The Names Don DeLillo, 1987 In an expatriate s world of turmoil and danger American risk analyst James Axton learns of a ritual murder cult in the Aegean and follows the trail to its secret meanings in the ancient city of Lahore     Don DeLillo
David Cowart, 2012-08-15 Don DeLillo author of twelve novels and winner of the National Book Award the PEN Faulkner Award the William Dean Howells Medal and the Jerusalem Prize has begun to rival Thomas Pynchon as the definitive postmodern novelist Always thought provoking and occasionally controversial DeLillo has become the voice of the bimillennial moment Charting DeLillo s emergence as a contemporary novelist of major stature David Cowart discusses each of DeLillo s twelve novels including his most recent work The Body Artist 2001 Rejecting the idea that DeLillo lacks affinities across the cultural spectrum Cowart argues that DeLillo s work invites comparison with that of wide range of antecedents including Dunbar Whitman Wittgenstein Heidegger Freud Lacan Derrida Hemingway Joyce Rilke and Eliot At the same time Cowart explores the ways in which DeLillo s art anticipates parallels and contests ideas that have become the common currency of poststructuralist theory The major site of DeLillo s engagement with postmodernism Cowart argues is language which DeLillo represents as more mysterious numinous even than current theory allows For DeLillo language remains what Cowart calls the ground of all making Don DeLillo The Physics of Language is a provocative investigation of the most compelling issues of contemporary fiction     The Cambridge Companion to Don DeLillo John N. Duvall, 2008-05-29 With the publication of his seminal novel White Noise Don DeLillo was elevated into the pantheon of great American writers His novels are admired and studied for their narrative technique political themes and their prophetic commentary on the cultural crises affecting contemporary America In an age dominated by the image DeLillo s fiction encourages the reader to think historically about such matters as the Cold War the assassination of President Kennedy threats to the environment and terrorism This Companion charts the shape of DeLillo s career his relation to twentieth century aesthetics and his major themes It also provides in depth assessments of his best known novels White Noise Libra and Underworld which have become required reading not only for students of American literature but for all interested in the history and the future of American culture

Weinstein, 1993 In this broad based study of American fiction canonical and otherwise Arnold Weinstein examines closely the strong ties between language history and culture with a particular focus on freedom of the self     Postmodern Belief Amy Hungerford, 2010-07-01 How can intense religious beliefs coexist with pluralism in America today Examining the role of the religious imagination in contemporary religious practice and in some of the best known works of American literature from the past fifty years Postmodern Belief shows how belief for its own sake a belief absent of doctrine has become an answer to pluralism in a secular age Amy Hungerford reveals how imaginative literature and religious practices together allow novelists poets and critics to express the formal elements of language in transcendent terms conferring upon words a religious value independent of meaning Hungerford explores the work of major

American writers including Allen Ginsberg Don DeLillo Cormac McCarthy Toni Morrison and Marilynne Robinson and links their unique visions to the religious worlds they touch She illustrates how Ginsberg s chant infused 1960s poetry echoes the tongue speaking of Charismatic Christians how DeLillo reimagines the novel and the Latin Mass why McCarthy s prose imitates the Bible and why Morrison s fiction needs the supernatural Uncovering how literature and religion conceive of a world where religious belief can escape confrontations with other worldviews Hungerford corrects recent efforts to discard the importance of belief in understanding religious life and argues that belief in belief itself can transform secular reading and writing into a religious act Honoring the ways in which people talk about and practice religion Postmodern Belief highlights the claims of the religious imagination in twentieth century American culture

