Working as Indigenous Archaeologists George Nicholas, Joe Watkins, 2024-09-30 Working as Indigenous Archaeologists explores the often contentious relationship between Indigenous and other formerly colonized peoples and Archaeology through their own voices Over the past 35 plus years the once novel field of Indigenous Archaeology has become a relatively familiar part of the archaeological landscape It has been celebrated criticized and analyzed as to its practical and theoretical applications and its political nature No less important are the life stories of its Indigenous practitioners What has brought some of them to become practicing archaeologists or heritage managers What challenges have they faced from both inside and outside their communities And why haven't more pursued Archaeology as a vocation or avocation This volume is a collection of 60 autobiographical chapters by Indigenous archaeologists and heritage specialists from around the world some community based some academic some in other realms who are working to connect past and present in meaningful and especially personal ways As Archaeology continues to evolve there remain strong tensions between an objective science oriented evidentiary based approach to knowing the past and a more subjective relational humanistic approach informed by local values traditional knowledge and holistic perspective While there are no maps for these new territories hearing directly from those Indigenous individuals who have pursued Archaeology reveals the pathways taken Those stories will provide inspiration and confidence for those curious about what lies ahead This is an important volume for anyone interested in the present state and future of the archaeological discipline

Tropical Forests Of Oceania Joshua A. Bell, Paige West, Colin Filer, 2015-08-31 The tropical forests of Oceania are an enduring source of concern for indigenous communities for the migrants who move to them for the states that encompass them within their borders for the multilateral institutions and aid agencies and for the non governmental organisations that focus on their conservation Grounded in the perspective of political ecology contributors to this volume approach forests as socially alive spaces produced by a confluence of local histories and global circulations In doing so they collectively explore the multiple ways in which these forests come into view and therefore into being Exploring the local dynamics within and around these forests provides an insight into regional issues that have global resonance Intertwined as they are with cosmological beliefs and livelihoods as sites of biodiversity and Western desire these forests have been and are still being transformed by the interaction of foreign and local entities Focusing on case studies from Papua New Guinea the Solomon Islands and the Gambier Islands this volume brings new perspectives on how Pacific Islanders continue to creatively engage with the various processes at play in and around their forests

The Likely Demand and Needs for Medical Officers and Nurse Practitioners in Vanuatu to the Year 2015, 1997

Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space Sarah Pinto, Shelley Hannigan, Bernadette Walker-Gibbs, Emma Charlton, 2019-04-25 This book brings together researchers from different fields traditions and perspectives to examine the ways in which place and space might be unsettled Researchers from across the humanities and social sciences have been drawn to the study of place and space since the 1970s and the term unsettled has been an occasional but recurring presence in this body of scholarship Though it has been used to invoke a range of meanings from the dangerous to the liberating the term itself has rarely been at the centre of sustained examination This collection highlights the idea of the unsettled in the scholarly investigation of place and space The respective chapters offer a dialogue between a diverse and eclectic group of researchers crossing significant disciplinary and interdisciplinary boundaries in the process The purpose of the collection is to juxtapose a range of different approaches to and perspectives on the unsettling of place and space In doing so Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space makes an important contribution and offers new insights into how scholarship and research into different fields and practices may help us re envision place and space

Biodiversity, biogeography and nature conservation in Wallacea and New Guinea Dmitry Telnov, 2015-05-11

At Home and in the Field Suzanne S. Finney, Mary Mostafanezhad, Guido Carlo Pigliasco, Forrest Wade Young, 2015-07-30
Crossing disciplinary boundaries At Home and in the Field is an anthology of twenty first century ethnographic research and writing about the global worlds of home and disjuncture in Asia and the Pacific Islands These stories reveal novel insights into the serendipitous nature of fieldwork Unique in its inclusion of homework ethnography that directly engages with issues and identities in which the ethnographer finds political solidarity and belonging in fields at home the anthology contributes to growing trends that complicate the distinction between insiders and outsiders The obligations that fieldwork engenders among researchers and local communities are exemplified by contributors who are often socially engaged with the peoples and places they work In its focus on Asia and the Pacific Islands the collection offers ethnographic updates on topics that range from ritual money burning in China to the militarization of Hawaii to the social role of text messages in identifying marriage partners in Vanuatu to the cultural power of robots in Japan Thought provoking sometimes humorous these cultural encounters will resonate with readers and provide valuable talking points for exploring the human diversity that makes the study of ourselves and each other simultaneously rewarding and challenging
