Courses In Turfloop Campus:

Turfloop a Conscious Pariah Kanyane Chris Kanyane,Chris Kanyane,2010 This book provides reflections on the butterfly effect on how Turfloop brought in the Age of Barack Obama What is the Age of Barack Obama To paraphrase Dr Ineke Van Kessel a prominent historian at the Leiden University in the Netherlands The University of the North also known as Turfloop played a vital role as the center of communication coordination ideological direction the engine of bringing the new South Africa was University of the North We approached this book like detectives Fortunately in our detective work we were not concerned with a particular agenda we were not trying to prove that a certain method of thinking was right or wrong We didn't want this book to be filled with personal opinions and biases We wanted this book to be juicy and accessible to every person who reads it in whatever corner of the world We have to back up our story with facts of course and get other people to do practical analysis and later we added our own perspectives When we completed writing this book we passed it around amongst critical people spread across the globe Most of them said that the book is somehow highbrow and at the same time all together lowbrow which came as a compliment A lot of people are somewhere in between We want this book to embody that because there are many people there we want them to appreciate this book Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan,2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba Status of Postgraduate Training in the Livestock Sector in Southern Africa and Priorities for ILRI's Support Sikhhalazo Dube,2009-01-01 Indigenous Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources,2019-10-11 Global interest in indigenous studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact indigenous communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of indigenous knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving Indigenous Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of indigenous peoples from around the world as well as how contemporary issues impact these indigenous communities on a local national and global scale Highlighting a range of topics such as local narratives intergenerational cultural transfer and ethnicity and identity this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields Beyond Our Wildest Dreams Ineke van Kessel,2000 The 1980s in South Africa were marked by protest violent confrontation and international sanctions Internally the country saw a bewildering growth of grassroots organizations including trade unions civic associations in the black townships student and other youth organizations church based groups and women's movements many of which operated under the umbrella of the United Democratic Front UDF Beyond Our Wildest Dreams explores the often conflicted relationship between the UDF's large scale resistance to apartheid and its everyday struggles at the local level. In hindsight the UDF can be seen as a transitional front preparing the ground for leaders of the liberation movement to return from exile or prison and take over power. But the founding fathers of the UDF initially had far more modest ambitions. Interviews with Cachalia and other leading personalities in the UDF examine the organization's workings at the national level while stories of ordinary people collected by the author illuminate the grassroots activism so important to the UDF's success. Even in South Africa writes Ineke van Kessel who covered the anti apartheid movement as a journalist resistance was not the obvious option for ordinary citizens. Van Kessel shows how these people were mobilized into forming a radical social movement that developed a highly flexible and innovative form of resistance that ultimately ended apartheid. From publisher's description Accessing Post-School Studies Venica McGhie, 2017-12-01 This publication makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement. In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and Saeljoe. The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students. It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment.

