Manufactured Crisis James Simpson, 2024-09-24 Few could have imagined ten years ago where we d be in America today We are confronted on all sides by interminable crises that threaten the very fabric of our nation from a border flooded with millions of migrants from all over the world to a fentanyl crisis killing more American youths every year than the past three wars combined Radical transgender activism and other cultural insanity has pushed more youths to commit suicide than at any other time in history It seems as though the world is rapidly coming unglued But it is actually a diabolical plan that has been operating for over a hundred years and is now showing its face This book describes this plan in excruciating detail and shows us a path out if we re willing to take it

Expulsions Saskia Sassen, 2014-05-05 Income inequality displaced and imprisoned populations destruction of land and water today s dislocations cannot be understood in the usual terms of poverty and injustice Saskia Sassen argues They are more accurately understood as expulsions from professional livelihood from living space from the very biosphere that makes life possible

Chun, 2016-03-23 In an imaginative and interesting way Kwang Ho Chun seeks to capture the dynamics of the changing international system and the prospects for a change in the international distribution of power The idea that new superpowers could rise and that some of the BRICs Brazil Russia India and China could be such superpowers is particularly intriguing and the main idea explored in this study In line with neo realist approaches this book argues that in a unipolar world competitors will rise to challenge the global hegemon As the power profiles of the BRICs rise and they gain greater control of geo global politics they are likely to attain significant regional dominance among other regional powers although their underdeveloped tradition of hard power and internal challenges could prevent them from gaining superpower status This book captures the dynamics of the changing international system and the prospects for a change in the international distribution of power

Human Rights Trade-Offs in Times of Economic Growth Areli Valencia,2016-11-03 This book uncovers a historical dependency on smelting activities that has trapped inhabitants of La Oroya Peru in a context of systemic lack of freedom La Oroya has been named one of the most polluted places on the planet by the US Blacksmith Institute Residents face the dilemma of whether to defend their health or to preserve job stability at the local smelter the main source of toxic pollution in town Valencia unpacks this paradoxical human rights trade off This context shaped by social historical political and economic factors increases people s vulnerabilities and decreases their ability to choose resulting in residents trading off their right to health in order to work This book shows the deep connection of this local dilemma to the country s national paradox arising out of Peru s vision of natural resource extraction as the main path to secure economic growth for the entire country at the expense of some groups

Governing Under Stress Timothy J. Conlan,Paul L. Posner,Priscilla M. Regan,2017 The underappreciated but surprisingly successful implementation of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act ARRA helped rescue the economy during the Great Recession and represented one of the most important achievements of the Obama presidency It tested all levels of government with urgent time frames and extensive accountability requirements While ARRA passed most tests with comparatively little mismanagement or fraud negative public and media perceptions of the initiative deprived the president of political credit Drawing on more than two hundred interviews and nationwide field research Governing under Stress examines a range of ARRA stimulus programs to analyze the fraught politics complex implementation and impact of the legislation Essays from public administration scholars use ARRA to study how to implement large federal programs in our modern era of indirect networked governance Throughout the contributors present potent insights into the most pressing challenges facing public policy and management and they uncover important lessons about policy instruments and networks the effects of transparency and accountability and the successes and failures of different types of government intervention

The Profiteers Sally Denton,2017-02-14 The tale of the Bechtel family dynasty is a classic American business story It begins with Warren A Dad Bechtel who led a consortium that constructed the Hoover Dam From that auspicious start the family and its eponymous company would go on to build the world from the construction of airports in Hong Kong and Doha to pipelines and tunnels in Alaska and Europe to mining and energy operations around the globe Today Bechtel is one of the largest privately held corporations in the world enriched and empowered by a long history of government contracts and the privatization of public works made possible by an unprecedented revolving door between its San Francisco

headquarters and Washington
