American Cities and the Politics of Party Conventions Eric S. Heberlig, Suzanne M. Leland, David Swindell, 2017-01-01

Uncovers the politics involved when a city recruits and implements a presidential convention Political party conventions have lost much of their original political nature serving now primarily as elaborate infomercials while ratifying the decisions made by voters in state primaries and caucuses While this activity hasn't changed significantly since the 1970s conventions themselves have changed significantly in terms of how they are recruited implemented and paid for American Cities and the Politics of Party Conventions analyzes how and why cities advance through the site selection process Just as parties use conventions to communicate their policies unity and competence to the electorate cities use the convention selection process to communicate their merits to political parties businesses and residents While hosting such a mega event provides some direct economic stimulus for host cities the major benefit of the convention is the opportunity it provides for branding and signaling status Combining a case studies approach as well as interviews with party and local officials Eric S Heberlig Suzanne M Leland and David Swindell bring party convention scholarship up to date while highlighting the costs and benefits of hosting such events for tourism bureaus city administrators elected officials and the citizens they represent

Maritime Gray Zone Operations Andrew S Erickson, 2022-10-21 This book addresses the issues raised by Chinese and North Korean maritime gray zone activities in the Indo Asia Pacific region For years China has been harassing its neighbors in South China Sea and East China Sea employing both coast guard and maritime militia forces in the name of safeguarding Chinese sovereignty This behavior is frequently characterized as constituting gray zone activity As the term suggests this refers to a state of conflict that falls between peace and war Interestingly the Yellow Sea which is geographically much closer to China than South China Sea or East China Sea has been comparatively quiet However there is a danger that the PRC has the capability to replicate its gray zone activities in this area Worse North Korea has also been engaging in carefully calibrated provocations there This book addresses pressing questions about these activities and offers 1 a conceptual framework to understand maritime gray zone operations and Beijing and Pyongyang's approach with an unprecedented focus on the Yellow Sea 2 a comprehensive fully updated fleet force structure for the PRC's Coast Guard together with projections regarding how the Coast Guard is likely to develop in the future 3 an extensive organizational analysis of the PRC's Maritime Militia that surveys the many units relevant to Yellow Sea operations some revealed publicly for the first time and 4 a detailed assessment of North Korean maritime gray zone activities This book will be of great interest to students of naval strategy maritime security Asian politics and international security Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Routledge Handbook of National and Regional Ocean Policies Biliiana Cicin-Sain, David Vanderzwaag, Miriam C. as new countries from the so called developing world began to emerge as crucial actors capable of questioning and altering the power dynamics of the world It is therefore unthinkable to ignore emerging countries such as Russia the People s Republic of China India Brazil or South Africa in the decision making process in today s world order In addition there is a group of smaller yet increasingly important countries that while acknowledging their inability radically to change the rules of the international system are still eager to shift power relations and enhance their influence in the world Argentina Colombia Egypt Indonesia Iran South Korea Mexico Nigeria Pakistan Saudi Arabia Turkey and Vietnam are generally recognised as part of this grouping of emerging powers from the Global South While there is a consensus amongst academics that emerging powers from the Global South must have a stabilising role within their own regions previous analyses have focused primarily on the impact that emerging powers have had in their own regions conflict resolution initiatives This volume instead aims to go beyond these analyses and provide new insights regarding the effect that this stabilising role has on the continental and global positioning of emerging powers In other words this book explores the relation between a country s involvement in conflict resolution initiatives and its positioning in the international system The volume will contribute to this approach using the perspective of academics and practitioners from countries of the Global South particularly from states that have strengthened or sometimes weakened their position in the international hierarchy of power through a leading role in regional conflict resolution initiatives
