The Writing Report Card, 1984-88 Arthur N. Applebee, 1990 Based on two national assessments of the writing proficiency of representative samples of students in grades 4 8 and 11 conducted during the school years ending in 1984 and 1988 this report assesses the informative persuasive and imaginative writing performance of the nation s students and tracks changes in performance over time The first three chapters of the report describe student performance on the informative persuasive and imaginative writing tasks included in the writing trend assessments based on the results of the primary trait and holistic analyses The fourth chapter summarizes trends in average task accomplishment for the nation and various demographic subpopulations In the fifth chapter trends in students grammar punctuation and spelling are discussed The sixth chapter discusses factors that appear to be related to writing performance such as students instructional experiences and home environment The report concludes that despite some progress on some tasks students writing performance across tasks remains low and has changed little across time The report also finds that the extent to which students at all grade levels value writing use it in their own lives and engage in writing process activities remains quite limited A procedural appendix and an appendix of data are attached RS The Principal's Companion Pam Robbins, Harvey B. Alvy, 2009-03-18 In the heroic effort to improve our nation s schools this newly revised volume is a gift to the profession and to the professionals Roland S Barth Former Public School Teacher and Principal Founding Director Harvard Principals Center The Principal s Companion is rightfully regarded as the bible of resource books for current and aspiring principals No other single source provides such a thorough treatment of the multiple roles and dimensions involved in effective school leadership Jay McTighe Author and Educational Consultant A guide on the side to help you excel in all areas of the principalship This third edition of a bestseller serves as a personal mentor for principals providing the practical resources and tools to help inservice and aspiring administrators manage the challenges of leading a learning organization and facilitating school improvement Educational leadership consultant Pam Robbins and experienced principal Harvey B Alvy guide school leaders on such critical areas as leadership skills developing vision and a mission teacher evaluation and supervision curriculum technology use and conducting faculty meetings This revised and updated guide reflects recent changes in a wide range of educational issues including data driven decision making and high stakes accountability instructional implications of brain research federal legislation cyberbullying and social responsibility This book provides Research based strategies for succeeding with issues deemed critical to the principalship by practicing principals An interactive format with reflective questions at the end
