A Place In The Shade Charles Correa:

A Place in the Shade Charles Correa, 2010 Indian cities are mechanisms for social engineering more powerful than anything we have seen before They will transform this country A Place in the Shade explores architectural and urban issues in India from the house as a machine for dealing with our often hostile climate to the metaphysical role of architecture as a Model of the Cosmos This reflective provocative and consistently readable collection of essays argues that our habitat must respond to the overriding parameters of climate culture and financial resources and that our physical environment should accommodate notions of inclusion and diversity and that priceless quality of synergy which characterizes a city Charles Correa identifies the defining issues of the urbanization process that is so rapidly transforming India He writes You cannot look at cities without wandering into architecture on the one hand and politics on the other Tragically over the last few decades urban real estate has become the primary source of financing for political parties and the politicians who run them But our towns and cities are assets too precious to be squandered in this manner Like the wheat fields of Punjab and the coal fields of Bihar cities are a crucial part of our national wealth Their success or their failure will determine our future Indian cities are mechanisms for social engineering more powerful than anything we have seen before They will transform this country A Place in the Shade explores architectural and urban issues in India from the house as a machine for dealing with our often hostile climate to the metaphysical role of architecture as a Model of the Cosmos

Post-Western Histories of Architecture Pilar Maria Guerrieri, Marco Biraghi, 2023-06-23 This book seeks to provide an alternative post Western perspective to the history of contemporary architecture It puts forward detailed critical analyses of various areas of the world including Europe Latin America Africa China Australia India and Japan where particular movements of architecture have developed as active political acts The authors focus on a broad spectrum of countries architectures and architects that have developed a design approach closely linked to the building context The concept of context is broad and includes various economic social cultural political and natural aspects In all cases the architects selected in this book have chosen to view context as an opportunity However each architect has considered certain specific aspects of context some have been very attentive to the social context others to material aspects or typological issues and still others to aspects related to political visions or economic factors The analysis critically highlights interesting creative and respectful design approaches towards local conditions such as sustainability in Nordic Europe climate conscious design in Africa and the bottom up sensitivity of India The book's main aim is to retrace through both theoretical arguments and case studies the debate that focuses on politics and the environment Thanks to its valuable examples this book strives to make a conscious contribution to establishing a bulwark against the current flattening out processes that architecture is experiencing This book will be of relevance to researchers teachers and students interested in the history of architecture architecture and planning and postcolonial studies

a sort of guru as someone capable to transcend and grasp the ineffable reality that surrounds us has left his noteworthy architectural heritage across the globe In 2013 the Royal Institute of British Architects RIBA celebrated him as one of the greatest contemporary urban planners showcasing his work in an exhibition called Charles Correa India's greatest architect

Profoundly tied to my Indian origins to me Correa has been the master over distance a personal benchmark to set my goals against He was my inspiring thinker architect and urbanist or simply said the designer I would have liked to be Many of Correa's last works show his deep rooted search of the highest spiritual dimension in the attempt to trap part of the cosmic energy surrounding us into architectural works that were and are the shadow of his soul

The Oxford Handbook of Ethics of AI Markus Dirk Dubber, Frank Pasquale, Sunit Das, 2020 This interdisciplinary and international handbook captures and shapes much needed reflection on normative frameworks for the production application and use of artificial intelligence in all spheres of individual commercial social and public life

Abundance Not Capital Angelika Fitz, Elke Krasny, Architekturzentrum Wien, 2025-08-26 What if architecture were not an instrument of capital How to imagine and build a non extractivist and non exploitative architecture Capital's voracious appetite forces architecture into a regime of never enough The current realities of building involve extraction and exploitation which in turn cause climate breakdown environmental ruin alienated labor conditions and the destruction of local construction knowledge But what if we could do architecture differently What does non extractivist architecture look like In this book Angelika Fitz and Elke Krasny introduce the concept of abundance to call for a paradigm shift in architecture Using as its example the exceptional work of architect Anupama Kundoo this book shows that non extractivist and non exploitative architecture is undeniably possible Kundoo born in Pune India weaves together innovative technological experimentation and traditional crafts With careful consideration of local resources building skills climate and environment she makes buildings that embody spatial beauty and graceful materiality Abundance Not Capital is a manifesto for creating a future forward alternative architecture Contributors Shumi Bose Jordan Carver Peggy Deamer Madhavi Desai Angelika Fitz Rupali Gupte Ranjit Hoskote Elke Krasny Charlotte Malterre Barthes Shannon Mattern and Laurie Parsons Copublished with Architekturzentrum Wien

