A New Government for the People

Governing the People

GRADE 5

The American people were tired of the old government. They wanted a new government that would be for the people and by the people. This was the goal of the new government.

Over time, the new government had many successes. It was a government that was for the people and by the people. It was a government that was different from the old government.

Americans were afraid of government. They were afraid of the power of the government. They were afraid of the people who were in charge of the government. This was especially true when they remembered the old government.

Anti-Blackness at School Joi A. Spencer, Kerri Ullucci, Tyrone C. Howard, 2022 While schools often are framed as places of neutrality and fairness many American schools have harmed Black children or been silent in the face of their struggles under education and mistreatment While there are undoubtedly adults in these spaces who support Black children many others ignore Black families minimize students concerns and believe that colorblindness will solve the problem of inequity in education Embedded in everyday realities the authors outline the many ways anti Blackness shows up in schools Drawing on more than 44 years of equity work they provide concrete doable and meaningful ways in which teachers and administrators can create Black affirming spaces Written for pre and in service teachers and others working with Black children and youth Anti Blackness at School explores both the scope of anti Blackness and how teachers can reject racism Book Features Provides interracial perspectives from authors Joi Spencer a Black woman from California and Kerri Ullucci a White woman from Rhode Island Uses case studies activities lessons and techniques to talk about anti Blackness inventory its presence and take steps to address the harm caused by it Calls out how school policies programs belief systems and customs are particularly hostile to Black youth Explains why diversity work is not synonymous with antiracist work offering a model focused on justice and equity Directs practitioners to easily accessible resources that will allow them to challenge racism and uplift Black youth in their care A Land Remembered Goes To School Patrick D Smith, 2015-10-17 An elementary school teacher s manual for using A Land Remembered to teach language arts social studies and science coordinated with the Sunshine State Standards of the Florida Department of Education In this best selling novel Patrick Smith tells the story of three generations of the MacIveys a Florida family who battle the hardships of the frontier to rise from a dirt poor Cracker life to the wealth and standing of real estate tycoons The story opens in 1858 when Tobias MacIvey arrives in the Florida wilderness to start a new life with his wife and infant son and ends two generations later in 1968 with Solomon MacIvey who realizes that the land has been exploited far beyond human need The sweeping story that emerges is a rich rugged Florida history featuring a memorable cast of crusty indomitable Crackers battling wild animals rustlers Confederate deserters mosquitoes starvation hurricanes and freezes to carve a kingdom out of the swamp But their most formidable adversary turns out to be greed including finally their own Love and tenderness are here too the hopes and passions of each new generation friendships with the persecuted blacks and Indians and respect for the land and its wildlife Patrick Smith s novel is now available for young readers Middle School teacher s manual See all of the books in this series Practical English, a Scholastic Magazine, 1960 Keep Tab on the Lab, 1960 Having Fun with Maps and Globes Abraham Resnick, 2000-05-26 The primary purpose of his handbook is to provide educators with a variety of proven activities to make learning map and globe skills both enjoyable and meaningful for your students The activities which include cross curriculum can be used with multiple grade levels small groups or individually Having Fun with Maps and globes is organized into six parts Part One introduces you to the basic goals of a Map and Globe Skills Program and concludes with some general Tips for Teachers Part Two provides activities for teaching the basic concepts of maps and globes Because the ability to read and make maps involves many individual skills the activities in this section are organized into several categories or subsets of skills For each subset several fully developed activities are presented along with a grab bag of additional activities that can be used in a stand alone map and globe unit or to reinforce general map skills Because map and globe skills support other curriculum areas besides social studies Part Three provides activities organized by subject area This allows you to locate the subject you are teaching and access several related map and globe skill activities Such cross curriculum tasks will reinforce art math reading science language and thinking skills For easy access all student activity sheets called Supplements in this manual are located in Part Four of the handbook Part Five lists currently available resources for teachers and students Beyond the standard lists of print materials the author has provided sources for multimedia kits and computer software that will enrich anyone s program An appendix which includes map masters a glossary of terms and comparison charts concludes the handbook Although these materials are mentioned in various activities throughout the book here they are more accessible as a reference and as a source from which to draw in developing your own lessons or an entire school program Because of the wide range of resources Having Fun with Maps and Globes provides this handbook is a wonderful companion to the supplementary materials you presently use in your school curriculum
