Off to College Roger H. Martin, 2015-08-04 What should parents expect during their child's first year of college Roger Martin double president emeritus of two colleges spent a year visiting five diverse colleges public and private large and small elite and non elite in order to offer the parents of college bound seniors a comprehensive overview of the first year college experience In addition to a stint with dorm life and time with students and professors Martin draws from conversations with a wide variety of campus administrators and staff members in financial aid campus police sports health care and disabilities accommodations We join Martin for example as he and a campus safety officer walk around campus on a busy Saturday night While Off to College deals with more traditional topics such as the financial challenges of college homesickness and time management it also tackles more complex contemporary issues that college freshman may encounter There are sections devoted to date rape drinking campus shootings and depression as well as chapters targeted at athletes minorities and first generation students We can boast in this book not only a most appropriate and uniquely positioned author but also one full of information and good advice from campus sources Off to College promises to be an encouraging and extremely well informed guide for any parent sending their child off to a four year residential college

Unbounding Europe Ilaria Giglioli, 2025-09-15 At a time of global border fortification and rising nationalisms Unbounding Europe analyzes the potential of Mediterranean borderlands to offer alternative models of belonging Drawing on ethnographic and archival research Ilaria Giglioli writes about relations between Sicilians and Tunisians and how they negotiate relationships of proximity and difference in multiple arenas of life She argues that histories of marginalization within the nation state do not automatically make borderlands inclusive for migrants Understanding the interplay of different degrees of marginality is key to identify how solidarity movements can emerge and be effective Giglioli argues that depoliticized celebrations of cross Mediterranean coexistence ignore longstanding inequalities and reinforce symbolic hierarchies between Sicilians and Tunisians She stresses that recognizing and addressing these inequalities is key to developing a transformative politics of solidarity Rather than idealize intermediate border spaces or subjects Unbounding Europe asserts that it is more effective to reconstruct histories of material and symbolic boundary drawing to demonstrate the contingency and mutability of borders

Dilemmas of Educational Ethics Meira Levinson, Jacob Fay, 2019-01-02 Educators and policy makers confront challenging questions of ethics justice and equity on a regular basis Should teachers retain a struggling student if it means she will most certainly drop out Should an assignment plan favor middle class families if it means strengthening the school system for all These everyday dilemmas are both utterly ordinary and immensely challenging yet there are few opportunities and resources to help educators think through the ethical issues at stake Drawing on research and methods developed in the Justice in Schools project at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Dilemmas of Educational Ethics introduces a new interdisciplinary approach to achieving practical wisdom in education one that honors the complexities inherent in educational decision making and encourages open discussion of the values and principles we should collectively be trying to realize in educational policy and practice At the heart of the book are six richly described realistic accounts of ethical dilemmas that have arisen in education in recent years paired with responses written by noted philosophers empirical researchers policy makers and practitioners including Pedro Noguera Howard Gardner Mary Pattillo Andres A Alonso Jamie Ahlberg Toby N Romer and Michael J Petrilli The editors illustrate how readers can use and adapt these cases and commentaries in schools and other settings in order to reach a difficult decision deepen their own understanding or to build teams around shared values Women After All Melvin Konner, 2015-03-02 A sparkling thought provoking account of sexual differences Whether you're a man or a woman you'll find his conclusions gripping Jared Diamond There is a human genetic fluke that is surprisingly common due to a change in a key pair of chromosomes In the normal condition the two look the same but in this disorder one is malformed and shrunk beyond recognition The result is a shortened life span higher mortality at all ages an inability to reproduce premature hair loss and brain defects variously resulting in attention deficit hyperactivity conduct disorder hypersexuality and an enormous excess of both outward and self directed aggression It is called maleness Melvin Konner traces the arc of evolution to explain the relationships between women and men With patience and wit he explores the knotty question of whether men are necessary in the biological destiny of the human race He draws on multiple colorful examples from the natural world such as the mating habits of the octopus black widow angler fish and jacana and argues that maleness in humans is hardly necessary to the survival of the species In characteristically humorous and engaging prose Konner sheds light on our biologically different identities while noting the poignant exceptions that challenge the male female divide We meet hunter gatherers such as those in Botswana whose culture gave women a prominent place invented the working mother and respected women's voices around the fire Recent human history has upset this balance as a dense world of war fostered extreme male dominance But our species has been recovering over the past two centuries and an unstoppable move toward equality is afoot It will not be the end of men but it will be the end of male supremacy and a better wiser world for women and men alike Congressional Record ,