International Handbook of Universities, 2010 Knowledge for Justice Halvorsen, Tor, Ibsen, Hilde, 2017-11-28 With the adoption of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Paris Agreement the purpose of development is being redefined in both social and environmental terms. Despite pushback from conservative forces change is accelerating in many sectors. To drive this transformation in ways that bring about social environmental and economic justice at a local national regional and global levels new knowledge and strong cross regional networks capable of foregrounding different realities needs and agendas will be essential. In fact the power of knowledge matters today in ways that humanity has probably never experienced before placing an emphasis on the roles of research academics and universities. In this collection an international diverse collection of scholars from the southern African and Nordic regions critically review the SDGs in relation to their own areas of expertise while placing the process of knowledge production in the spotlight. In Part I the contributors provide a sober assessment of the obstacles that neo liberal hegemony presents to substantive transformation. In Part Two lessons learned from North South research collaborations and academic exchanges are assessed in terms of their potential to offer real alternatives. In Part III a set of case studies supply clear and nuanced analyses of the scale of the challenges faced in ensuring that no one is left behind. This accessible and absorbing collection will be of interest to anyone interested in North South research networks and in the contemporary debates on the role of knowledge production. Madzivhandila, Mzukisi Qobo, 2024-07-08 There is a national emergency and it has become more pronounced as South Africa faces challenges of Ethical leadership in both the private and public sector Recently the Zondo Commission Public Investment Corporation PIC Commission and Courts of Law released reports that cast light on the conduct of public officials There have also been several reports by the Special Investigating Unit SIU dealing with the same matter This phenomenon is not only unique to South Africa Reports of multinational companies that have been implicated in unethical and corrupt abound These include corporate scandals such as those of Enron WorldCom Nortel and AIG These malfeasances have demonstrated abundantly that corporate leaders are not immune to unethical behaviour Bedi Alpasla Naidoo 2012a What this showed is that the issue of ethics is important in the public sector Witchcraft and a Life in the New South Africa Isak Arnold Niehaus, 2013 This biography casts new light on scholarly understandings of the connections between politics witchcraft and AIDS in South Africa Struggle for a Free South Africa Derek Charles Catsam, 2024-02-15 This book explores anti apartheid movements on university and college campuses across Africa and the United States in the 1970s and 1980s In the wake of the March 1960 Sharpeville Massacre in South Africa the country's apartheid policies drew increasing critical international attention By the 1970s South Africa found itself isolated due to growing sporting economic and cultural boycotts Africans across the continent showed solidarity with Black South Africans through a range of boycotts and protests by hosting South Africans exiled from their home country and by vilifying the apartheid government at every turn This volume looks at elite institutions as well as state colleges and universities in the United States and the actions of university students in Nigeria Kenya Ghana and South Africa during the anti apartheid movements in the 1970s and 1980s revealing the local manifestations of a global struggle The chapters showcase how vibrant campus anti apartheid movements were what universal problems emerged and where unique concerns manifested at a wide range of institutions Taking innovative approaches and offering case studies Struggle for a Free South Africa reveals the myriad ways the anti apartheid struggle manifested in a range of academic environments and how those campaigns have been remembered and documented This book was originally published as a special issue of Safundi The Road to Soweto Julian Brown, 2016 Conclusion

Consequences Bibliography Index Power and Resistance in an African Society Les Switzer, 1993 Imagine a history of the United States written from the perspective of the African American community Imagine that the story of this community is told not only from the viewpoint of its leaders the middle class elites but also from the viewpoint of sharecroppers industrial workers and others living on the margins of American culture And finally imagine that this is not only about political and economic relations but also about race class gender and religious relations about the lived experiences of one community that both reflect and represent fundamental issues of power and resistance in an entire society This is what Les Switzer has tried to do with his book Power and Resistance in an African Society Scholars who have read it suggest that this is the first attempt to write a history of South Africa from the perspective of one subordinate community in South Africa The result is a transformed history from below The names dates events and issues of conventional textbook history lose their meaning in the process of reconstructing a history that seeks to free the African from the domain of South Africa's ruling culture The book also offers a unique contribution to African studies in sub Saharan Africa because it explores the material and symbolic manifestations of power and resistance in a pre colonial colonial and post colonial setting The Ciskei region in the eastern Cape was selected as the case study This was the historic zone of conflict between European and Bantu speaking African in southern Africa the Cape Xhosa wars in this region lasting a century The contemporary African nationalist movement in South Africa first emerged in a variety of organizational forms in the Ciskei during the 1870s and 1880s The strategy of petitionary protest probably persisted longer here than anywhere else in South Africa in the post colonial period but popular resistance found a variety of windows outside organized African politics The Ciskei for example was a focal point of rural resistance in the 1920s and early 1930s and again between the early 1940s and early 1960s The gap between rural and urban dissidents in South Africa moreover was first bridged in the Ciskei and its environs during the 1952 Defiance Campaign Finally the Ciskei s segregated African reserve where economic conditions were judged to be most serious emerged as a primary site of struggle on South Africa s periphery during the 1970s and 1980s The focus of this study is on the Xhosa speaking peoples who lived in the Ciskei region in the first century after conquest To highlight the linkages between regional and national issues the Xhosa in the Ciskei are examined in the context of unfolding events in the Cape Colony and in the unified settler state of South Africa after 1910 A distinct plurality of voices would be formed in the complex interplay between color consciousness and class as this community sought space for itself within the domain of South Africa s ruling culture
