Voices in Aerosol Caitlin Frances Bruce,2024-01-09 Winner Visual Communication Division Outstanding Book Award National Communication Association NCA How a city government in central Mexico evolved from waging war on graffiti in the early 2000s to sanctioning its creation a decade later and how youth navigated these changing conditions for producing art The local government residents and media outlets in Le n Mexico treated graffiti as a disease until the state began sponsoring artistic graffiti through a program of its own In Voices in Aerosol the first book length study of state sponsored graffiti Caitlin Frances Bruce considers the changing perceptions and recognition of graffiti artists their right to the city and the use of public space over the span of eighteen years 2000 2018 Focusing on the midsized city of Le n Bruce offers readers a look at the way negotiations with the neoliberal state unfolded at different levels and across decades Issues brought to light in this case study such as graffiti as a threat and graffiti as a sign of gentrification resonate powerfully with those germane to other urban landscapes throughout the Western Hemisphere and beyond Combining archival work interviews considerations of urban planning local politics in Mexico and insights gained by observing graffiti events and other informal artistic encounters Bruce offers a new lens through which to understand the interplay between sanctioned and unsanctioned forms of cultural expression Ultimately Voices in Aerosol builds a strong case for graffiti as a contested tool for voicing public demands

The Art of Classic Planning Nir Haim Buras,2020-01-28 An accomplished architect and urbanist goes back to the roots of what makes cities attractive and livable demonstrating how we can restore function and beauty to our urban spaces for the long term Nearly everything we treasure in the world s most beautiful cities was built over a century ago Cities like Prague Paris and Lisbon draw millions of visitors from around the world because of their exquisite architecture walkable neighborhoods and human scale Yet a great deal of the knowledge and practice behind successful city planning has been abandoned over the last hundred years not because of traffic population growth or other practical hurdles but because of ill considered theories emerging from Modernism and reactions to it The errors of urban design over the last century are too great not to question The solutions being offered today sustainability walkability smart and green technologies hint at what has been lost and what may be regained but they remain piecemeal and superficial In The Art of Classic Planning architect and planner Nir Haim Buras documents and extends the time tested and holistic practices that held sway before the reign of Modernism With hundreds of full color illustrations and photographs that will captivate architects planners administrators and developers The Art of Classic Planning restores and revitalizes the foundations of urban planning Inspired by venerable cities like Kyoto Vienna and Venice and by the great successes of L Enfant s Washington Haussmann s Paris and Burnham s Chicago Buras combines theory and a host of examples to arrive at clear guidelines for best practices in classic planning for today s world The Art of Classic Planning celebrates the enduring principles of urban design and invites us to return to building beautiful cities Yearbook of International

Copyright Law Lasantha Ariyaratna, 2022-09-05 This book examines the challenges posed to Australian copyright law by streaming from the end user perspective It compares the Australian position with the European Union and United States to draw lessons from them regarding how they have dealt with streaming and copyright By critically examining the technological functionality of streaming and the failure of copyright enforcement against the masses it argues for strengthening end user rights The rising popularity of streaming has resulted in a revolutionary change to how digital content such as sound recordings cinematographic films and radio and television broadcasts is used on the internet Superseding the conventional method of downloading using streaming to access digital content has challenged copyright law because it is not clear whether end user acts of streaming constitute copyright infringement These prevailing grey areas between copyright and streaming often make end users feel doubtful about accessing digital content through streaming It is uncertain whether exercising the right of reproduction is appropriately suited for streaming given the ambiguities of embodiment and scope of substantial part Conversely the fair dealing defence in Australia cannot be used aptly to defend end users acts of streaming digital content because end users who use streaming to access digital content can rarely rely on the defence of fair dealing for the purposes of criticism or review news reporting parody or satire or research or study When considering a temporary copy exception end users are at risk of being held liable for infringement when using streaming to access a website that contains infringing digital content even if they lack any knowledge about the content s infringing nature Moreover the grey areas in circumventing geo blocking have made end users hesitant to access websites through streaming because it is not clear whether technological protection measures apply to geo blocking End users have a severe lack of knowledge about whether they can use circumvention methods such as virtual private networks to access streaming websites without being held liable for copyright infringement Despite the intricacies between copyright and access to digital content the recently implemented website blocking laws have emboldened copyright owners while suppressing end users access to digital content This is because the principles of proportionality and public interest have been given less attention when determining website blocking injunctions

The Geography of Gandhāran Art Wannaporn Rienjang, Peter Stewart, 2019-03-15 Gandhāran art is usually regarded as a single phenomenon a unified regional artistic tradition or school Indeed it has distinctive visual characteristics materials and functions and is characterized by its extensive borrowings from the Graeco Roman world Yet this tradition is also highly varied Even the superficial homogeneity of Gandhāran sculpture which constitutes the bulk of documented artistic material from this region in the early centuries AD belies a considerable range of styles technical approaches iconographic choices and levels of artistic skill The geographical variations in Gandhāran art have received less attention than they deserve Many surviving Gandhāran artefacts are unprovenanced and the difficulty of tracing substantial assemblages of sculpture to particular sites has obscured the fine grained picture of its artistic geography Well documented modern excavations at particular sites and areas such as the projects of the Italian Archaeological Mission in the Swat Valley have demonstrated the value of looking at sculptures in context and considering distinctive aspects of their production use and reuse within a specific locality However insights of this kind have been harder to gain for other areas including the Gandhāran heartland of the Peshawar basin Even where large collections of artworks can be related to individual sites the exercise of comparing material within and between these places is still at an early stage The relationship between the Gandhāran artists or workshops particular stone sources and specific sites is still unclear

Addressing these and other questions this second volume of the Gandhara Connections project at Oxford University's Classical Art Research Centre presents the proceedings of a workshop held in March 2018 Its aim is to pick apart the regional geography of Gandhāran art presenting new discoveries at particular sites textual evidence and the challenges and opportunities of exploring Gandhāran's artistic geography

The Harlem Renaissance and Transatlantic Modernism Denise Murrell, 2024-02-25 Beginning in the 1920s Upper Manhattan became the center of an explosion of art writing and ideas that has since become legendary But what we now know as the Harlem Renaissance the first movement of international modern art led by African Americans extended far beyond New York City This volume reexamines the Harlem Renaissance as part of a global flowering of Black creativity with roots in the New Negro theories and aesthetics of Alain Locke its founding philosopher as well as the writings of W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston Featuring artists such as Aaron Douglas Charles Henry Alston Augusta Savage and William H Johnson who synthesized the expressive figuration of the European avant garde with the aesthetics of African sculpture and folk art to render all aspects of African American city life this publication also includes works by lesser known contributors including Laura Wheeler Waring and Samuel Joseph Brown Jr who took a more classical approach to depicting Black subjects with dignity interiority and gravitas The works of New Negro artists active abroad are also examined in juxtaposition with those of their European and international African diasporan peers from Germaine Casse and Ronald Moody to Henri Matisse Edvard Munch and Pablo Picasso This reframing of a celebrated cultural phenomenon shows how the flow of ideas through Black artistic communities on both sides of the Atlantic contributed to international conversations around art race and identity while helping to define our notion of modernism
