Anne Frank, the untold story Joop van Wijk, Jeroen De Bruyn, 2018-09-04 A never before told true story about Anne Frank and a carefully hidden truth as well as Bep and her father's boundless loyalty in life are important issues Beautifully written with simplicity Many facets about the hidings in the Secret Annex in Amsterdam have been highlighted throughout the years but remarkably enough the role of Otto Frank's young secretary Bep Voskuijl Elli Vossen in Anne Frank's Diary has received very little attention Belgian journalist Jeroen De Bruyn and Bep's son Joop van Wijk dove into her past and reconstructed her tragic but fascinating life Bep is 23 years old when in 1942 she is let in on the secret of the eight hidings on Prinsengracht During the next 25 months she becomes a pillar of support for Anne Frank with whom she builds an intense friendship Bep buys clothes and food for the hidings and supplies Anne with paper to write her diary Things aren't easy for Bep her father the maker of the famous revolving bookcase becomes gravely ill in 1943 and her sister collaborates with the Germans Bep leads a double life keeping this secret from her boyfriend and family When the Germans raid the hiding place on August 4 1944 and arrest the hidings Bep escapes in horror Later she rescues a large part of Anne's writings The news of the deaths of seven out of the eight hidings only Otto Frank returns from the concentration camps leaves deep scars ANNE FRANK THE UNTOLD STORY casts a new light on Anne Frank's short life by means of previously unknown witnesses and documents That makes this book a valuable addition to her world famous Diary Moreover it's a tribute to those brave Dutch people who risked their lives to save Jews Finally the book adds a remarkable name to the list of people who could have betrayed the hidings of the Secret Annex Jeroen De Bruyn 1993 wrote for various Belgian magazines and for the Gazet van Antwerpen the newspaper for which he is currently editor Joop van Wijk 1949 is Bep Voskuijl's youngest son As a marketing manager he was connected to Dutch newspapers NRC Handelsblad and Algemeen Dagblad for years

Rando, 2016-11-15 This book proposes that new music technologies attract unconscious desires for socialism and collectivity enabling millions of people living under capitalism to dream of repressed social alternatives Grounded in the philosophical writings of Ernst Bloch and Walter Benjamin the book examines file sharing technologies streaming services and media players as well as their historical antecedents such as the player piano cassette tape radio and compact disc alongside interpretations of fiction memoir and albums Through the concept of wish images the unconscious hopes and desires for social alternatives that gather around new technologies the book identifies the repressed pre and post capitalist urges that attend our music technologies While these desires typically remain unconscious and tend to pass away not only unmet but also unrecognized Hope and Wish Image in Music Technology attempts to bring wishes for social alternatives to the surface at an auspicious moment of technological transition

Borders and Boundaries in and around Dutch Jewish History David Wertheim, Judith Frishman, Ido Haan, Joel Cahen, 2025-10-01 The widespread and long held preconception that all Jews lived in ghettos and were relentlessly subject to discrimination prior to the Enlightenment has only slowly eroded Geographically speaking Jews rarely lived in ghettos and have never been confined within the borders of one nation or country Power struggles and wars often led to the creation of new national borders that divided communities once united But if identity formation is subject to change and negotiation it does not depend solely on shifting geographical borders A variety of boundaries were and are still being constructed and maintained between ethnic and other collective identities The contributors to this book like other post modernist historians turn their gaze to a wide range of identities once taken for granted identities located on the border lines between one country and the next between Jews and non Jews as well as on those between one group of Jews and another Holocaust Mothers and Daughters Federica K. Clementi, 2013-12-03 In this brave and original work Federica Clementi focuses on the mother daughter bond as depicted in six works by women who experienced the Holocaust sometimes with their mothers sometimes not The daughters memoirs which record the all too human qualities of those who were persecuted and murdered by the Nazis show that the Holocaust cannot be used to neatly segregate lives into the categories of before and after Clementi s discussions of differences in social status along with the persistence of antisemitism and patriarchal structures support this point strongly demonstrating the tenacity of trauma individual familial and collective among Jews in twentieth century Europe

Visualizing the Holocaust David Bathrick, Brad Prager, Michael David Richardson, 2008 Visual representations are an essential but highly contested means of understanding and remembering the Holocaust Photographs taken in the camps in early 1945 provided proof of and visceral access to the atrocities Later visual representations such as films paintings and art installations attempted to represent this extreme trauma While photographs from the camps and later aesthetic reconstructions differ in origin they share goals and have raised similar concerns the former are questioned not as to veracity but due to their potential inadequacy in portraying the magnitude of events the latter are criticized on the grounds that the mediation they entail is unacceptable Some have even questioned any attempt to represent the Holocaust as inappropriate and dangerous to historical understanding This book explores the taboos that structure the production and reception of

Holocaust images and the possibilities that result from the transgression of those taboos Essays consider the uses of various visual media aesthetic styles and genres in representations of the Holocaust the uses of perpetrator photography the role of trauma in memory aesthetic problems of mimesis and memory in the work of Lanzmann Celan and others and questions about mass cultural representations of the Holocaust David Bathrick is Emeritus Professor of German at Cornell University Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri and Michael D Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College

Resounding Pasts Drago Momcilovic, 2020-05-15 The field of memory studies has long been preoccupied with the manner in which events from the past are commemorated forgotten re fashioned or worked through on both the individual and collective level Yet in an age when various modes of artistic and cultural commemoration have begun to overlap with and respond to one another the dynamics of cultural remembering and forgetting become bound up in an increasingly elaborate network of representations that operate both within and outside temporal cultural and national borders As publicly circulating texts that straddle the line between cultural artifact and artistic object both musical and literary works both individually and often in conjunction with one another help shape cultural memories and individual experiences of those events Troping their cultural milieux through specific aesthetic and social forms genres and modes of dissemination music and literature become part of a growing global panoply of raw materials upon which we might begin to pose questions regarding the way we remember the consequences of sharing and passing on those memories and the aesthetic and cultural pressures attendant upon the circulation and interpretation of texts that re sound the past
