A Month By The Sea Encounters In Gaza:

A Month by the Sea Dervla Murphy, 2015-05-12 Dervla Murphy recounts the events people and ironies she encountered while living in Gaza during Summer 2011 Between River and Sea Dervla Murphy, 2015 Murphy describes with passionate honesty the experience of her most recent journeys to Israel and Palestine whether visiting families in Haifa highrises or Palestinian refugee camps The House Divided Barnaby Rogerson, 2024-07-02 An incisive look at the past present and future of the religious divide that lies at the heart of the Middle East At the heart of the Middle East with its regional conflicts and proxy wars is a 1400 year old schism between Sunni and Shia To understand this divide and its modern resonances we need to revisit its origins which go back to the death of the Prophet Muhammad in 632 the accidental coup that set aside the claims of his son Ali and the slaughter of Ali's own son Husayn at Karbala These events known to every Muslim have created a slender faultline in the Middle East The House Divided follows these narratives from the first Sunni and Shia caliphates through the medieval empires of the Arabs Persians and Ottomans to the contemporary Middle East It shows how a complex range of identities and rivalries religious ethnic and national have shaped the region jolted by the seismic shift of the Iranian Revolution of 1979 Rogerson's original approach takes the modern chessboard of nation states and looks at each through its particular history of empires and occupiers minorities and resources sheikhs and imams The result is wide ranging empathy understanding and insight a book that is vital for anyone wishing to understand many of the current tensions in the Middle East today Interstices of Space and Memory Sreedevi Santhosh, Samjaila TH, Sneha Suresh, Preethi S., 2025-03-07 The conference intersectionally locates memory and space that reconstruct city chronotopes to explore how identities are reconfigured in metropolitan Indian cities In taking recourse in locating turning points that could be historical political or cultural in the life of Metropolitan Indian Cities the perspective that is brought together with personal and collective stories that are recorded in Art Literature Curated Projects Museums is that these moments reshape human values ethos in Cities The assumption made is that at specific moments in time turning points with the pandemic for instance the spirit of the city changes It highlights how human beings in cities account for such changes the IIHS runs a postcard project on human lives during the plague and corona being an example It uses focal moments in the City as the lens to discuss Art Literature and City Design Your Place or Mine? Ethel Crowley, 2013-03-22 Ireland's economy is being scrutinised daily by everyone from politicians to pub goers but what about the deeper questions of Ireland's sense of identity and community Socially Ireland is in a period of rapid change is it time to get behind the numbers and look at who we really are In Your Place or Mine sociologist Ethel Crowley looks at our attitudes to home place family sexuality and community Do we still need the traditional forms of connection to home family community and locality in the highly globalised society in which we live Do we still like to stay within the heart of a familiar comfort zone or are we willing to push its boundaries Your Place or Mine captures some of the complexities of contemporary Ireland What is the impact of globalisation and multiculturalism Are community values really declining Despite a more liberal attitude to sexuality are we a liberal society Ethel Crowley mixes warm hearted biography and sociological rigour to create a set of reflections on finding our place in the world as a country and as individuals Crowley uses an exciting innovative approach to identify and describe the cultural transformations of contemporary Ireland Mixing personal memories with sociologically informed debate she provides an insightful and imaginative explanation of how Ireland has combined the local with the global Professor Tom Inglis School of Sociology University College Dublin

Civil Society, Post-Colonialism and Transnational Solidarity Marie-Violaine Louvet,2016-06-28 Civil Society Post Colonialism and Transnational Solidarity originates from Louvet's observation of the strong commitment of a layer of Irish civil society from the man on the street to political parties associations and trade unions to the defence of one antagonist or the other in the Israeli Palestinian conflict beginning with the Six Day War in 1967 and increasingly so after the Lebanon Wars at the start of the 1980s and the Second Intifada 2000 2005 This book observes how this phenomenon is particularly striking in Northern Ireland where Israeli and Palestinian flags have been flown by Unionists and Nationalists as signs of solidarity and identification Louvet sheds light on the dynamics and strategies at play in the Middle East conflict in Northern Ireland but also in the Republic of Ireland a country considered to be widely sympathetic to the Palestinian cause With an overarching perspective highlighting the influence of Irish colonial history over the motives and discourse of the different levels of mobilization in civil society this book shows the global movement towards the fragmentation and specialization of transnational solidarity actions in Ireland