The Equitably Resilient City Zachary B. Lamb, Lawrence J. Vale, 2024-10-01 Twelve global planning and urban design interventions and what they reveal about equity centered urban resilience in the face of climate change Hillside favelas in South America imperiled by landslides Flood threatened mobile home parks on the American Gulf Coast Canal side settlements facing eviction in megacities in Southeast Asia Too often the places most vulnerable to climate change are the ones that are home to people with the fewest economic and political resources And while some leaders are starting to take action to reduce climate risks many early adaptation schemes have actually made preexisting inequalities worse In The Equitably Resilient City Zachary Lamb and Lawrence Vale ask how cities can adapt to climate change and other threats while also doing right by disadvantaged residents Lamb and Vale's model for the equitably resilient city includes four central domains 1 environmental safety and vitality 2 security from displacement 3 stable and dignified livelihoods and 4 enhanced self governance These principles represent the four LEGS Livelihoods Environment Governance and Security of equitable resilience To illustrate these core principles the book draws on 12 case studies from settlements facing a range of hazards across diverse geographies in the Global North and South from heat stress in Paris to drought in Bolivia to floods in Bangkok and New Orleans Offering concrete strategies in the form of planning community action and design interventions Lamb and Vale show that equitable urban resilience is not a pipe dream nor an abstract ethical proposition but an achievable reality grounded in struggle and solidarity

LabOratory Sandra Kaji-O'Grady,Chris L. Smith,2024-02-06 An illustrated examination of laboratory architecture and the work that it does to engage the public recruit scientists and attract funding The laboratory building is as significant to the twenty first century as the cathedral was to the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries The contemporary science laboratory is built at the grand scales of cathedrals and constitutes as significant an architectural statement The laboratory is a serious investment in architectural expression in an attempt to persuade us of the value of the science that goes on inside In this lavishly illustrated book Sandra Kaji O Grady and Chris L Smith explore the architecture of modern life science laboratories and the work that it does to engage the public recruit scientists and attract funding Looking at the varied designs of eleven important laboratories in North America Europe and Australia all built between 2005 and 2019 Kaji O Grady and Smith examine the relationship between the design of contemporary laboratory buildings and the ideas and ideologies of science Observing that every laboratory architect and client declares the same three aspirations to eliminate boundaries to communicate the benefits of its research programs and to foster collaboration Kaji O Grady and Smith organize their account according to the themes of boundaries expression and socialization For instance they point to the South Australian Health and Medical Institute s translucent envelope as the material equivalent of institutional accountability the insistent animal imagery of the NavarraBioMed laboratory in Spain and the Hillside Research Campus s mimicry of the picturesque fishing village that once occupied its site Through these and their other examples Kaji O Grady and Smith show how the architecture of the laboratory shapes the science that takes place within it

Design Engineering Refocused Hanif Kara,Daniel Bosia,2017-01-17 The contents of the book will highlight the differences between the design and engineering disciplines strengths and flaws It will also illustrate examples of interdisciplinary interactions Any false dichotomies will be revealed and the many non linear processes borne out of challenging conventions between traditional and new modes of practice will be revealed Projects based on a body of experience spanning many years will be selected to support experimentation that goes beyond an undisciplined search for originality innovation and creativity In addition to writings from Hanif Kara and Daniel Bosia contributions will be sought from specialists in the field who have played a role in the operations of P art at AKT II past and present qualifying them to disseminate and distribute a particular form of knowledge Features work of architectural practices Adjaye Associates Foster Partners Heatherwick Studio HOK Serie Architects

Wilkinson Eyre Architects and Zaha Hadid Architects In addition to AKT II it will encompass the work of engineers and engineering consultants such as Arup Cecil Balmond Buckminster Fuller Buro Happold Pier Luigi Nervi and Peter Rice

