The Yacoubian Building By Alaa Al Aswany:

the yacoubian building 'Alā' Aswānī, 2004 The Yacoubian Building holds all that Egypt was and has become over the 75 years since its namesake was built on one of downtown Cairo's main boulevards From the pious son of the building's doorkeeper and the raucous impoverished squatters on its roof via the tattered aristocrat and the gay intellectual in its apartments to the ruthless businessman whose stores occupy its ground floor each sharply etched character embodies a facet of modern Egypt where political corruption ill gotten wealth and religious hypocrisy are natural allies where the arrogance and defensiveness of the powerful find expression in the exploitation of the weak where youthful idealism can turn quickly to extremism and where an older less violent vision of society may yet prevail Alaa Al Aswany's novel caused an unprecedented stir when it was first published in 2002 and has remained the world's best selling novel in the Arabic language since

The Yacoubian building , The Work of Literature Derek Attridge, 2015 The Work of Literature presents a fresh approach to the question of the value of literature posing and responding to questions about the way we read and write about literature its value to individuals and society how it is best approached by readers and critics and how it retains its power to give pleasure over decades and centuries

Postcolonial Audiences Bethan Benwell, James Procter, Gemma Robinson, 2012-03-12 Without readers and audiences viewers and consumers the postcolonial would be literally unthinkable And yet postcolonial critics have historically neglected the modes of reception and consumption that make up the politics and pleasures of meaning making during and after empire Thus while recent criticism and theory has made large claims for reading as an ethical act as a means of establishing collective quasi political consciousness as identification with difference as a mode of resistance and as an impulsion to the public imagination the reader in postcolonial literary studies persists as a shadowy figure This collection answers the now pressing need for a distinctively postcolonial take on the rapidly expanding area of reader and reception studies Written by some of the top scholars in the field these essays reveal readers and reception to be varied and profoundly unstable subjects that challenge many of our assumptions and preconceptions of the postcolonial from the notion of reading as national fellowship to the demands of an ethics of reading

Friendly Fire Alaa Al

Aswany,2010 The new book from Alaa Al Aswany author of the international bestseller The Yacoubian Building and Chicago Friendly Fire is a novella and collection of short stories from Alaa Al Aswany author of the bestselling The Yacoubian Building As in that novel Al Aswany dissects modern Egyptian society and with skill and detachment reveals the hypocrisy violence and abuse of power characteristic of a world in moral crisis Here though the focus has shifted from the broad historical canvas to the minute stitches of pain that hold together an individual a family a school classroom and the relationship between a man and a woman Can a man so alienated from his society that he regards all its members as no better than microbes wriggling under a microscope survive within it Can cynical religiosity triumph over human decency Can a man put the thought of a delicious dish of beans behind him long enough to mourn his father's death Alongside these wry questions other less mordant perspectives also have their place an ageing cabaret dancer bestows the blessing of a vanished world on her lover's son a crippled boy wins subjective victory from objective disaster In Friendly Fire readers will find again the vivid passionate characters of today's Cairo clamouring to be heard Friendly Fire also features an introduction by Alaa Al Aswany giving the history of the novella The Isam Abd el Ati Papers which was banned in Egypt for a decade Samia Mehrez,2010-01-01 A look at some of the raging debates in the arts in Egypt The Literary Life of Cairo Samia Mehrez,2011 Readings from literary works that re-construct a century of Cairo's changing social life Unlike The Literary Atlas of Cairo which focuses on the literary geopolitics of the cityscape this companion volume immerses the reader in the complex network of socioeconomic and cultural lives in the city The seven chapters first introduce the reader to representations of some of Cairo's prominent profiles both political and cultural and their impact on the city's literary geography before presenting a spectrum of readings of the city by its multiethnic multinational and multilingual writers across class gender and generation Daunting images of colonial school experiences and startling contrasts of postcolonial educational realities are revealed while Cairo's moments of political participation and oppression are illustrated as well as the space accorded to women within the city across history and class The city's marginals are placed on its literary map alongside representations of the relationship between writing and drugs and the places paraphernalia and products of the drug world across class and time Together The Literary Atlas of Cairo and The Literary Life of Cairo produce a literary geography of Cairo that goes beyond the representation of space in literature to reconstruct the complex network of human relationships in that space Urban Space in Contemporary Egyptian Literature M. Naaman,2016-04-30 An examination of how the space of the downtown served dual purposes as both a symbol of colonial influence and capital in Egypt as well as a staging ground for the demonstrations of the Egyptian nationalist movement The Cambridge Companion to the City in World Literature Ato Quayson,Jini Kim Watson,2023-07-27 This book addresses the way cities have given rise to key aesthetic dispositions that are central to debates in World Literature LGBT Transnational Identity and the Media Christopher Pullen,2012-02-29 Offering a critical introduction into LGBT lesbian gay bisexual and transgender transnational identity in the media this book examines performances and representations within documentary and fiction oriented texts An interdisciplinary approach is put forward revealing new potentials for non western queer identity

