Tragedy is a common experience that causes many believers to feel betrayed by God Job was declared righteous by God yet suffered a series of horrible tragedies Most people are ill prepared to deal with tragedy resulting in bitterness that hinders their faith and growth Like Job they cannot understand how a benevolent God can allow evil things to happen to good people Job s friends come to comfort him in his distress but instead attack him viciously because their creed declares that he must have blasphemed and sinned to deserve this punishment Job held the same beliefs but denies any wrongdoing and ultimately sues God for a reason for his suffering God then asks a series of questions that for Job are unanswerable But modern science knows the answers to God s questions This gives rise to a surprising eschatological interpretation This book develops a solution to the age old problem of evil Building the Benedict Option Ward Davis,2024-04-10 In his book The Benedict Option Rod Dreher issued a timely warning to the church In an attempt to engage the broader culture with the gospel it had failed to create a distinct Christian culture and instead had been coopted by American consumer culture The result was an anemic church ill prepared to face a quickly darkening cultural landscape and civilizational decline In response Dreher argued it was time for the church to develop new ways of doing church It was time to create new institutions and strategies to help it better form disciples minister to the broader culture and survive the years ahead It was time for a Benedict Option This book provides a template for how the leaders in a local church might go about creating their own Benedict Option Community Ben Op community It looks specifically at the early Irish monastic movement for principles church leaders today can use to develop their own Ben Op community or modern monastic settlement In the process Davis provides the reader a brief introduction to architecture urban planning and place making and explains why an understanding of these disciplines is necessary to create a healthy effective Ben Op community The Grace Awakening Charles R. Swindoll,2006-11-19 The Grace Awakening calls all Christians to wake up and reject living in such legalistic performance oriented bondage The God of the universe has given us an amazing revolutionary gift of grace and freedom This freedom and grace set us apart from every other religion on the face of the earth In this best selling classic Charles Swindoll urges you not to miss living a grace filled life Freedom and joy not lists and demands and duties await all who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ Long Story Short John Kitchen,2010-09-01 God has written a grand story His Story And He wants you to discover your own story in His Pastor John Kitchen takes you on a unique journey from Genesis to Revelation unfolding God s overarching plan so your life can contribute to and move with God s great eternal Story Experiencing the Power of the Holy Spirit Lloyd John Ogilvie,2013-08-01 Bestselling author and pastor Lloyd John Ogilvie has spent years observing and experiencing himself the deep needs of Christians and why those needs for love comfort guidance or discernment often go unmet In Experiencing the Power of the Holy Spirit he draws on Scripture to illuminate the living and active work of the Spirit Because many believers have a limited view of their great Advocate Counselor Helper and Companion they don't realize that in day to day life they can depend on Him to encourage guide and correct them and prompt them to speak or act appropriately help them identify deep motives and penetrate to the root of personal struggles help them discern in prayer what is best in a situation When believers build their lives upon reliance on the Spirit they can live confidently in life's stressful situations and relationships knowing they have a Friend who is always there to help

Freedom for Obedience Donald G. Bloesch, 2002-04-15 The Christian ethic is an ethic that cannot be assimilated into the moral consensus of the wider community The way of the cross cannot be reconciled with the way of the world just as the gospel cannot be conjoined with the laws that gave stability to social order The thesis of this book is that human justice can never be a substitute for divine justification but it can be a sign and witness to the justifying grace of God in Jesus Christ Humanitarian works can never reach the heights of deeds of sacrificial love and mercy but they can point to this higher righteousness and awaken a thirst for it We must always be on guard against two perils the Scylla of legalism and rigorism and Charybdis of antinomianism An ethics of the divine commandment by uniting law and grace the imperative and the indicative shows how we can live the authentic Christian life in obedience to the highest which is not a law but a person not an ideal but the reality of the New Being the power of crucified love as we see this in Jesus Christ from Freedom for Obedience

Queering the Church Penelope Cowell Doe, 2024-05-31 Church dialogues including official reports and debates within the General Synod operate under the premise that canonical authority can shape a viable theology and coherent ecclesiastical and liturgical practices In a groundbreaking departure from conventional methodologies Queering the Church offers a rigorous examination of the hermeneutical frameworks that inform discussions on homosexuality within ecclesiastical governance Drawing inspiration from Halberstam's concept of the queer art of failure Doe advocates for a fundamental shift a move away from entrenched institutionalized debates toward a more inclusive deconstructive discourse Rather than perpetuating cycles of authoritative rhetoric Doe proposes a transformative realignment one that challenges traditional power dynamics and fosters a more equitable theological dialogue Provocative
