Dominance and Decline Susan Booysen, 2015-10-01 As Jacob Zuma moves into the twilight years of his presidencies of both the African National Congress ANC and of South Africa this book takes stock of the Zuma led administration and its impact on the ANC Dominance and Decline The ANC in the Time of Zuma combines hard hitting arguments with astute analysis Susan Booysen shows how the ANC has become centred on the personage of Zuma and that its defence of his extremely flawed leadership undermines the party s capacity to govern competently and to protect its long term future Following on from her first book The African National Congress and the Regeneration of Power 2011 Booysen delves deeper into the four faces of power that characterise the ANC Her principal argument is that the state is failing as the president s interests increasingly supersede those of party and state Organisationally the ANC has become a hegemon riven by factions as the internal blocs battle for core positions of power and control Meanwhile the Zuma controlled ANC has witnessed the implosion of the tripartite alliance and decimation of its youth women s and veterans leagues Electorally the leading party has been ceding ground to increasingly assertive opposition parties And on the policy front it is faltering through poor implementation and a regurgitation of old ideas As Zuma s replacements start competing and succession politics take shape Booysen considers whether the ANC will recover from the damage wrought under Zuma s reign and attain its former glory Ultimately she believes that while the damage is irrevocable the electorate may still reward the ANC for transcending the Zuma years This is a must have reference book on the development of the modern ANC With rigour and incisiveness Booysen offers scholars and researchers a coherent framework for considering future patterns in the ANC and its hold on political power Problematizing the Foreign

Shop Gastrow, Vanya, 2018-08-03 Small businesses owned by international migrants and refugees are often the target of xenophobic hostility and attack in South Africa This report examines the problematization of migrant owned businesses in South Africa and the regulatory efforts aimed at curtailing their economic activities In so doing it sheds light on the complex ways in which xenophobic fears are generated and manifested in the country s social legal and political orders Efforts to curb migrant spaza shops in South Africa have included informal trade agreements at local levels fining migrant shops and legislation that prohibits asylum seekers from operating businesses in the country Several of these interventions have overlooked the content of local by laws and outdated legal frameworks The report concludes that when South African township residents attack migrant spaza shops they are expressing their dissatisfaction with their socio economic conditions to an apprehensive state and political leadership In response governance actors turn on migrant shops to demonstrate their allegiance to these residents to appease South African spaza shopkeepers and to tacitly blame socio economic malaise on perceived foreign forces Overall these actors do not have spaza shops primarily in mind when calling for the stricter regulation of these businesses Instead they are concerned about the volatile support of their key political constituencies and how this backing can be undermined or generated by the symbolic gesture of regulating the foreign shop Hyenas of the

Limpopo Xolani Tshabalala, 2017-11-03 An increasing number of people today cross the Beitbridge border of South Africa and Zimbabwe This comes with a corresponding growth of creative strategies that seek to aid the crossing of those people and goods that may lack the necessary documentation Such informal border crossings have come to define one of the important economic regions in Southern Africa the post 1994 Limpopo Valley This thesis approaches routine acts of facilitating undocumented border crossings as an everyday social politics with deep historical roots By use of archival and ethnographic methods the thesis examines the social history and embodied practices of a variety of actors who engage in undocumented border crossings A particular focus is placed on the role of private transporters omalayitsha who represent an important link between an exclusionary and yet fragmentary migration regime and undocumented travellers In three theoretical and four empirical chapters and inspired by border studies as well as the critical realist approach in migration studies the thesis connects border practice to irregular movement and cheap labour within a regional context defined in part by dispossession Through thick interpretations of the lived experience of border practice the study also connects such political economic processes e g migrant irregularity labour precarity and economic informality to questions of social identity and migrant subjectivities By situating the figure of the hyena at the centre of Southern African border struggles the thesis invents an analytical concept that serves both an empirical and a theoretical task Empirically it enables a synthetic understanding of how everyday contestations around the possibility to work across the border for low skill migrants have been interacting through time with broader processes of capital accumulation to partly shape the region s migrant labour system Theoretically it shows how facilitation of undocumented border crossings calls for new sociological models that can account for processes that escape binary classification as formal or informal inclusive or exclusive legal or illegal ordered or disordered thus contributing to a better understanding of the role of migration in the contemporary world Allt fler människor korsar idag gränsen vid Beitbridge mellan Sydafrika och Zimbabwe Samtidigt sker en motsvarande ökning av kreativa strategier som gör att även personer och varor som saknar rätt handlingar kan ta sig över gränsen Dessa informella gränsövergångar har kommit att definiera vad som efter 1994 blivit en av de viktigaste ekonomiska regionerna i södra Afrika Limpopodalen I denna avhandling betraktas rutinerna vid södra oregistrerade gränsövergångar som en vardagens politik med djupa historiska rötter Genom arkivstudier och etnografiska observationer undersöker avhandlingen en samhällshistoria och en månsklig aktivitet där en rad aktörer i inblandade i en pågående papperslös migration En viktig roll i sammanhanget har omalayitsha dvs privata transportörer som ofta är en viktig länk mellan de papperslösa resenärerna och den migrationsregim som ena sidan stänger dem ute och andra sidan är så fragmenterad att de till slut passera igenom I tre teoretiska och fyra empiriska kapitel samt med ett angreppssätt hämtat från gränsstudier border studies och den kritiskt realistiska skolan inom migrationsstudier syftar avhandlingen till att först gränsövergångens praktik i förhållande till den irreguljära mobilitet och det verskott på billig arbetskraft som skapar sin egen region där många är fattiga och fördrivna I avhandlingens djuptolkningar av migranternas levda erfarenhet vid gränsen förbinds i sin tur de politiskt ekonomiska processerna irreguljär migration prekära arbetsvillkor och ekonomisk informalitet med frågor om samhällsrelig identitet och migrantens subjektivitet Avhandlingen ser hyenafiguren som central för förstelsen av de gränskamper border struggles som utspelas i södra Afrika med hyenan introduceras också ett analytiskt begrepp Empiriskt sett måjligen begreppet en syntetisk förstelse av hur vardagliga tvister och problem som präglar arbetsmigrantens försök att jobba på andra sidan gränsen verkar samverka med större processer av kapitalackumulation som delvis formar regionens migrantarbetsystem I teoretiskt avseende visar begreppet hur förhandlingarna som sker vid gränskontrollen klargör behovet av nya sociologiska modeller som kan redogöra för samh
