The New Rulers Of The World By John Pilger:

The New Rulers of the World John Pilger, 2016-03-22 John Pilger is one of the world's renowned investigative journalists and documentary filmmakers. In this classic book with an updated introduction, he reveals the secrets and illusions of modern imperialism. Beginning with Indonesia, he shows how General Suharto's bloody seizure of power in the 1960s was part of a western design to impose a global economy on Asia. A million Indonesians died as the price for being the World Bank's model pupil. In a shocking chapter on Iraq, he delineates the true nature of the West's war against the people of that country. And he dissects piece by piece the propaganda of the war on terror to expose its Orwellian truth. Finally, he looks behind the picture postcard image of his homeland Australia to illuminate an enduring legacy of imperialism: the subjugation of the First Australians.

The New Rulers of the World John Pilger, 2003-04-17 Pilger tackles the injustices and double standards inherent in the politics of globalization and exposes the terrible truth behind the power and wealth of states and corporations.

The Cinema of Globalization Tom Zaniello, 2018-07-05 Tom Zaniello's fascinating new guide to films about globalization: its origins, its relationship with colonialism, neocolonialism, the growth of migratory labor and movements to counter or protest its adverse effects, offers readers and viewers the opportunity to both discover new films and see well-known works in a new way. From Afro Digital to Zoolander, Zaniello discusses 201 films, including features such as The Constant Gardener, Dirty Pretty Things, and Syriana, documentaries and other nonfiction films such as Blue Vinyl, Darwin's Nightmare, and Wal-Mart: The High Cost of Low Price, online films and television productions. Zaniello casts a wide net to provide cinematic representations of globalization from all angles: films about global labor and labor unions affected by globalization; films about global capital and multinational corporations; films about the transnational organizations WB, IMF, WTO, most closely identified with globalization; and global capital; films about labor history and the daily life of working-class people as they relate to the development of globalization; films about the environment directly related to changes in labor or capital; and films about changes in both the workplace and the corporate office in the era of multinational corporations. Each entry in The Cinema of Globalization offers a summary of the main issues in the film and their relationship to globalization, sometimes a reference to the film's place in a director's work or tradition of cinema, and an often opinionated assessment of the film's strengths and weaknesses. Like the best film guides, this book is an addictive reading experience full of ideas for future viewing. At the same time, it serves as an inviting and accessible introduction to a difficult topic: the central themes and aspects of globalization. The Idea of the Avant Garde Marc James Léger, 2019-10-15 The concept of the avant-garde is highly contested: whether one consigns it to history or claims it for present-day or future use. The first volume of The Idea of the Avant Garde: And What It Means Today provided a lively forum on the kinds of radical art theory and partisan practices that are possible in today's world of global art markets and creative industry entrepreneurialism. This second volume presents the work of another 50 artists and writers exploring the diverse ways that avant gardism develops reflexive and experimental combinations of aesthetic and political praxis The manifest strategies temporalities and genealogies of avant garde art and politics are expressed through an international intergenerational and interdisciplinary convocation of ideas that covers the fields of film video architecture visual art art activism literature poetry theatre performance intermedia and music

The Long Hitch Home Jamie Maslin,2015-02-03 Tasmania to London 800 hitchhiking trips One year Intrepid traveler and author Jamie Maslin does it again as he undertakes one of the most grueling enlightening and hilarious journeys of his life How many rides does it take to hitch from Tasmania to London Intrepid traveler and rogue wanderer Jamie Maslin decides to find out The Long Hitch Home is a vibrant travelog of well researched social cultural and historical introductions to the score of countries Maslin passed through Whether writing about the exotic backstreets of cities few of us will get to see firsthand or the unique geographical wonders of far off countries Jamie Maslin gives a thrilling account of what it is like to hit the road and live with intensity and rapture

Welcome to the Desert of the Real Slavoj Žižek,2013-01-16 Liberals and conservatives proclaim the end of the American holiday from history Now the easy games are over one should take sides i ek argues this is precisely the temptation to be resisted In such moments of apparently clear choices the real alternatives are most hidden Welcome to the Desert of the Real steps back complicating the choices imposed on us It proposes that global capitalism is fundamentalist and that America was complicit in the rise of Muslim fundamentalism It points to our dreaming about the catastrophe in numerous disaster movies before it happened and explores the irony that the tragedy has been used to legitimize torture Last but not least it analyzes the fiasco of the predominant leftist response to the events

