A Modern History Of Tanganyika African Studies:

A Modern History of Tanganyika John Iliffe, 1979-05-10 The first comprehensive and fully documented history of modern Tanganyika mainland Tanzania

A History of Borno Vincent Hiribarren, 2017 A history of an ancient Sahelian kingdom whose hinterland is now being laid waste by the Boko Haram insurgency

Islam in German East Africa, 1885-1918 Jörg Haustein, 2023-07-14 In this rich and multi layered deconstruction of German colonial engagement with Islam Jörg Haustein shows how imperial agents in Germany's largest colony wielded the knowledge category of Islam in a broad set of debates ranging from race language and education to slavery law conflict and war These representations of Mohammedanism often invoked for particular political ends amounted to a serious misreading of Muslims in East Africa with significant long term effects As the first in depth account of the politics of Islam in German East Africa the book makes an essential contribution to the history of religion in Tanzania before British rule It also offers a template for re reading the colonial archive in a manner that recovers Muslim agency beyond a European paradigm of religion

Readings in Gender in Africa Andrea Cornwall, 2005 This is a comprehensive overview on the existing literature on gender in Africa It covers areas such as Western perceptions colonial morality religion and politics

Live from Dar es Salaam Alex Perullo, 2011-10-27 A study of Dar es Salaam's music business from production and broadcasting to live performances in clubs When socialism collapsed in Tanzania the government controlled music industry gave way to a vibrant independent music scene Alex Perullo explores the world of the bands music distributors managers and clubs that attest to the lively and creative music industry in Dar es Salaam Perullo examines the formation of the city's music economy considering the means of musical production distribution protection broadcasting and performance He exposes both legal and illegal strategies for creating business opportunities employed by entrepreneurs who battle government restrictions and give flight to their musical aspirations This is a singular look at the complex music landscape in one of Africa's most dynamic cities This isn't just a book about Tanzanian popular music It's a compendium of everything one could wish to know and more about Dar es Salaam's performance life and an ethnographic tour de force that offers an insider's trip to the sweaty heart of an African capital's music scene without having to go there The social economy of post independence Dar es Salaam is painstakingly interwoven into an account of every style trend and movement in the city's imaginative life from every angle Perullo's achievement will set the standard for studies of popular culture in urban East Africa for decades to come David B Coplan University of the Witwatersrand The extensive research for this book provides valuable insight into Tanzanian culture Live from Dar es Salaam discusses our history and examines current radio stations performances recording studios and music education In reading this book young people will learn about what their elders did in the past and elders will remember those things they took part in In addition this book will become a road map for the next generation to use in order to learn about Tanzanian popular music It is a very important book that illustrates the past present and future of Tanzanian music Remmy

Ongala The Legacy of Agriculture Gautami Devar,2025-01-03 The illustrations in this book are created by Team Educohack The Legacy of Agriculture traces the evolution of agriculture from its earliest days to the present highlighting significant changes and milestones This book is essential not only for students pursuing a career in agriculture but also for anyone with a keen interest in the field Written engagingly it reads like a story making complex information accessible and enjoyable We sequentially explore the heritage of agriculture starting from the Stone Age and include insights into the Global Important Agricultural Heritage Systems GIAHS The journey of agriculture in India is particularly fascinating due to its many stages of development Our book is designed to enhance understanding and appreciation of agriculture It includes comprehensive coverage of ancient practices gardening medicinal plants cattle management domestication and crop cultivation We also address current challenges and future prospects in agriculture supported by clear illustrative diagrams and tables Economic Development of Africa, 1880-1939 vol 1 David Sunderland,2024-10-28 One of the main motives for British imperialism in Africa was economic gain This collection examines the ways in which Britain developed Africa and in so doing benefited her own economy A Host of Devils Zachary Kingdon,2013-11-05 A Host of Devils provides an in depth account of the background origin and development of the spirit figure sculptures which emerged during colonial times among the Makonde people of Mozambique The creation of such works is shown to connect with a regional system of knowledge and practice within which spirits function as a format for expression The book describes the ways in which the sculpture emerged as well as the author s experience of learning how to carve Poverty, Class and Gender in Rural Africa John Sender,Sheila Smith,2012-08-06 Focussing on a Fieldwork study of the West Usambaras in Tanzania this study first published in 1990 deals with processes of class formation and capitalist accumulation and the dynamics of rural poverty and gender relations Arguing that rural differentiation is systematically reinforced by the socialist state the authors offer a critique of government intervention and discuss alternative more effective forms of policy Space of Transformation Geert Castryck,2025-08-18 Drawing on a wide range of archives historical publications oral history graphic audiovisual and web sources Geert Castryck presents Kigoma Ujiji as both shaping and being shaped by global transformations On the surface the book offers almost two centuries of urban history on Lake Tanganyika in western Tanzania close to the Burundian and Congolese borders in a place that has been a transport hub throughout that time Beneath the surface it is also about major transformations on a global scale and about people dealing with and coping with these global challenges far from the supposed global powerhouses Urbanization and infrastructure colonization and decolonization liberalization and democratization war refugees world heritage and translocal identities are the entry points for interpreting transformations that are local and global at the same time The author uses the analytical categories of liminal space and portal of globalization to link the marginality and uncertainty that characterize the successive transformations in Kigoma Ujiji with the urban resilience and creativity used to manage these transformations Routledge Handbook of African Politics Nic

