013-10-18 Transgender studies is the latest area of academic inquiry to grow out of the exciting nexus of queer theory feminist studies and the history of sexuality Because transpeople challenge our most fundamental assumptions about the relationship between bodies desire and identity the field is both fascinating and contentious The Transgender Studies Reader puts between two covers fifty influential texts with new introductions by the editors that taken together document the evolution of transgender studies in the English speaking world By bringing together the voices and experience of transgender individuals doctors psychologists and academically based theorists this volume will be a foundational text for the transgender community transgender studies and related queer theory

The New Media Reader Noah Wardrip-Fruin, Nick Montfort, 2003-02-14 A sourcebook of historical written texts video documentation and working programs that form the foundation of new media This reader collects the texts videos and computer programs many of them now almost impossible to find that chronicle the history and form the foundation of the still emerging field of new media General introductions by Janet Murray and Lev Manovich along with short introductions to each of the texts place the works in their historical context and explain their significance The texts were originally published between World War II when digital computing cybernetic feedback and early notions of hypertext and the Internet first appeared and the emergence of the World Wide Web when they entered the mainstream of public life The texts are by computer scientists artists architects literary writers interface designers cultural critics and individuals working across disciplines The contributors include chronologically Jorge Luis Borges Vannevar Bush Alan Turing Ivan Sutherland William S Burroughs Ted Nelson Italo Calvino Marshall McLuhan Jean Baudrillard Nicholas Negroponte Alan Kay Bill Viola Sherry Turkle Richard Stallman Brenda Laurel Langdon Winner Robert Coover and Tim Berners Lee The CD accompanying the book contains examples of early games digital art independent literary efforts software created at universities and home computer commercial software Also on the CD is digitized video documenting new media programs and artwork for which no operational version exists One example is a video record of Douglas Engelbart's first presentation of the mouse word processor hyperlink computer supported cooperative work video conferencing and the dividing up of the screen we now call non overlapping windows another is documentation of Lynn Hershman's Lorna the first interactive video art installation

Reading by Starlight Damien Broderick, 2005-06-29 Reading by Starlight explores the characteristics in the writing marketing and reception of science fiction which distinguish it as a genre Damien Broderick explores the postmodern self referentiality of the sci fi narrative its intricate coded language and discursive encyclopaedia He shows how for perfect understanding sci fi readers must learn the codes of these imaginary worlds and vocabularies all the time picking up references to texts by other writers Reading by Starlight includes close readings of paradigmatic cyberpunk texts and writings by SF novelists and theorists including Isaac Asimov Arthur C Clarke Brian Aldiss Patrick Parrinder Kim Stanley Robinson John Varley Roger Zelazny William Gibson Fredric Jameson and Samuel R Delaney Religion and Outer Space Eric Michael Mazur, Sarah McFarland Taylor, 2023-07-07 Religion and Outer Space examines religion in and on the final frontier This book offers a first of its kind roadmap for thinking about complex encounters of religion and outer space A multidisciplinary group of scholarly experts takes up some of the most intriguing scientific spiritual trade commercial and even military dimensions of the complex entanglements of religion and outer space Attending to the historical reality that the interconnections between religion and the heavens are as old as religions themselves the volume starts with an examination of outer space elements in the most sacred writings of the world's religions It then explores some of the religious questions inevitable in this encounter analyzing cultural constructions both literary and actual of religion and outer space It ends with examinations of the role of religion in the very real and very present business of space exploration What might motivate the spread of religion or at least fantasies of religion in its myriad possibilities into new interior and exterior dimensions of the cosmos Only the future will tell Religion and Outer Space is essential reading for students and academics with an interest in religion and space religion and science space exploration religion and science fiction popular culture and religion in America

The Transgender Studies Reader Remix Susan Stryker, Dylan McCarthy Blackston, 2022-07-12 The Transgender Studies Reader Remix assembles 50 previously published articles to orient students and scholars alike to current directions in the fast evolving interdisciplinary field of transgender studies The volume is organized into ten thematic sections on trans studies engagements with feminist theory queer theory Black studies science studies Indigeneity and coloniality history biopolitics cultural production the posthumanities and intersectional approaches to embodied difference It includes a selection of highly cited works from the two volume The Transgender Studies Reader more recently published essays and some older articles in intersecting fields that are in conversation with where transgender studies is today Editors Susan Stryker and Dylan McCarthy Blackston provide a foreword an introduction and a short abstract of each article that taken together document key texts and interdisciplinary connections foundational to the evolution of transgender studies over the past 30 years A handy overview for scholars activists and all those new to the field this volume is also ideally suited for use as a textbook in undergraduate or graduate courses in gender studies The Routledge Companion to Gender and Science Fiction Lisa Yaszek, Sonja Fritzsche, Keren Omry, Wendy Gay Pearson, 2023-02-10 The Routledge Companion to Gender and Science Fiction is the first large scale reference work of its kind critically assessing the relations of gender and genre in science fiction SF especially but not exclusively as explored in speculative art by women and LGBTQ artists across the world This global volume builds upon the traditions of interdisciplinary inquiry by connecting established topics in gender studies and science fiction studies with emergent ideas from researchers in different media Taken together they challenge conventional generic boundaries provide new ways of approaching familiar texts recover lost artists and introduce new ones connect the revival of old hate based politics with the increasing visibility of imagined futures for all and show how SF stories about new kinds of gender relations inspire new models of artistic technoscientific and political practice Their chapters are grouped into five conversations about the history of gender and genre theoretical frameworks subjectivities medias and transmedialities and transtemporalities that are central to discussions of gender and SF in the current moment A range of both emerging and established names in media literature and cultural studies engage with a huge diversity of topics including eco criticism animal studies cyborg and posthumanist theory masculinity critical race studies Indigenous futurisms Black girlhood and gaming This is an essential resource for students and scholars studying gender sexuality and or science fiction

Disability, Literature, Genre Ria Cheyne, 2019 This title brings cultural disability studies and genre fiction studies into dialogue for the first time Analysing representations of disability in contemporary science fiction romance fantasy horror and crime fiction it offers new and transformative insights into both the workings of genre and the affective power of disability

The Gothic World Glennis Byron, Dale Townshend, 2013-10-08 The Gothic World offers an overview of this popular field whilst also extending critical debate in exciting new directions such as film politics fashion architecture fine art and cyberculture Structured around the principles of time space and practice and including a detailed general introduction the five sections look at Gothic Histories Gothic Spaces Gothic Readers and Writers Gothic Spectacle Contemporary Impulses The Gothic World seeks to account for the Gothic as a multi faceted multi dimensional force as a style an aesthetic experience and a mode of cultural expression that traverses genres forms media disciplines and national boundaries and creates indeed its own World

The Metanarrative of Blindness David Bolt, 2014 Sheds new light on literary representations of blindness from a disability studies perspective
