The Memory Artists By Jeffrey Moore:

The Memory Artists Jeffrey S. Moore, 2005 In the tradition of Jonathan Safran Foer and Jonathan Lethem Jeffrey Moore effortlessly juggles different voices and narrative styles to get at the very heart of what it means to remember and to forget Noel Burun is a hypermnesiac synaesthete his memory is unrelentingly exact and he sees spoken words as vibrant explosions of colour a sensation that often leaves him befuddled and bewildered Adding to his frustration is his mother's slow descent into the quicksand of Alzheimer's A man who remembers too much and a woman who remembers too little both struggle to make sense of their worlds in a house bloated with memories

The Memory Artists Jeffrey Moore, 2007-04-01 Winner of the Canadian Authors Association Award for Best Novel Noel Burun has synesthesia and hypermnesia he sees words in vibrant explosions of colors and shapes which collide and commingle to form a memory so biting perfect that he can remember everything from the 1001 stories of The Arabian Nights to the color of his bib as a toddler But for all his mnemonic abilities he is confronted every day with a reality that is as sad as it is ironic his beloved mother Stella is stricken with Alzheimer's disease her memory slowly slipping into the quicksands of oblivion The Memory Artists follows Noel helped by a motley cast of friends on his quest to find a cure for his mother's affliction The results are at the same time darkly funny quirkily inventive and very moving Alternating between third person narratives and the diaries of Noel and Stella Jeffrey Moore weaves a story filled with fantastic characters and a touch of suspense that gets at the very heart of what it means to remember and forget and that is a testament to the uplifting power of family and friendship

Beyond the Great Forgetting Patrick Gruener, 2022-08-29 Drawing on a selection of carefully curated autobiographical and fictional portrayals of the dementia experience this book gives voice to some of the most pressing ethical issues that commonly arise in the context of a dementing disorder and calls attention to various forms of narrative resistance in contemporary American literature on early onset Alzheimer's disease AD Based on the premise that the current public discourse on AD is largely dominated by an anxiety and fear promoting conception of the illness this multilayered inquiry strives to look beyond the widespread horrors of forgetting and loss in AD and in doing so attempts to give a better more accurate and more balanced impression of what it means to be living with such a diagnosis

Fictions of Dementia Susanne Katharina Christ,2022-09-20 Taking its cues from both classical and post classical narratologies this study explores both forms and functions of the representation of dementia in Anglophone fictions Initially dementia is conceptualised as a narrative epistemological paradox The more those affected know what it is like to have dementia the less they can tell about it Narrative fiction is the only discourse that provides an imaginative glimpse at the subjective experience of dementia in language The narratological modelling of four narrative modes elaborates how the paradox becomes productive in fiction Depending on the narrative perspective taken but also on the type of narration the technique for representing consciousness and the epistemic strategy of narrating dementia the respective narrative modes come with different prerequisites and possibilities for narrating dementia The analysis of four contemporary Anglophone dementia fictions based on the developed model reveals their potential functions Fiction allows readers to learn about the challenges of dementia grants them perspective taking it trains cognitive flexibility and explores the meaning of memory knowledge narrative and imagination and thus also offers trajectories of a cultural coping with dementia

Alive and Kicking at All Ages Ulla Kribernegg,Roberta Maierhofer,Barbara Ratzenböck,2014-06-15 The linking of age and ill health is part of a cultural narrative of decline as age is often defined as the absence of good health Research has shown that we are aged by culture but we are also culturally made ill when we age The cultural ambiguity of aging can thus deconstruct negative images of old age as physical decrepitude This volume investigates the topic of health within the matrix of time and experience by addressing issues such as how our understanding of health influences our notion of agency within a subversive deconstruction of normative age concepts and what role the notion of health plays in such an interaction

reflecting on the events of 44 years ago I am struck by the stark contrast between our hopes and reality Back in 2010 we believed the regime s collapse was imminent Yet it continues to cling to power maintaining its oppressive fascist grip The Women Life Freedom movement of 2022 marked a significant milestone the younger generation freeing us from the shackles of mandatory hijabs But the regime s frightful executions plus nonsense anti civic Ecological collapses persists spreading its influence through regional conflicts Russian Putin poses as the ally of the Islamic regime thus enables its survival by contradictory tactics facilitating oil sales to China Therefore undermining the sanctions imposed by the U S and Western Europe Meanwhile the global unspeakable tragedy unfolding in Gaza leaves the world in stunned silence All eyes now turn to the United States Our hopes for liberation remain but the weight of these global and regional crises ignited by allied forces reminds us of how far we still have to go towards Liberty

The Lancet ,2004 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Over Streams and Squirrel Woods... Alys Williams,2011 I wanted to write about people who have a disease which destroys the ability to communicate or recognise anyone causes the loss of bodily functions forces dependency and dehumanises the sufferer as Lewy body dementia did to my Mum Some form of dementia affects 1 in 20 of the over 65 s and 1 in 5 of over 80 s so many of us how does it feel if you know that it is happening to you Some sufferers have said that it enriches awareness and acts as a prism through which life is viewed differently I could see that fantasy and reality merged in my Mum s mind and often wondered if she had an alternative world where her insecurities and fears manifested themselves as monsters and where she was powerful resourceful and a leader in contrast to her claustrophobic trapped and deteriorating reality Hopefully there is still power and creativity in the human mind even when it is damaged by plaques and tangles I have imagined her thoughts based on what she said to me and from what I observed and have described factually and honestly the journey we took together Recording my experience of her illness treatment and life in two nursing homes led me to question how we treat our elderly our shocking lack of effort to communicate with those with dementia and what constitutes identity self and the soul Over Streams and Squirrel Woods explores what can happen when reality becomes too painful and the disconnection between people when they see and hear differently from one another It is about boundless love frustration guilt and the inexorable inevitability of aging This is a valuable addition to the dementia literature rewriting our expectation of what those with dementia can think John Suchet The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006 Quill & Quire ,2007 Forgotten Marlene Goldman,2017-11-07 Since the 1860s long before scientists put a name to Alzheimer s disease Canadian authors have been writing about age related dementia Originally most of these stories were elegies designed to offer readers consolation Over time they evolved into narratives of gothic horror in which the illness is presented not as a normal consequence of aging but as an apocalyptic transformation Weaving together scientific cultural and aesthetic depictions of dementia and Alzheimer s disease Forgotten asserts that the only crisis associated with Canada s aging population is one of misunderstanding Revealing that turning illness into something monstrous can have dangerous consequences Marlene Goldman seeks to identify the political and social influences that have led to the gothic disease model and its effects on society Examining the works of authors such as Alice Munro Michael Ignatieff Jane Rule and Caroline Adderson alongside news stories and medical and historical discussions of Alzheimer s disease Goldman provides an alternative person centred perspective to the experiences of aging and age related dementia Deconstructing the myths that have transformed cognitive decline into a corrosive fantasy Forgotten establishes the pivotal role that fictional and non fictional narratives play in cultural interpretations of disease
