The Serpent And The Rainbow By Wade Davis:

The Serpent and the Rainbow Wade Davis, 2010-10-05 A scientific investigation and personal adventure story about zombies and the voodoo culture of Haiti by a Harvard scientist In April 1982 ethnobotanist Wade Davis arrived in Haiti to investigate two documented cases of zombies people who had reappeared in Haitian society years after they had been officially declared dead and had been buried Drawn into a netherworld of rituals and celebrations Davis penetrated the voodoo mystique deeply enough to place zombification in its proper context within voodoo culture In the course of his investigation Davis came to realize that the story of voodoo is the history of Haiti from the African origins of its people to the successful Haitian independence movement down to the present day where voodoo culture is in effect the government of Haiti's countryside The Serpent and the Rainbow combines anthropological investigation with a remarkable personal adventure to illuminate and finally explain a phenomenon that has long fascinated Americans The Serpent and the Rainbow Richard Maxwell, Wes Craven, A. R. Simoun, David Ladd, Doug Claybourne, Bill Pullman, Cathy Tyson, Zakes Mokae, Paul Winfield, Wade Davis, Universal Studios, 1988 Press kit includes a clip sheet an announcement sheet a listing of credits and cast production notes an article about the cast an article about the filmmakers brief biographies on Bill Pullman Cathy Tyson Zakes Mokae Paul Winfield Wes Craven Richard Maxwell and Wade Davis Now a Terrifying Motion Picture! James F. Infectious Rhythm Barbara Browning, 2013-06-17 Barbara Browning follows the trail of infectious rhythm from the ecstatic percussion of a Brazilian carnival group to the eerily silent video image of the LAPD beating a man like a drum Throughout she identifies the metaphoric strain of contagion which both celebrates the diasporic spread of African culture and serves as the justification for its brutal repression The essays in this book examine both the vital and violent ways in which recent associations have been made between the AIDS pandemic and African diasporic cultural practices including religious worship music dance sculpture painting orature literature and film While pointing to the lengthy and complex history of the metaphor of African contagion Browning argues that in its politicized life affirming embodiment the figure might actually teach us to respond to epidemics humanely Zombifying a Nation Toni Pressley-Sanon, 2016-08-02 The figure of the zombie that entered the popular imagination with the publication of William Seabrook's The Magic Island 1929 during the American occupation of Haiti still holds cultural currency around the world This book calls for a rethinking of zombies in a sociopolitical context through the examination of several films including White Zombie 1932 The Love Wagon

1935 I Walked with a Zombie 1943 The Serpent and the Rainbow 1988 A 21st century film from Haiti Zombi candidat a la presidence ou les amours d un zombi is also examined A reading of Heading South 2005 a film about the female tourist industry in the Caribbean explores zombification as a consumptive process driven by capitalism The Ashgate Research Companion to Monsters and the Monstrous Asa Simon Mittman, Peter Dendle, 2012 The field of monster studies has grown significantly over the past few years and this companion provides a comprehensive guide to the study of monsters and the monstrous from historical regional and thematic perspectives The collection reflects the truly multi disciplinary nature of monster studies bringing in scholars from literature art history religious studies history classics and cultural and media studies The companion will offer scholars and graduate students the first comprehensive and authoritative review of this emergent field

A Pepper-pot of Cultures Gordon Collier, Ulrich Fleischmann, 2003 The terms creole and creolization have witnessed a number of significant semantic changes in the course of their history Originating in the vocabulary associated with colonial expansion in the Americas it had been successively narrowed down to the field of black American culture or of particular linguistic phenomena Recently creole has expanded again to cover the broad area of cultural contact and transformation characterizing the processes of globalization initiated by the colonial migrations of past centuries The present volume is intended to illustrate these various stages either by historical and or theoretical discussion of the concept or through selected case studies The authors are established scholars from the areas of literature linguistics and cultural studies they all share a lively and committed interest in the Caribbean area certainly not the only or even oldest realm in which processes of creolization have shaped human societies but one that offers by virtue of its history of colonialization and cross cultural contact its most pertinent example The collection beyond its theoretical interest thus also constitutes an important survey of Caribbean studies in Europe and the Americas As well as searching overview essays there are sociolinguistic contributions on the linguistic geography of criollo in Spanish America the Limonese creole speakers of Costa Rica creole language and identity in the Netherlands Antilles and the affinities between Papiamentu and Chinese in Cura ao ethnohistorical examinations of such topics as creole transgression in the Dominican Haitian borderland the Haitian Mandingo and African fundamentalism creolization and identity in West Central Jamaica Afro Nicaraguans and national identity and the Creole heritage of Haiti studies of religion and folk culture including voodoo and creolization in New York City the creolization of the Mami Wata water spirit and signifyin g processes in New World Anancy tales a group of essays focusing on the thought of douard Glissant Maryse Cond and the Cr olit writers and case studies of artistic expression including creole identities in Caribbean women s writing Port au Prince in the Haitian novel Cynthia McLeod and Astrid Roemer and Surinamese fiction Afro Cuban artistic expression and metacreolization in the fiction of Robert Antoni and Nalo Hopkinson

Theorising the Contemporary Zombie Scott Hamilton, Conor Heffernan, 2022-05-15 Zombies have become an increasingly popular object of research in academic studies and of course in popular media Over the past decade they have been employed to explain mathematical equations vortex phenomena in astrophysics the need for improved laws issues within higher education and even the structure of human societies Despite the surge of interest in the zombie as a critical metaphor no coherent theoretical framework for studying the zombie actually exists Addressing this current gap in the literature Theorising the Contemporary Zombie defines zombiism as a means of theorising and examining various issues of society in any given era by immersing those social issues within the destabilising context of apocalyptic crisis and applying this definition the volume considers issues including gender sexuality family literature health popular culture and extinction

Tropical Gothic in Literature and Culture Justin D. Edwards, Sandra Vasconcelos, 2016-01-13 Tropical Gothic examines Gothic within a specific geographical area of the South of the Americas In so doing we structure the book around geographical coordinates from North to South and move between various national traditions of the gothic Mexico Argentina Brazil etc alongside regional manifestations of the Gothic the US south and the Caribbean as well as transnational movements of the Gothic within the Americas The reflections on national traditions of the Gothic in this volume add to the critical body of literature on specific languages or particular nations such as Scottish Gothic American Gothic Canadian Gothic German Gothic Kiwi Gothic etc This is significant because while the Southern Gothic in the US has been thoroughly explored there is a gap in the critical literature about the Gothic in the larger context of region of the South in the Americas This volume does not pretend to be a comprehensive examination of tropical Gothic in the Americas rather it pinpoints a variety of locations where this form of the Gothic emerges In so doing the transnational interventions of the Gothic in this book read the flows of Gothic forms across borders and geographical regions to tease out the complexities of Gothic cultural production within cultural and linguistic translations Tropical Gothic includes but is by no means limited to a reflection on a region where European colonial powers fought intensively against indigenous populations and against each other for control of land and resources In other cases the vast populations of African slaves were transported endowing these regions with a cultural inheritance that all the nations involved are still trying to comprehend The volume reflects on how these histories influence the Gothic in this region
