A New Reformation Creation Spirituality And The Transformation Of Christianity:

A New Reformation Matthew Fox, 2006-02-14 A modern day theologian s call for the radical transformation of Christianity Echoes the Reformation initiated by Martin Luther in 1517 Addresses the corruption and authoritarian tendencies that distinguish today s Christian institutions from the spiritual message upon which they are founded Offers a new vision of Christianity that values the Earth honors the feminine and emphasizes spiritual tolerance In 1517 Martin Luther disgusted at the corruption then reigning in the Catholic Church nailed on the door of Castle Church in Wittenberg Germany 95 theses calling for a Reformation During Pentecost week 2005 former Dominican priest Matthew Fox nailed at that same church door a new set of 95 theses calling for a reawakening of the Christian spirit and a repudiation of the authoritarian punitive tendencies that prevail in modern churches today Fox s theses not only condemn the deep corruption in the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church made evident by the pedophile scandal and the recent canonization of a fascist admirer of Hitler but also speak to the loss of inspiration and resulting apathy that have emptied churches of all denominations Fox says At this critical time in human and planetary history when the earth is being ravaged by the violence of war poverty sexism homophobia and eco destruction we need to gather those who offer a future that is one of compassion creativity and justice to speak their conscience as never before Religion ought to be part of the solution not the problem His 95 theses call for a New Reformation a radical transformation that will allow us to move once again from the hollow trappings of organized religion to genuine spirituality

A Way to God Matthew Fox, 2016-04-01 This unique reflection was prompted by an invitation Matthew Fox received to speak on the centennial of Thomas Merton s birth Fox says that much of the trouble he s gotten into such as being excommunicated in 1993 from the Dominican Order by Cardinal Ratzinger who later became Pope Benedict was because of Thomas Merton who sent Fox to Paris to complete a doctoral program in philosophy Fox found that Merton s journals poetry and religious writings revealed a deeply ecumenical philosophy and a contemplative life experience similar to that of Meister Eckhart the fourteenth century mystic theologian who inspired Fox s own creation spirituality It is little surprise to find Fox and Merton to be kindred spirits but the intersections Fox finds with Eckhart are intellectually profound spiritually enlightening and delightfully engaging

Shamanic Christianity Bradford Keeney, 2006-03-13 A guide to reconnecting with Jesus Mary and the saints as shamanic teachers of divine mysteries Contains meditations contemplations parables and active ritual tasks that help bring forth a shamanic understanding and practice of Christianity Shows shamanic experience to be the root of mystical communion When the missionaries came to North America to save the American Indians they were perplexed to discover that while they talked about Jesus some of the Indians claimed to talk directly with him Among Christians there is almost complete silence on the subject of the place of shamanism in experiencing the divine yet shamanic experience is at the root of all mystical communion Shamanic Christianity offers a chance to rekindle the shamanic practices of Christianity to those who wish to restore their direct connection to the spirit world In the tradition of contemplative practice this reconnection takes the form of devotions Presented in four forms these devotions begin with a specific contemplation followed by a meditative focus then a parable from the author's own visionary experiences and finally an active mystical practice to help ground the meditations and contemplations in a ritual or ceremony that involves active participation These four forms serve to reintroduce Jesus Mary and the historically renowned saints as shamanic teachers of divine mysteries whose spiritual presence is readily available to contemporary lives The author also presents specific directives for handling everyday challenges in a shamanic inspired manner drawing upon creative activities and resources that encourage approaching the world with the imaginative and playful spirit of a child whose personal freedom and creative expression is always wide open to possibilities culminates by a constructing a philosophy of sacramental mediation and criteriology of sacrament b engaging panentheism and the suffering of God and world and c proposing panentheistic pansacramentalism as a new model for understanding the divine world relationship set in the context of a pansacramental theology of religious pluralism Finally a method for doing theology interreligiously is offered based on the overall content of the book and within the context of the interdisciplinary field of interreligious studies
