Alfonso, Prabha S. Chandra, Thomas G. Schulze, 2021-02-02 This book addresses biopsychosocial and transcultural determinants of suicide by self immolation populations at risk throughout the world and prevention strategies specifically designed for young women in fragile environments Self immolation the act of burning oneself as a means of suicide is rare in high income countries and is usually a symbolic display of political protest among men that generally receives international media coverage In contrast in low and middle income countries it is highly prevalent primarily affects women and may be one of the most common suicide methods in regions of Central and South Asia and parts of Africa Psychiatric conditions like adjustment disorders traumatic stress disorders and major depression and family dynamics that include intimate partner violence forced marriages the threat of honor killings and interpersonal family conflicts in a cultural context of war related life events poverty forced migration and ethnic conflicts are important contributing factors Written by over 40 academic psychiatrists from all continents sociologists and historians the book covers topics such as region specific cultural and historical factors associated with suicide the role of religion and belief systems marginalization oppression retraumatization and suicide risk countertransference aspects of working in burn centers responsible reporting and the media and suicide prevention strategies to protect those at risk From Monophysitism to Nestorianism Theodore Sabo,2018-04-18 The most important Christological controversies were waged during the Third through the Sixth Ecumenical Councils This book argues that each of these councils can be characterized by the labels Nestorian Monophysite or proto Monophysite In the Third and Fourth Councils a Nestorian or Antiochene victory followed a Monophysite one and the pattern was repeated identically with the Fifth and Sixth Councils If this seems to damage the religious interpretation of the councils as the slow hammering out of orthodoxy or to contradict the current interpretation of the councils it is not meant to In contrast to R V Sellers the distinctions between the Alexandrian and Antiochene approaches to Christology are maintained and each council is labeled as coming down on one or the other of the two sides The book s title reflects a half truth Orthodox Christology at least until the outbreak of the Iconoclastic crisis was characterized by a progression from the deifying and unifying impulse of the Alexandrian school in favor of the humanizing and dichotomizing tendency of the Antiochene However this book does not affirm anything other than that early orthodoxy successfully navigated the often narrow strait between Nestorianism and Monophysitism By continually changing sides and by declaring the decrees of all previous councils binding it found itself outwitting both the Monophysites and the Nestorians The Years of Jesuit Suppression, 1773-1814: Survival, Setbacks, and Transformation Paul Shore,2019-12-30 The forty one years between the Society of Jesus s papal suppression in 1773 and its eventual restoration in 1814 remain controversial with new research and interpretations continually appearing Shore s narrative approaches these years and the period preceding the suppression from a new perspective that covers individuals not usually discussed in works dealing with this topic As well as examining the contributions of former Jesuits to fields as diverse as ethnology a term and concept pioneered by an ex Jesuit and library science where Jesuits and ex Jesuits laid the groundwork for the great advances of the nineteenth century the essay also explores the period the exiled Society spent in the Russian Empire It concludes with a discussion of the Society s restoration in the broader context of world history Members of the Gregorian Mission , Our Dogs, Our Selves ,2016-09-12 The ubiquity of references to dogs in medieval and early modern texts and images must at some level reflect their actual presence in those worlds yet scholarly consideration of this material is rare and scattered across diverse sources This volume addresses that gap bringing together fifteen essays that examine the appearance meaning and significance of dogs in painting sculpture manuscripts literature and legal records of the period reaching beyond Europe to include cultural material from medieval Japan and Islam While primarily art historical in focus the authors approach the subject from a range of disciplines and with varying methodology that ultimately reveals as much about dogs as about the societies in which they lived Contributors are Kathleen Ashley Jane Carroll Emily Cockayne John Block Friedman Karen M Gerhart Laura D Gelfand Craig A Gibson Walter S Gibson Nathan Hofer Jane C Long Judith W Mann Sophie Oosterwijk Elizabeth Carson Pastan Donna L Sadler Alexa Sand and Janet Snyder