Cheeseman, David Anderson, Andrea Scheibler, 2017-07-05 Providing a comprehensive and cutting edge examination of this important continent Routledge Handbook of African Politics surveys the key debates and controversies dealing with each of the major issues to be found in Africa's politics today Structured into 6 broad areas the handbook features over 30 contributions focused around The State Identity Conflict Democracy and Electoral Politics Political Economy Development International Relations Each chapter deals with a specific topic providing an overview of the main arguments and theories and explaining the empirical evidence that they are based on drawing on high profile cases such as the Democratic Republic of Congo Kenya Nigeria Somalia South Africa Rwanda and Zimbabwe The Handbook also contains new contributions on a wide range of topical issues including terrorism the growing influence of China civil war and transitional justice making it required reading for non specialists and experts alike Featuring both established scholars and emerging researchers this is a vital resource for all students of African Studies democratization conflict resolution and Third World politics The Meaning of Illness Mark and Herzlich Auge, 2013-07-04 This book is based on collective research carried out during the 1980s This edition appears ten years after the original publication in French Since then we have experienced many changes In the late decade disciplines have changed as have the societies being researched The outbreak of AIDS in Africa and the industrial world is not the least of these major and influential changes The reader today will be sensitive to these changes and this research maintains its value as an intellectual endeavour and a useful model Capitalism and Cloves Sarah K. Croucher, 2014-10-29 This study of nineteenth century clove plantations on Zanzibar provides an important contribution to debates in global historical archaeology Broadening plantation archaeology beyond the Atlantic World this work addresses plantations run by Omani Arab colonial rulers of Zanzibar Drawing on archaeological and historical data this book argues for the need to examine non Western contexts of colonialism and capitalism as coeval with those in the North Atlantic World This work explores themes of capitalism colonialism plantation landscapes African Diaspora communities gender and sexuality locally produced and imported goods in historic contexts and Islamic historical archaeology The Gogo Mathias E. Mnyampala, 1995-02-27 This work available for the first time in English is the noted Tanzanian author and poet Mathias Mnyampala's reconstruction of the history and customs of his people First published in Swahili by the East Africa Literature Bureau in 1954 it was one of a number of histories informally sponsored by the British colonial government that were designed to promote tribal cohesion in the face of growing African nationalism In the long run it helped inspire the nationalist movement locally It became part of a discourse among nationalist modernizers traditional intellectuals and colonizers that shaped the end of colonial hegemony and the coming of independence to Tanzania Africa after Apartheid Richard A. Schroeder, 2012-09-03 Tracing the expansion of South African business into other areas of Africa in the years after apartheid Richard A Schroeder explores why South Africans have not always made themselves welcome guests abroad By looking at investments in Tanzania a frontline state in the fight for liberation Schroeder focuses on the encounter between white South Africans and Tanzanians and the cultural social and economic controversies that have emerged as South African firms assume control of local assets Africa after Apartheid affords a penetrating look at the unexpected results of the expansion of African business opportunities following the demise of apartheid Canadian Journal of African Studies, 1982 Tanzania Kjell J. Havnevik, 1993 Economic Development of Africa, 1880-1939 vol 2 David Sunderland, 2024-10-28 One of the main motives for British imperialism in Africa was economic gain This collection examines the ways in which Britain developed Africa and in so doing benefited her own economy Global Labor Migration Eileen Boris, Heidi Gottfried, Julie Greene, Joo-Cheong Tham, 2022-12-27 Around the world hundreds of millions of labor migrants endure exploitation lack of basic rights and institutionalized discrimination and marginalization What dynamics and drivers have created a world in which such a huge and rapidly growing group toils as marginalized men and women existing as a lower caste institutionally and juridically In what ways did labor migrants shape their living and working conditions in the past and what opportunities exist for them today Global Labor Migration presents new multidisciplinary transregional perspectives on issues surrounding global labor migration The essays go beyond disciplinary boundaries with sociologists ethnographers legal scholars and historians contributing research that extends comparison among and within world regions Looking at migrant workers from the late nineteenth century to the present day the contributors illustrate the need for broader perspectives that study labor migration over longer timeframes and from wider geographic areas The result is a unique much needed collection that delves into one of the world s most pressing issues generates scholarly dialogue and proposes cutting edge research agendas and methods Contributors Bridget Anderson Rutvica Andrijasevic Katie Bales Jenny Chan Penelope Ciancanelli Felipe Barradas Correia Castro Bastos Eileen Boris Charlie Fanning Judy Fudge Jorge L Giovannetti Torres Heidi Gottfried Julie Greene Justin Jackson Radhika Natarajan Pun Ngai Bastiaan Nugteren Nicola Piper Jessica R Pliley Devi Sacchetto Helen Sampson Yael Schacher Joo Cheong Tham and Matt Withers Fighting for Britain David Killingray, 2012 Based mainly on oral evidence and soldiers letters tells the story of over half a million African troops who served with the British Army in campaigns in the Horn of Africa the Middle East Italy and Burma Looks at the impact of army life and travel on the men and their families and the role of ex servicemen in post war nationalist politics
