Learning to See Alan Gowans, 1981 Learning to See starts on the assumption that popular commercial arts are a different kind of activity from avant garde arts today but that they represent the same kind of activity that we identify as arts historically It proceeds then to investigate how popular commercial arts carry out the social functions of historic arts And it claims that once we can thereby understand how historic arts worked in and for society art history becomes a significant new tool for objective historical research as never before

Wild Surmise Rob Nilsson, 2013-11-15 This collection of thoughts feelings surmises rants and rhapsodies explores the world of art and cinema Nilsson has watched and experienced over the last 40 years To him post modern developments in the gallery and museum Arts are largely fatuous and have resulted in market oriented novelties which pretend to significance but depend on profit Following the lead of the original Duchampian art jokes FOUNTAIN or BICYCLE WHEEL funny only once in 1917 modern day cultural Sophists continue to promote Warhols sly suggestions that someday everything will be art by allowing it to happen Catharsis transcendence or anything involving depth of emotion complex human behavior or intellectual challenge is embarrassingly sincere to these fixers who correct the pretensions of Art in order to create the breathless freedoms of fashion His view of the so called American Independent film movement 1959 to the present is that it never was what it intended and pretended to be From an indigenous cinema created by early American pioneers inspired by Italian Neo Realism and the French New Wave 1950s 60s John Cassavetes SHADOWS FACES Lionel Rogosin ON THE BOWERY Morris Engel THE LITTLE FUGITIVE Shirley Clarke THE COOL WORLD and later Robert Young and Michael Roemer NOTHING BUT A MAN and Cine Manifest filmmakers Nilsson and John Hanson NORTHERN LIGHTS an Indiewood variant ended up backing the film careers of directors such as Spike Lee John Waters and Quentin Tarantino who were really on the road to Hollywood all along

Popular Modernisms Bruce A. Barber, 2024-07-26 Popular Modernisms examines a process that has occurred throughout the history of art one that accelerated with the social effects of the industrial revolution the development of capitalism and the inception of modern social relations It argues that the shocks of modernist art encouraged the production of visual satires parodies ironies and pastiches and that in the company of other forms of text or performance based criticism these were the means by which those in marginal or subordinate social positions could exercise their displeasure and opposition to the ruling ideas and dominant classes of the day Expressing feelings ranging from mild discomfort to pure rage this criticism enabled social subordinates to contest or resist the dominance of high culture over low in terms eloquently described by Antonio Gramsci as the hegemony of the dominant centre culture over its margins The focus upon graphic satires cartoons and comics of modern art attempts to provide some practical explication of the symbolic contest of power as this process represents the struggle to achieve and maintain cultural hegemony A further aim in this book is to investigate the symbolic contestation of cultural meanings in social terms and thereby enrich our understanding of classed society There are I believe many social and political confluences that intersect within the symbolic construction and interpretation of culture This contest of power can be read as ideological conflict between various dominant and subordinate groups classes and class

Cybernetics of Art M. J. Rosenberg, 2024-07-31 First published in 1983 Cybernetics of Art uses the methodology and concepts of cybernetics to explore art and the creative process Part I surveys the domain that includes both science and the arts attempting to understand their differing viewpoints and the basis of conflicts between them Art is approached as a method of knowledge aimed at knowledge of experience per se as distinct from knowledge derived through experience Part II poses the problem of notionally constructing an authorship machine and develops the technical argument by exploring the question of the kind of machine it would need to be Part III examines the products of such a machine with a view to finding criteria for distinguishing those that might be called art An extended non technical commentary accompanies the text throughout with the dual aim of comparing the book's technical conclusions with ideas expressed by critiques and practicing artists and assisting readers unfamiliar with the information sciences in following the argument In a world dominated by artificial intelligence this interdisciplinary book will be useful for scholars and researchers of cybernetics art and humanities and social sciences in general DHHS Publication No. (PHS). ,1990 New York Magazine ,1981-11-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