The Architecture of Home in Cairo Mohamed Gamal Abdelmonem, 2016-03-03 The hawari of Cairo narrow non straight alleyways are the basic urban units that have formed the medieval city since its foundation back in 969 AD Until early in the C20th they made up the primary urban divisions of the city and were residential in nature Contemporary hawari by contrast are increasingly dominated by commercial and industrial activity This medieval urban maze of extremely short broken zigzag streets and dead ends are defensible territories powerful institutions and important social systems While the hawari have been studied as an exemplar for urban structure of medieval Islamic urbanism and as individual building typologies this book is the first to examine in detail the socio spatial practice of the architecture of home in the city It investigates how people live communicate and relate to each other within their houses or shared spaces of the alleys and in doing so to uncover several new socio spatial dimensions and meanings in this architectural form In an attempt to re establish the link between architecture past and present and to understand the changing social needs of communities this book uncovers the notion of home as central to understand architecture in such a city with long history as Cairo It firstly describes the historical development of the domestic spaces indoor and outdoor and provides an inclusive analysis of spaces of everyday activities in the hawari of old Cairo It then broadens its analysis to other parts of the city highlighting different customs and representations of home in the city at large Cairo in the context of this book is represented as the most sophisticated urban centre in the Middle East with different and sometimes contrasting approaches to the architecture of home as a practice and spatial system In order to analyse the complexity and interconnectedness of the components and elements of the hawari as a collective home it layers its narratives of architectural and social developments as a domestic environment over the past two hundred years and in doing so explores the in depth social meaning and performance of spaces both private and public

The Secret Miracle Daniel Alarcón, 2010-04-13 The world s best contemporary writers from Michael Chabon and Claire Messud to Jonathan Lethem and Amy Tan engage in a wide ranging insightful and oft surprising roundtable discussion on the art of writing fiction Drawing back the curtain on the mysterious process of writing novels The Secret Miracle brings together the foremost practitioners of the craft to discuss how they write Paul Auster Roddy Doyle Allegra Goodman Aleksandar Hemon Mario Vargas Llosa Susan Minot Rick Moody Haruki Murakami George Pelecanos Gary Shteyngart Daniel Alarcón and others take us step by step through the alchemy of writing fiction answering everything from nuts and bolts queries Do you outline to perennial questions posed by writers and readers alike What makes a character compelling From Stephen King s deadpan distinction between novels and short stories Novels are longer and have more s t in them to Colm Toibin s anti romanticized take on his characters They are just words to Jos Manuel Prieto s mature perspective on the anxieties of influence Influences are felt or weigh you down more when young every page contains insights found nowhere else With honesty humor and elegance The Secret Miracle gives both aspiring writers and lovers of literature a master class in the art of writing War, Welfare & Democracy Peter J.

Munson,2013-01-31 American foreign policy since World War II has actively sought to reshape both domestic and international orders to hasten the coming of the end of history in a peaceful democratic utopia While the end of the Cold War heightened optimism that this goal was near policymakers still face dramatic challenges In War Welfare Democracy Peter J Munson argues that the foreign policy problems we face today stem from common roots the modern state system s struggle to cope with the pressures of market development and sociopolitical modernization Washington s policies seek to treat challenges as varied as insurgency organized crime fiscal crises immigration pressures authoritarianism and violations of human rights with a schizophrenic mix of realpolitik and idealism The ideologies that inform this outlook were born during the Great Depression and two world wars and honed during the early years of the Cold War Although the world has long since changed American policy has failed to adjust The world s leading welfare states face a crisis of aging populations shrinking revenues and spiraling costs in their attempts to provide services and social security for their citizens compounding this inflexibility By addressing the inequality of wealth security and stability brought on by dramatic economic change and modernization Munson describes how the United States can lead in reforming the welfare state paradigm and adjust its antiquated policies to best manage the transformation we all must face Copyright's Arc Martin Skladany,2020-09-03

Copyright is not one size fits all Skladany argues that copyright law should instead vary according to a country s development status Belly Dance, Pilgrimage and Identity Barbara Sellers-Young,2016-11-07 This book examines the globalization of belly dance and the distinct dancing communities that have evolved from it The history of belly dance has taken place within the global flow of sojourners immigrants entrepreneurs and tourists from the nineteenth to the twenty first century In some cases the dance is transferred to new communities within the gender normative structure of its original location in North Africa and the Middle East Belly dance also has become part of popular culture s Orientalist infused discourse The consequence of this discourse has been a global revision of the solo dances of North Africa and the Middle East into new genres that are still part of the larger belly dance community but are distinct in form and meaning from the dance as practiced within communities in North Africa and the Middle East
