As an added bonus, the book concludes with A Baker's Dozen of Funeral Director Nuggets sharing the most important tips funeral directors wished pastors knew about how to lead thoughtful funeral services with dignity. My friend Greg Jackson has given every pastor not only a guide for conducting funerals but a gift. His personal and practical insights will assist us in ministering to the hurting. THIS is a winner. Dr. Ernest L. Easley, Senior Pastor, Roswell Street Baptist Church, Marietta, Georgia. Conducting A Funeral is a must read for every pastor. Pastor Greg Jackson offers so many helpful tips on how a pastor can effectively and intentionally minister to families who are dealing with death. I believe you will also find as I did the chapter on the importance of the pastor's relationship with a funeral director to be especially helpful. As important as this moment of ministry is in the lives of those trying to make sense of the painful reality of death, it is vital that every pastor be prepared. This book is very well written and will assist both the novice as well as the experienced pastor in maximizing their effectiveness in ministry. I recommend you read it. Dr. Michael Landry, Senior Pastor, Sarasota Baptist Church. Thank you, Greg. Your honesty, compassion, and obvious wisdom as a Senior Pastor at the same church for an extended number of years comes through on every page. Funerals and death are always a challenge, even for the most seasoned pastor. Thus, I wholeheartedly recommend this book for any person in ministry, especially if you are just starting out.