Indian Architecture in Postcards Éléonore Muhidine, 2023-07-06 Focusing on a private collection of 60 postcards of modern architecture in Mumbai New Delhi Kolkata Chennai and Agra the contributors to this volume explore the many dimensions of modern architecture in India from the 1890s to the 1970s and share their own perspective on these objects Experts on architectural history and visual studies as well as postcard collectors provide new insights into a territory and its architectural heritage which is still largely unknown in Europe and reflect on the postcard as a medium for historical research

In the Images of Development Tridib Banerjee, 2021-06-08 The urban legacy of the Global South since the colonial era and how sustainable development and environmental and social justice can be achieved Remarkably little of the expansive literature on development and globalization considers actual urban form and the physical design of cities as outcomes of these phenomena The development that has shaped historic transformations in urban form and urbanism and the consequent human experiences remains largely unexplored In this book Tridib Banerjee fills this void by linking the idea of development with those of urbanism urban form and urban design focusing primarily on the contemporary cities in the developing world the Global South and their intrinsic prospects in city design Further he examines the endogenous possibilities for the future design of these cities that may address growing inequality and the environmental crisis Banerjee deftly traces the urban legacy of the Global South from the beginning of the colonial era closely examining the economic political and ideological forces that influenced colonial and postcolonial development drawing from relevant experiences of different cities in the developing world and discussing the arguments for the historic parity of these cities with their Western counterparts Finally Banerjee considers essential notions of future city design that are grounded in the critical challenges of sustainable development equity environmental and social justice and diversity and how such outcomes can be achieved This book serves as the opening of a long overdue conversation among design development and planning scholars and practitioners and those interested in the urban development of the Global South

Kriya Ar. Ashlesha Kale, Theories of design have been explained and illustrated since ages This book speaks about the unspoken experiences Design is for mapping an experience with the end product which could solve the issue under consideration The young generation is satisfied with what looks better The effort here is to take an extra step to explore what feels good at the same time making it look good The product that looks good aesthetically is a culmination of numerous small factors constructing the ambience at the micro level not seen by the eyes The unseen faculties discussed in detail in this book that are aesthetic to the eyes while triggering the emotions they give birth to

Coping with Urban Climates Sascha Roesler, Madlen Kobi, Lorenzo Stieger, 2022-06-21 While 20th century architecture learned to control the climate of a building the architecture of the 21st century needs to learn to cope with the climate of cities Problems such as urban heat and air pollution need to be included in planning and design Based on empirical realities in Cairo Chongqing Geneva and Santiago de Chile the book underlines that the materiality and social practices attached to room heating compound greening street alignment or climate policies together form the tissue for contemporary urban climates It interweaves socio cultural with meteorological data and pioneers the new concept of thermal governance by linking architectural and technological as well as legal and economic dimensions of climate control in urban environments

Precedented Environmental Futures Colin Porteous, 2019-04-17 This book addresses the built environment through the lens of environmental architecture and in a holistic manner It moves gradually from psychophysiology and thinking doing feeling modalities through environmental criteria to environmental modulation concluding with a debate around mitigation and adaptation Much use is made of re interpreting past quotations seen as relevant for environmental architecture No definitive conclusions are reached but rather broad discursive messages are offered The text will have lasting luminance for new generations involved with the built environment

Traditional Knowledge in Modern India Nirmal Sengupta, 2018-09-29 This book demonstrates how traditional knowledge can be connected to the modern world Human knowledge of housing health and agriculture dates back thousands of years with old wisdom developing and becoming modern But in the past few decades global communities have increasingly become aware that some of this valuable knowledge has fallen by the wayside This has sparked systematic efforts at the local national and global levels to connect this neglected knowledge to the modern world It discusses the origin of the topic its importance recent developments in India and abroad and what is being done and still needs to be done in order to preserve India s traditional knowledge The discussions address a broad range of fields and organizations from Basmati rice to Ayurvedic cosmetics from traditional irrigation and folk music to modern drug discovery and climate change adaptation and from the Biodiversity Convention to the WHO WTO and WIPO
