Agriculture Horticulture based Schemes implemented in the state Tripura The book is focused mainly on two aspects viz evaluation of the agriculture and horticulture based schemes and impact of the schemes on the socio economic life of the tribal farmers The basic objectives of this book are to assess whether the tribal farmers are benefitted or not from the different schemes implemented by the government and to assess the impact of these schemes in order to improve the socio economic condition of the tribal farmers In addition to this productivity of the different agriculture horticulture production produced by the tribal beneficiaries is examined and socio economic problems faced by the rural tribal people are investigated The book is expected to be valuable to the policy maker for taking the appropriate policy decisions further and it would be a bench mark to the researchers who will work on the tribal issues and agriculture

Race and Rurality in the Global Economy Michaeline A. Crichlow, Patricia Northover, Giusti-Cordero, 2018-09-26 Essays that examine globalization s effects with an emphasis on the interplay of race and rurality as it occurs across diverse geographies and peoples Issues of migration environment rurality and the visceral politics of place and space have occupied center stage in recent electoral political struggles in the United States and Europe suffused by an antiglobalization discourse that has come to resonate with Euro American peoples Race and Rurality in the Global Economy suggests that this present fractious global politics begs for closer attention to be paid to the deep rooted conditions and outcomes of globalization and development From multiple viewpoints the contributors to this volume propose ways of understanding the ongoing processes of globalization that configure peoples and places via a politics of rurality in a capitalist world economy and through an optics of raciality that intersects with class gender identity land and environment In tackling the dynamics of space and place their essays address matters such as the heightened risks and multiple states of insecurity in the global economy the new logics of expulsion and primitive accumulation dynamics shaping a new savage sorting patterns of resistance and transformation in the face of globalization s political and environmental changes the steady decline in the livelihoods of people of color globally and their deepened vulnerabilities and the complex reconstitution of systemic and lived racialization within these processes This book is an invitation to ask whether our dystopia in present politics can be disentangled from the deepening sense of white fragility in the context of the historical power of globalization s raced effects
