

1. What is the definition of a depression?
2. What is the purpose of the letter?
3. Why were so many people so poor?
4. Why was the letter found in the Roosevelt Library?

Which of the above questions is answered in the INTRODUCTORY paragraph of the selection?

- A. Question 1
- B. Question 2
- C. Question 3
- D. Question 4

Teacher notes: Point out to the students that the actual question is asking the writer of questions a lot of students get confused on these questions. The other thing to focus on is pointing out the introductory paragraph and telling them the question must be answered there in for the correct response. Go back and forth from the question to the introductory paragraph with them, rereading each one out.

3. What is the author's purpose in writing the letter?
 - A. To describe the conditions of the schools in December
 - B. To estimate the first lady
 - C. To explain what a moral supervisor is
 - D. To persuade Mrs. Roosevelt to send clothing for the children

Teacher notes: Before having anyone answer this question, I first ask, "What are the 4 author's purposes, do they list them, I subtract the purpose from each answer choice. Then begin eliminating them one at a time by asking them what the purpose of any letter would be. How can she make a connection to F? and the reader idea. Point out that they are actually the same.

4. Complete the following analogy with the correct word:

_____ : money :: sugar : candy

- A. Paper
- B. Job
- C. Psychology
- D. Genetics

Teacher notes: The analogy on the test is pretty tricky. I'm trying to get them to come up with the bridge sentence: sugar is used to make candy, therefore paper is used to make money. Make sure they understand this is just a part to relate analogies. If they think it is, they will pick B as the best. Show them how the only other possible answer might be job, but a job is not used to make money, it is how you make money. Hopefully, this way they will see on the test that what thing does, it is not used making it.
