The Patience Stone By Atiq Rahimi:

The Patience Stone Atiq Rahimi, 2010-01-14 A young woman prays at her husband's bedside as he lies in a coma with a bullet in his neck. From outside come the sounds of tanks, gunshots, screaming, and most terrifying of all, silence. Inside her two frightened daughters call to her from the hallway. As she tries to keep her husband alive, the woman rages against men, war, culture, God. Even as her mind appears to unravel, she becomes intensely clear sighted. Now is her chance, her first ever, to speak without being censored. Her husband's body reminds her of the legend of the patience stone, a stone that hears all confessions until it explodes and finally spurred to new heights of daring, she spills out her most explosive secret. Three by Atiq Rahimi, 2013-06-11 Three short novels including Prix Goncourt winning The Patience Stone that convey years of Afghan history, heartache, and hope. Never before in paperback. Atiq Rahimi's reputation for writing war stories of immense drama and intimacy began with his first novel Earth and Ashes about fathers and sons and the terrible strain inflicted on families when an Afghan village is destroyed by the Russian army. A Thousand Rooms of Dream and Fear takes place in 1979 during a period of social and political upheaval in Kabul. On the way home from a night of drinking, a university student named Farhad is arrested and brutally beaten. A few hours later, broken and confused, he slowly regains consciousness only to find himself in the care of a beautiful woman who has dragged him into her home to protect him. Winner of the Prix Goncourt, The Patience Stone is the tale of a woman caring for her brain-damaged husband who was shot in the neck during a petty conflict. After years of living in a society of Islamic fundamentalism, she finds herself strangely liberated by her husband's condition. She tells him her innermost thoughts and secrets, many of them dark and deeply repressed, never knowing whether he's able to hear her or not. Engagements with Adaptation Thomas

Leitch, 2025-03-24 Engagements with Adaptation invites students both to consider adaptations on their own terms and to engage with the urgent questions they raise about literary canons, the media industry, the relations between different kinds of media, the nature of national, political, and cultural identities, and the ways in which contemporary digital and social media have complicated the roles of producers and consumers of texts. Thomas Leitch guides students through six ways of thinking about adaptation: aesthetic, intertextual, industrial, biological, sociological, and participatory. He explores multiple media and discusses a wide range of sources including Frankenstein, Persepolis, Bridgerton, and the world of DC and Marvel comics. Each of the six chapters includes a detailed discussion of Greta Gerwig's film Barbie to help readers compare the ways in which these six approaches can engage with a single text. The book also offers invaluable insight into copyright, censorship, critical race theory, and immigration. The questions at the end of each section embed and reinforce learning and prompt further research. This accessible and engaging guide reveals how the anti-discipline of adaptation studies is adjacent to a remarkable array of disciplines, making it a much-needed resource for students interested in television studies, moving image studies, digital media studies, translation studies, performance studies, music, and art history, and creation, border studies, race studies.

Gender and Patriarchy in the Films of Muslim Nations

Patricia R. Owen, 2017-11-28 There are 49 Muslim majority countries in the world and Islam is the world's second largest religion. Yet many in the West are misinformed about Islam and Muslim worldviews. Issues related to gender norms are especially subject to misconceptions. This filmography analyzes gender issues in 56 feature films from Afghanistan, Algeria, Bangladesh, Egypt, Iran, Iraq, Pakistan, and Turkey with a focus on religious, legal, and patriarchal legitimization of practices such as female genital mutilation, child marriage, virginity testing, public sexual harassment and molestation, and honor killings.

Contemplating Everyday Texts: An Interdisciplinary Review Professor Satnam Kaur, Dr. Shivani Sharma, Mr. Rahul Verma, 2021-05-04 It has a collection of twenty papers by scholarly authors who have discussed various issues and subject matters that explore multiple perspectives from different disciplines, sub-disciplines, and areas of expertise. The book provides rich theoretical descriptions and a hands-on approach that is conceptual and practical and reflects advances in the literature on research learning and assessment. Multiple perceptions produce deeper understanding or illumination, viable solution, or a product that creatively and innovatively accommodates different perspectives. As a maturing academic field, interdisciplinary studies need to define itself to make the case that interdisciplinarity is in fact contributing something distinctive and valuable to the academy and to society. The movement is from the most general to the more specific, from breadth to depth. An interdisciplinary insight is an expert's view on a particular problem that is based on research. This approach is produced when the interdisciplinary research process is used to create an integrated and purposeful result. In this book, disciplinary experts, scholars, and students have to produce insights. The edited book highlights the valuable ideas, views, outlook, observations, and thoughts in the form of chapters by authors from reputed institutions across India. It is a complete package consisting of an interdisciplinary review of diverse ideas and considerations highlighted by the authors belonging to different disciplines. Modern technological developments and globalization add to the complexity of problems, and in response, an integrated approach is very much required. Each author's focus is on another innovative factor at a different level of analysis using different theoretical frameworks and different methodologies. These various aspects discussed and displayed through the interdisciplinary examination in fact stimulate and invigorate the aspiring research scholars, academicians, researchers to look deeper into some of the issues for further exploration. It will be indeed a very good reading, the miscellaneous discussion about integrative research papers which is a sort of innovation that is change in the means of knowledge production. Here the researchers thoroughly studied the subject and integrate the information to produce new understandings and meanings.
