A Reconciliation Of The Four Gospels

D. Moody Smith, Jr.

A Reconciliation Of The Four Gospels:

A Chronological Synopsis of the Four Gospels ... Translated [from the German] by ... E. Venables Carl Georg WIESELER,1864 The New Testament, tr., and the four Gospels arranged in a harmony, with notes. By W. Thomson ,1816 Light in the dwelling; or, A harmony of the four Gospels; with remarks, adapted to reading at family prayers, for every day of the year, by the author of 'The peep of day'. Revised by a clergyman of the Church of England Favell Lee Mortimer,1890 A Harmony of the Four Gospels: James Macknight,1763 Reconciling Theology Paul Avis,2022-02-28 In Reconciling Theology leading thinker on Anglicanism and ecumenism Paul Avis focuses on the perennial Christian issues of argument debate polemic and conflict on the one hand and dialogue search for common ground working for agreement and harmony on the other Exploring the tension and interaction between them in a range of contexts in modern theology and the Church Avis offers a rigorous but accessible vision of church which moves beyond the usual dichotomy of liberal or orthodox Light in the Dwelling; or, a Harmony of the four Gospels; with ... remarks, adapted to reading at family-prayers ... By the author of "The Peep of Day" [i.e. F. L. Bevan, afterwards Mortimer] ... Revised and corrected by a Clergyman of the Church of England [i.e. Thomas Mortimer]. ,1846 The Fourth Gospel in Four Dimensions D. Moody Smith, Jr.,2021-04-28 Compelling perspectives on the Gospel of John from a premiere scholar of the subject This multidimensional volume from the leading American scholar of Johannine studies brings together D Moody Smith s germinal works from the past two decades along with some original articles published here for the first time The resulting collection augments current understanding of the Gospel of John with fresh insights and research and points the way toward opportunities for new inquiry The collection is structured around four focal issues that define contemporary studies of John In the first section Smith places the book within its Jewish milieu attempting to account for the tension between the work s seeming anti Jewishness and its familiarity with Jewish life and thought Next Smith engages the relationship between John and the historical figure of Jesus especially the extent to which John s representation of Jesus reflects knowledge of independent traditions as well as the self consciousness of his own community The third section examines John s account against the Synoptic Gospels assessing the evidence of John s access to an independent record of the passion and the possibility that John adopted the gospel genre from Mark Finally Smith explores how the Gospels and especially that of John evolved into scripture and how they have come to be interpreted in conjunction with one another

The Four Gospels Burnett Hillman Streeter, 2008-02-01 Collection of the Four Gospels Frédéric Louis Godet, William Affleck, 1899 The Theology of the Four Gospels Mel Shoemaker, 2011-10 Biblical theology is the discovery and development of doctrine as found and emphasized by a specific book of the Bible Instead of beginning with a subject and then searching the scriptures broadly to assemble what may be relevant and illuminate one's understanding of that specific topic biblical theology starts with a particular author and focuses upon a specific scriptural unit The objective is to let the Bible speak for itself and discover what the original writer's wanted readers or those listening to the reading to understand Therefore New Testament biblical theology assists the student in understanding the distinctive doctrinal enrichment each book in the Christian canon brings to the collection of authoritative literature The Theology of the Four Gospels is designed to engage an individual or group in a fresh study of the teachings of Jesus and the distinctive perspectives of the Four Evangelists Matthew Mark Luke and John Even though everyone participating in the study is examining the same literature the conclusions may vary widely which may contribute to a very fruitful discussion Why should one anticipate a variety of interpretations Each person comes to the study of the Bible with prior opinions judgments and beliefs These presuppositions have been formed by our culture e.g. ethnicity political social economic and religious background critical knowledge educational background in history literature language natural abilities life experiences and age and character moral values belief in the supernatural human immortality accountability rational choices and spiritual maturity This is the goal to let the Four Gospels speak for themselves The theological outcome may be tentative and provisional however the reader or student becomes engaged in the process of building a sound personal theology and a steadfast living faith in Jesus Christ A Commentary on the Gospel of St. John August Tholuck, 1836 The Four Gospels, as Interpreted by the Early Church Francis Henry Dunwell, 1876 The Four Gospels on Sunday Gordon W. Lathrop, 2012-06-01 Premier liturgical theologian Gordon Lathrop argues that far too often liturgy preaching and liturgical theology are informed by naive and outdated exegesis In another fully original and deeply reflective work Lathrop partners with newer biblical studies to see the Gospels anew He treats the Gospels as early witnesses to the meaning of Christian assembly and forces in the shaping and reshaping of liturgy Lathrop first probes each Gospel historically and exegetically to discern what it tells us about early Christian worship and Christians relationship to the Risen One Then Lathrop treats the Gospels together to draw out more of their contemporary importance especially ways in which they can enrich our reflection about the assembly itself ministry baptism the use of scripture in liturgy and unity within ecumenical diversity Taking seriously the origins of the New Testament as we understand them today Lathrop demonstrates that the Gospels can remain a true catalyst for liturgical theology and liturgical renewal as well as an inspiring link to the faith and convictions of the earliest followers of the Christian way

Reconciliation and Justification Kenan Osborne, 2001-11-28 Reconciliation and Justification offers a thorough historical and theological background on reconciliation and justification It is an excellent textbook for theology a good stimulus for discussion and a significant contribution to all theological libraries Since Vatican II the sacrament of reconciliation has met with both successes and difficulties Author Kenan B Osborne O F M contends that one of the main reasons for difficulty with the renewal of this sacrament is that it lacks the integration of justification theology He outlines key issues on justification within the biblical theology of St Paul and traces the historical theological and liturgical developments from the first century to the present Thus Fr Osborne enriches our conception of reconciliation through these reflective christological and ecclesiological dimensions Mapping Metaphorical Discourse in the Fourth Gospel Beth M. Stovell, 2012-06-07 In Mapping Metaphorical Discourse in the Fourth Gospel Beth M Stovell examines the metaphor of Jesus as king throughout the Fourth Gospel using an interdisciplinary metaphor theory incorporating cognitive and systemic functional linguistic approaches with literary approaches Stovell argues that the theme of Jesus as king provides one of the unifying themes of John s overall message Examining the place of the Old Testament metaphors of Messiah eternal life life of the age shepherd and exaltation in the conceptual metaphorical network of John s Gospel Stovell asserts that John s Gospel describes the just character of Jesus kingship the subversion of power implicit in his crucified form of kingship and the necessity of response to Jesus as king and his reign
