Diffey, Ryan A. Brandt, Justin McLendon, 2019-12-09 The Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies JBTS is an academic journal focused on the fields of Bible and Theology from an inter denominational point of view The journal is comprised of an editorial board of scholars that represent several academic institutions throughout the world JBTS is concerned with presenting high level original scholarship in an approachable way Academic journals are often written by

Criticizing Science Myrna Perez, 2024-12-17 How Stephen Jay Gould's career illustrates that criticizing science is important for American democracy The question of public trust in science feels newly urgent but today is not the first time that opposing ends of the American political spectrum have critiqued modern science This dynamic has historical roots in the early 1970s when critiques of science emerged simultaneously out of Civil Rights feminist and decolonization movements on the left as well as within the creationism of the Christian Right In Criticizing Science Myrna Perez follows the public career of evolutionary biologist political leftist and anti creationist Stephen Jay Gould during the final decades of the American twentieth century Gould believed that denaturalizing scientific objectivity could be part of the greater work of racial and gender justice in the United States Perez shows the promises and limitations of Gould's view most famously expressed in his 1981 book The Mismeasure of Man that the collective self reflection on the history of scientific bias would lead to a better less oppressive science She argues that we must instead contend with the radical possibilities that are opened by working for a resolutely democratic science By centering Gould Perez clarifies divides among left liberal and right wing movements over evolutionary science during the rise of the Christian Right and the expansion of academic feminism These divides continue to shape contemporary debates over climate change vaccines abortion policy and the nature of gender in present day American politics The Baptist Memorial and Monthly Record ,1856 T&T Clark Handbook of Ecclesiology Kimlyn J.
