Dear Mr Gordon

With reference to your advertisement on www.dayjob.com this week, I wish to apply for the position of Retail Sales Assistant at your company.

As a sales driven and dynamic individual who has a long history of exceeding expectations through performance, I feel I would be able to contribute significantly to the ongoing operational success of your store. Some of the key talents I can bring to your company include ensuring the latest retail trends are identified, all sales opportunities are fully exploited, and accurately determining a customer's needs before providing them with a prompt service.

My present employment has helped me to develop my abilities in key areas such as meeting and greeting customers, putting away stock, retrieving stock, handling cash, and dealing with sales transactions.

Your company is a market leader in the retail industry, and I am very eager to become a part of your winning team. I am very confident that I can smoothly fit into your existing setup. I will be an excellent candidate for your vacancy as I have a proven track record of taking retail sales to the next level, and of resolving shop floor deficiencies that may be impeding growth and sales.

I am someone who is able and willing to do whatever it takes to deliver results, success and the maximising of a store's profitability. I have extensive knowledge of brand integrity, market awareness and delivering high levels of customer satisfaction.

I have enclosed my CV for your review and would appreciate the opportunity to meet with you in the near future to further discuss my application. In the meantime I thank you for your time, consideration and forthcoming response.

Yours sincerely

Carl Harris

The Day Job Mark Wallington, 2014-05-19 Mark Wallington has a dream. He is going to change the face of British comedy. Unfortunately for the residents of north London, he's going to finance this dream by becoming a gardener. The result is The Day Job, an account of a year spent working in other people's gardens: people like Mrs. Fleming, who is convinced there is buried treasure in the bottom bed; Mr. Walters, who is trying to create a fascist state policed by gnomes in his well-guarded plot in Gospel Oak; Mrs. Glover, who is probably the most attractive woman living in Britain; and poor Mr. Nugent, who likes to save his urine in jam jars and pour it over his compost. Over four seasons, Wallington crosses Hampstead Heath from job to job. He survives brushes with the evil contract gardeners who keep trying to knock him off his bicycle. He strives to impress literary agent Herman Gapp, who might represent him depending on what sort of job he does on Gapp's Alpine Terrace. He even finds time to fall for a housecleaner cum actor named Helen as he becomes part of a strange band of artistes, each with a day job of their own, all waiting for that first break. This is the story of long nights spent in the back room of a pub trying to write unsolicited scripts and of much longer days spent trying to understand the British and their strange obsession with gardening.