The War Conspiracy Peter Dale Scott,2013-09-01 Peter Dale Scott examines the many ways in which war policy has been driven by accidents and other events in the field in some cases despite moves toward peace that were directed by presidents This book explores the deep politics that exerts a profound but too little understood effect on national policy outside the control of traditional democratic processes An important analysis into the causes of war and the long lasting effects that major events in American history can have on foreign and military policies The War Conspiracy is a must read book for students of American history and foreign policy and anyone interested in the ways that domestic tragedies can be used to manipulate the country s direction First published in 1972 this edition of The War Conspiracy is fully updated for the twenty first century and includes two lengthy additional essays one on the transition in Vietnam policy in the wake of the Kennedy assassination and the other discussing the many parallels between that 1963 event and the attacks of 9 11

Blood on Our Hands Nicolas J. S. Davies,2010 America s crimes against the people of Iraq were shielded from public scrutiny by what senior U S military officers called the quiet disguised media free approach developed in Central America in the 1980s The echo chamber of the Western corporate media fleshed out the Pentagon's propaganda to create a virtual Iraq in the minds of the public feeding a political discourse that bore no relation to the real war it was waging the country it was destroying or the lives of its inhabitants Davies takes apart the wall of propaganda surrounding one of history's most significant military disasters and most serious international crimes non-existent WMDs the equally fictitious centuries-old sectarian blood feud in Iraq and the secrecy of the dirty war waged by American-led death squads He places each aspect of the war within a context of illegal aggression hostile military occupation and popular resistance to uncover the brutal reality of a war that has probably killed at least a million people From publisher description

Mapping Reality Willie Maartens, 2006-06 We must clearly distinguish between reality the territory and what we perceive to be reality the map of the territory In our journey through life we need something to guide us to give us reassurance that we are on the right track Modern science has done its best to take that reassurance away from us telling us that there is no destination no purpose in life and that in effect our lives are an accident of Nature Religion too has become equally unhelpful it has become dogmatic sectarian and self-serving We have lost the core the real message of religion but we still need true spirituality Indeed we need a map to the Truth The Century's Midnight Clive Bush, 2010 The Century's Midnight is an exploration of the literary and political relationships between a number of ideologically sophisticated American and European writers during a mid-twentieth century dominated by the Second World War Clive Bush offers an account of an intelligent and diverse community of people of good will transcending national ideological and cultural barriers Although structured around five central figures the novelist Victor Segale the editors Dwight Macdonald and Dorothy Norman the cultural critic Lewis Mumford and the poet Muriel Rukeyser the book examines a wealth of European and American writers including Hannah Arendt Simone de Beauvoir Walter Benjamin John Dos Passos Andr Gide Henry Miller Ana's Nin George Orwell Boris Pilniak Albert Camus Jean Paul Sartre Ignacio Silone and Richard Wright The book's central theme relates politics and literature to time and narrative The author argues that knowledge of the writers of this period is of inestimable value in attempting to understand our contemporary world 'Constructive Bloodbath' in Indonesia Nathaniel Mehr, 2009

Postcolonialism: A Very Short Introduction Robert J. C. Young, 2003-06-26 This innovative and lively book is quite unlike any other introduction to postcolonialism Robert Young examines the political social and cultural after-effects of decolonization by presenting situations experiences and testimony rather than going through the theory at an abstract level He situates the debate in a wide cultural context discussing its importance as an historical condition with examples such as the status of aboriginal people of those dispossessed from their land Algerian rai music postcolonial feminism and global social and ecological movements Above all Young argues postcolonialism offers a political philosophy of activism that contests the current situation of global inequality and so in a new way continues the anti-colonial struggles of the past

ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost

Manufacturing Terrorism T. J. Coles,2018-12-07 What if your own government deliberately creates terrorists What if their short term aims deposing regimes that no longer serve Western interests justifying invasions of sovereign nations and expanding the security state at home have long term consequences for us all What if most of the horrific bombings stabbings and vehicle attacks of recent years are connected indirectly and sometimes directly to British French and American intelligence These and other hard hitting questions are posed by T J Coles in this disturbing survey of secret political manoeuvrings and covert manipulation Welcome to the world of manufactured terrorism Backed by a wealth of documentation including court records parliamentary inquiries and little known but official publications the author exposes the role of the deep state in brutal acts of terror Exploring Operation Gladio Northern Irish terror and predominantly Islamic jihad he argues that intelligence agencies the military and governments employ six key methods to manufacture terrorism 1 Blowback attacking other countries and provoking violent responses 2 Proxies creating terrorists including al Qaeda and using them against enemies 3 Provocateurs provoking individuals from minorities into committing terrorist acts 4 Green lighting allowing terrorists to commit attacks in order to justify specific policies 5 False flags committing terrorism and blaming it on designated enemies 6 Simulations holding drills and exercises as covers for apparent terrorist acts Contrary to claims that terrorism is caused by people who simply hate our way of life and in contrast to the simplistic narrative of conspiracy websites and talk shows Coles argues that each case of terrorism needs to be evaluated separately Manufacturing Terrorism presents a complex picture that distinguishes between cases of blowback proxies false flags simulations etc It offers an indispensable briefing to help readers make sense of our chaotic and dangerous world Muslims in Australia Samina Yasmeen,2010 Other Voices, Other Worlds Terry Brown,2006

Leading Anglican writers from around the world challenge the assumption that the communion is split between a liberal north and an orthodox south Anglican churches worldwide are sharply divided on homosexuality The dominant stereotype is that of a global south unanimously lined up against homosexuality as immoral and sinful and of a liberal and decadent global north The differences between the two sides are seen as fundamental and irreconcilable Nothing is further from the truth homosexual behavior exists across the whole Anglican Communion whether it is openly celebrated or quietly integrated into local churches and cultures In this extraordinary book in development for several years this is exposed as a myth Christians throughout Africa Asia and the developing world bishops priests and religious academics and lay writers open up dramatic new perspectives on familiar arguments and debates Topics include biblical interpretation sexuality and doctrine local history sexuality and personhood the influence of other faiths issues of colonialism and post colonialism homophobia and the place of homosexual persons in the church Other Voices Other Worlds reveals the rich historical and cross cultural complexity to same sex relationships and injects dramatic new perspectives into a debate that has become stale and predictable Global Revolt Amory Starr,2013-07-04 Don t Owe Won t Pay Get Rid of them All No Patents on Life Food Sovereignty Another World is Possible The struggles against corporate power and the institutions of globalization grow more courageous and confident year by year Millions of people have already become active in rejecting corporate globalization and developing alternatives to it Millions more know that something is terribly wrong and are ready to begin taking action This book is for them Amory Starr is author of Naming the Enemy a book that foresaw the emergent anti globalization network nearly a decade ago Here she provides in concise and engaging style and with activist insight A history of the movements emergence An outline of their analyses and aims A digest of the ongoing controversies and dilemmas An inspiring compendium of popular tactics Eastern and Western Ideas for African Growth Kenichi Ohno,Izumi Ohno,2013-05-29 The West and the East approach economic development differently The Europeans and Americans stress free and fair business climate promoting private activities generally without picking winners and improving governance East Asia is interested in achieving concrete results and projects rather than formal correctness prioritizing a few sectors for industrialization and eventual graduation from aid The West mostly shapes shifting strategies of the international donor community while the East has in reality made remarkable progress in industrial catch up The two approaches cannot be merged easily but they can be used in proper combination to realize growth and economic transformation This book proposes more dialogue and complementarity between the two in the development effort of Africa and other regions In this collected volume contributed by experts and practitioners from both East and West the need to introduce Eastern ideas to the global development strategy is emphasized Analysis of British and other Western donor policies is given while Japanese Korean and other Asian approaches are also explained with concrete examples The concept of governance for growth is presented and the impact of rising China on development studies is contemplated The practices of industrial policy dialogues and actions assisted by East Asian experts are reported from Tunisia Zambia Ethiopia Rwanda and others The book should be applicable to all donors institutions NGOs and business enterprises engaged in development cooperation
