Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development

Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Institute of Medicine, Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice, Committee on the Recommended Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures for Electronic Health Records, 2015-01-08 Determinants of health like physical activity levels and living conditions have traditionally been the concern of public health and have not been linked closely to clinical practice However if standardized social and behavioral data can be incorporated into patient electronic health records EHRs those data can provide crucial information about factors that influence health and the effectiveness of treatment Such information is useful for diagnosis treatment choices policy health care system design and innovations to improve health outcomes and reduce health care costs Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Phase 2 identifies domains and measures that capture the social determinants of health to inform the development of recommendations for the meaningful use of EHRs This report is the second part of a two part study The Phase 1 report identified 17 domains for inclusion in EHRs This report pinpoints 12 measures related to 11 of the initial domains and considers the implications of incorporating them into all EHRs This book includes three chapters from the Phase 1 report in addition to the new Phase 2 material Standardized use of EHRs that include social and behavioral domains could provide better patient care improve population health and enable more informative research The recommendations of Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Phase 2 will provide valuable information on which to base problem identification clinical diagnoses patient treatment outcomes assessment and population health measurement 7th International Conference on Tourism Research Prof Rishi Balkaran, Dr Chris Hattingh, 2024-03-18 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 7th International Conference on Tourism Research ICTR 2024 hosted by the Centre for Tourism Research in Africa at the Cape Town Hotel School Cape Peninsula University of Technology South Africa on 18 19 March 2024 The Conference Chair is Prof Rishi Balkaran and the Programme Chair is Dr Chris Hattingh both from Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT South Africa ICTR is a well established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 7th year the key aim remains the opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet the people who hold them The scope of papers will ensure an interesting two days The subjects covered illustrate the wide range of topics that fall into this important and ever growing area of research Today more than ever there is a need for research and scientific guidance as the tourist sector struggles to cope with the consequences of the Covid 19 pandemic inflation socio political turbulences climate change and disaster risk

An Integrated Positive Psychology Approach Into Counseling in Different Settings Christos Pezirkianidis, Anastassios Stalikas, Panagiotis Parpottas, 2023-06-01 Education for Sustainable Development Brian Chalkley, Martin Haigh, David Higgitt, 2013-09-13 In 2005 The United Nations launched its Decade of Education for Sustainable Development which recognises that education including Higher Education is the key to the change in social attitudes that will be needed to protect the welfare of future generations This involves helping learners to live as though the future matters and to achieve ecoliteracy This includes the understanding that personal lifestyle decisions may have consequences ranging from climate change through loss of biodiversity to pollution and resource depletion that may permit environmental degradation on a planetary scale It also involves helping them to develop the skills needed to cope with such challenges This international collection of research papers and position statements from special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education and Applied Environmental Education and Communication written by many of the leading practitioners in the field aims to provide resources and practical guidance for all seeking to promote and engage in education for a sustainable future Rabindranath Tagore encouraged each learner to make their actions demonstrate a harmonious union between education and environment David Orr argued that the world needs people who live well in their places to make the world both habitable and humane and that the main challenge for education is to help learners make their minds fit for life on Earth This book tries to chart a practical route towards these objectives This book was previously published as special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education and Applied Environmental Education and Communication Knowledge, Power and Young Sexualities Tamara Shefer, Jeff Hearn, 2022-07-27 This book troubles the ways young people have been constructed as trouble through critical readings of the effects and impacts politically and ideologically globally and locally of scholarship and practice directed at South African young people s sexualities over the last three decades of addressing HIV GBV and other sexual and gender justice challenges Located primarily in South Africa the book speaks to global concerns about the politics of knowledge and transnational flows of information and practice with respect to gender and sexuality and is framed by global imperatives and analyses located in transnational postcolonial and intersectional feminist frameworks The key argument developed here and explored in relation to several different forms of research and practice is that efforts to challenge HIV GBV and unequal sexual and gender practices among young people particularly as evident in heterosexual relationships have tended to reflect and reproduce re new ed orthodoxies about sexuality gender family and young people while bolstering global and local racist classist othering of certain communities and nation states and reiterating the innocence and authority of those already privileged and centred The book contributes to critical reflexive work on global practices of knowledge and its complex enmeshment with power in the terrain of sexual and gender justice work aimed at young people

Developmental Psychopathology, Maladaptation and Psychopathology Dante Cicchetti, 2016-02-29 A comprehensive reference on external contributing factors in psychopathology Developmental Psychopathology is a four volume compendium of the most complete and current research on every aspect of the field Volume Three Risk Disorder and Adaptation explores the everyday effects and behaviors of those with behavioral mental or neurological disorders and the disorder s real world impact on their well being Now in its third edition this comprehensive reference has been fully updated to better reflect the current state of the field and detail the latest findings in causation intervention contextual factors and the risks associated with atypical development Contributions from expert researchers and clinicians explore the effects of abuse and traumatic stress memory development emotion regulation impulsivity and more with chapters specifically targeted toward autism schizophrenia narcissism antisocial behavior bipolar disorder and borderline personality disorder Advances in developmental psychopathology have burgeoned since the 2006 publication of the second edition and keeping up on the latest findings in multiple avenues of investigation can be burdensome to the busy professional This series solves the problem by collecting the information into one place with a logical organization designed for easy reference Learn how childhood experiences contribute to psychopathology Explore the relationship between atypical development and substance abuse Consider the impact or absence of other developmental traits Understand the full risk potential of any behavioral or mental disorder The complexity of a field as diverse as developmental psychopathology deepens with each emerging theory especially with consideration of the multiple external factors that have major effects on a person s mental and emotional development Developmental Psychopathology Volume Three Risk Disorder and Adaptation compiles the latest information into a cohesive broad reaching reference with the most recent findings

Age-Adjusted Psychiatric Treatment for the Older Patient Howard H. Fenn, James A. Bourgeois, Catharine Birtley Fenn, 2024-06-10 This book offers practical age adjusted recommendations to treat the most common psychiatric symptoms and syndromes in the geriatric patient The principles described here are not new advice for prescribing to the aging patient has always been to start low go slow This book fleshes out that dictum based on research evidence clinical experience and trends in the literature An age adjusted approach endorses medication interventions when needed as part of a comprehensive treatment plan A combination of psychotherapeutic interventions non pharmacological modalities and judiciously managed medications can improve quality of life and minimize risks inherent in pharmacotherapy applied to aging physiology Age Adjusted Psychiatric Treatment for the Older Patient is divided into five sections covering the foundations of evaluation and treatment neurocognitive disorders psychiatric syndromes therapeutics and interventions and special topics Each chapter begins with a complex case example that illustrates the topic It then reviews current evidence based evaluation and treatments Age adjusted recommendations distilled from the literature are offered at the end of each chapter The intent is to provide actionable advice to supplement but not supplant good clinical judgement which can improve quality of life by managing psychiatric symptomatology while averting untoward results This volume is an essential guide for experienced clinicians as well as trainees across many health care disciplines both generalists and geriatric specialists who all see increasing numbers of aged patients with psychiatric symptomatology
