A Place in the Sun Sean Mills, 2016-02-01 What is the relationship between migration and politics in Quebec How did French Canadian activities in the global south influence future debates about migration and Quebec society How did migrants in turn shape debates about language class nationalism and sexuality A Place in the Sun explores these questions through overlapping histories of Quebec and Haiti From the 1930s to the 1950s French Canadian and Haitian cultural and political elites developed close intellectual bonds and large numbers of French Canadian missionaries began working in the country Through these encounters French Canadian intellectual and religious figures developed an image of Haiti that would circulate widely throughout Quebec and have ongoing cultural ramifications After first exploring French Canadian views of Haiti Sean Mills reverses the perspective by looking at the many ways that Haitian migrants intervened in and shaped Quebec society As the most significant group seen to integrate into francophone Quebec Haitian migrants introduced new perspectives into a changing public sphere during decades of political turbulence By turning his attention to the ideas and activities of Haitian taxi drivers exiled priests aspiring authors dissident intellectuals and feminist activists Mills reconsiders the historical actors of Quebec intellectual and political life and challenges the traditional tendency to view migrants as peripheral to Quebec history Ranging from political economy to discussions about sexuality A Place in the Sun demonstrates the ways in which Haitian migrants opened new debates exposed new tensions and forever altered Quebec society     A PLACE OF PROMISE Marcie Shrewsbury Lopez,2025-05-27 This is a captivating story of love The age difference between Adrian and Marcie is a strong appeal and adds to a layer of intrigue It is a heartwarming story It is inspiring and will resonate with many readers The combination of love and art and overcoming challenges also adds to the appeal     Imagining a Place for Buddhism Anne E. Monius,2001-12-06 While Tamil speaking South India is celebrated for its preservation of Hindu tradition other religious communities have played a significant role in shaping the region's religious history Among these non Hindu communities is that of the Buddhists who are little understood because of the scarcity of remnants of Tamil speaking Buddhist culture Here focusing on the two Buddhist texts in Tamil that are complete a sixth century poetic narrative and an eleventh century treatise on grammar and poetics Monius sheds light on the role of literature and literary culture in the formation articulation and evolution of religious identity and community     Log Home Living ,1987 Log Home Living is the oldest largest and most widely distributed and read publication reaching log home enthusiasts For 21 years Log Home Living has presented the log home lifestyle through striking editorial photographic features and informative resources For more than two decades Log Home Living has offered so much more than a magazine through additional resources shows seminars mail order bookstore Web site and membership organization That's why the most serious log home buyers choose Log Home Living     Technology and Values Craig Hanks,2009-05-04 This anthology features essays and book excerpts on technology and values written by preeminent figures in the field from the early 20th century to the present It offers an in depth range of readings on important applied issues in technology as well Useful in addressing questions on philosophy sociology and theory of technology Includes wide ranging