Don DeLillo, American Original Michael Naas,2020-06-25 Don DeLillo American Original is a startlingly original and provocative reinterpretation of one of the most important novelists of the 20th and 21st centuries Adopting a direct approach that steers clear of debates with secondary literature and covering the full arc of Don DeLillo s career from A to Z Americana 1971 to Zero K 2016 Michael Naas shows that the extraordinary power authority insight and inventiveness of DeLillo s fiction are the result of the way it traffics everywhere in contraband goods and narratives in doubleness or duplicity of every kind in multiple voices story lines times places and media that at once interrupt and complement one another This is a book that invites skimming and dipping structured into easily digestible sections on everything from weapons and drugs to erotica nuclear waste and secret societies each preceded by humorous and incisive epigraphs from DeLillo s novels Michael Naas reads DeLillo s fiction as a way of life or as equipment for living rather than as a critical puzzle to be solved and thereby opens up new horizons for thinking about why literature matters in the 21st century

Interactions Between Iranian and American Literatures

Naghmeh Esmaeilpour,2024-05-14 Introducing narrative mobility as a new approach in comparative studies of Iran and the US this book reinterprets the politics and aesthetics of relations between the nations through an analysis of Iranian and American authors The book focuses specifically on three authors Simin Daneshvar Shahriar Mandanipour and Don DeLillo who each employ narrative mobility to rethink intercultural negotiation addressing parallel issues in America and Iran from different but complementary perspectives The book analyzes the employment of parallel narrational techniques presenting physically and virtually mobile characters who embody their respective countries as they move from one culture to another The strange affinity between Iran and the US is ultimately revealed by viewing literary works as a contact zone through which the complicated relations and shared history of the two nations can be renegotiated On a more theoretical level the book reflects on the role of literature in particular the novel as a transnational medium as a bridge between nations in a period of globalization With its focus on cross cultural connections the book will be of interest to anyone studying or researching comparative literature US Iran relations and cultural studies generally     The Visionary Moment Paul Maltby,2012-02-01 In The Visionary Moment Paul Maltby draws on postmodern theory to examine the metaphysics and ideology of the visionary moment or epiphany in twentieth century American fiction Engaging critically with the works of Don DeLillo Jack Kerouac Saul Bellow Flannery O Connor Alice Walker and William Faulkner Maltby explains how the literary convention of the visionary moment promotes the myth that there is a superior level of knowledge that can redeem or regenerate the individual He contends that this common sense assumption is a paradigm that needs to be confronted and critiqued     Writing Our Extinction Patrick Whitmarsh,2023-04-11 Mid twentieth century developments in science and technology produced new understandings and images of the planet that circulated the globe giving rise to a modern ecological consciousness but they also contributed to accelerating crises in the global environment including climate change pollution and waste In this new work Patrick Whitmarsh analyzes postwar narrative fictions that describe depict or express the earth from above the aerial and below the subterranean revealing the ways that literature has engaged this history of vertical science and linked it to increasing environmental precarity up to and including the extinction of humankind

Whitmarsh examines works by writers such as Don DeLillo Karen Tei Yamashita Reza Negarestani and Colson Whitehead alongside postwar scientific programs including the Space Race atmospheric and underground nuclear testing and geological expeditions such as Project Mohole which attempted to drill to the earth's mantle As Whitmarsh argues by focusing readers attention on the fragility of postwar life through a vertical lens Anthropocene fiction highlights the interconnections between human behavior and planetary change These fictions situate industrial history within the much longer narrative of geological time and reframe scientific progress as a story through which humankind writes itself out of existence     The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Capital, Class & Technology in Contemporary American Culture Nick Heffernan,2000-12-20 In the tradition of Mike Davis and Fredric Jameson Nick Heffernan engages in a series of meditations on capital class and technology in contemporary America He turns to the stories we generate and tell ourselves via fiction film journalism theory to see how change is registered By investigating a variety of texts he observes how structural change affects the way people organise their lives economically socially and culturally Case studies include Ridley Scott s Blade Runner William Gibson s cyberspace trilogy Thomas Pynchon s The Crying of Lot 49 and Wim Wenders s Until the End of the World Using the links between narrative cultural forms and the process of historical understanding he brings together debates that have so far been conducted largely within the separate domains of political economy social theory and cultural criticism to provide a compelling analysis of contemporary cultural change By relocating postmodernism in the context of changing modes of capitalism Heffernan puts the question of class and class agency back at the centre of the critical agenda
