Crime, Criminal Justice and Religion Philip Birch, Conor Murray, Andrew McInnes, 2022-12-30

Crime Criminal Justice and Religion: A Critical Appraisal seeks to bridge a gap in the examination of crime and criminal justice by taking both a historical and a contemporary lens to explore the influence of religion. Offering unique perspectives that consider the impact on modern day policy and practice, the book scrutinises a range of issues such as abortion, hate crime and desistance, as well as reflecting upon the influence religion can have on criminal justice professions. The book acts to renew the importance of and recognise the influence and impact religion has in terms of how we view and ultimately address crime and deliver criminal justice.

One of the first books to cover the area of crime, criminal justice and religion, the book is split into three parts. Part 1: Contextualising Crime, Criminal Justice and Religion, providing an introduction to crime, criminal justice and religion, and reflections on the role religion has had and continues to have in how crime is understood and how we respond to it. Part 2: Appraisal of Institutions and Professional Practice, considers the issue of religion through institutions and professions of criminal justice such as the police and legal profession, while part 3: Appraisal of Contemporary Issues, explores a range of crime and criminal justice issues in on which religion has had an impact such as the death penalty and terrorism.

Crime Criminal Justice and Religion will be of primary interest to academics, researchers and students in criminology, law, sociology, psychology, social policy and related Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences disciplines. It will also be of interest to theologians, both as scholars and practitioners. The book is a body of work that will appeal at an international level and will also be a key resource for a range of practitioners across the globe working on issues concerning crime and criminal justice.
