This core textbook provides students with comprehensive coverage of African American psychology as a field. Each chapter integrates African and American influences on the psychology of African Americans thereby illustrating how contemporary values, beliefs, and behaviors are derived from African culture translated by the cultural socialization experiences of African Americans in this country. The literature and research are referenced and discussed from the perspective of African culture, mostly West African, during the period of enslavement and at other critical periods in this country, e.g., early 20th century civil rights era and through the present. Chapters provide a review of the research literature with a focus on applications for contemporary living.

Transforming World Language Teaching and Teacher Education for Equity and Justice Beth Wassell, Cassandra Glynn, 2022-04-29 This edited book expands the current scholarship on teaching world languages for social justice and equity in K-12 and postsecondary contexts in the US. Over the past decade, demand has been growing for a more critical approach to teaching languages and cultures in response. This volume brings together a group of scholars whose work bridges the fields of world language education and critical approaches to education. Within the current US context, the chapters address the following key questions: 1. How are pre-service or in-service world language teachers/professors embedding issues/understandings or content related to social justice, human rights, access, critical pedagogy, and equity into their teaching and curriculum? 2. How are teacher educators preparing language teachers to teach for social justice, human rights, access, and equity?

School violence and bullying UNESCO, 2017-01-16 This report has been prepared by UNESCO and the Institute of School Violence and Prevention at Ewha Womans University for the International Symposium on School Violence and Bullying: From Evidence to Action, Seoul, Republic of Korea, 17-19 January 2017. It aims to provide an overview of the most up-to-date available data on the nature, extent, and impact of school violence and bullying and initiatives to address the problem. The symposium is one of a series of international meetings UNESCO has organised to address school violence and bullying, and it is intended to promote evidence-based action by educators, policy makers, professionals, and practitioners in the education, health, and other sectors. Consequently, this report aims to provide education sector stakeholders with a framework for planning and implementing effective programmes to prevent and respond to school violence and bullying as part of wider efforts to address violence against children.

Between Self and Community Junehui Ahn, 2023-07-14 Between Self and Community investigates the early childhood socialization process in a rapidly changing, globalizing South Korea. Based on long-term ethnographic fieldwork in a South Korean preschool, it shows how both children and teachers interactively navigate, construct, and reconstruct their own multifaceted and sometimes conflicting models of what makes a good child amid Korea's shifting educational and social contexts. Junehui Ahn details the conflicting and competing ways in which the ideologies of new personhood are enacted in actual everyday socialization contexts and reveals the confusions dilemmas and ruptures that occur when globally dominant ideals of childhood development are superimposed onto local experiences Between Self and Community pays special attention to the way children as active agents of socialization create construe and sustain their own meanings of their personhood thereby highlighting the dynamism children and their culturally rich peer world create in South Korea s shifting socialization terrain JSL Vol 23-N1 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,2013-09-24 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Handbook of Youth Mentoring David L.
